AT A GLANCE

Police following leads in robbery

The Dunnellon Police Department continues to follow-up on leads stemming from the Aug. 5 robbery at SunTrust Bank at 20270 E. Pennsylvania Ave.

During the robbery, the suspect held bank employees at gunpoint, before fleeing on foot through a vacant lot toward The Granada. The suspect was dressed in a red baggy shirt, blue baseball cap with a white, circular emblem, dark sunglasses and gloves.

He is described as a white male, 5 feet, 7 inches to 5 feet, 9 inches tall, in his late 20s to early 30s. He has light brown hair and was clean-shaven.

Crimestoppers is offering up to a $5,000 reward for information leading to the capture of the bank robber. Those with information should call Crimestoppers at (800) 368-STOP (7867).

Sonic robbed, suspect caught

Former employee charged with armed robbery

Brittany Ellis charged with armed robbery.

Riverland News

A former employee at the Dunnellon Sonic Drive In was arrested early Tuesday morning and charged with armed robbery.

According to a police report, Dunnellon Police Department Cpl. Jacob

Gonzalez was dispatched to the fast-food eatery shortly before 11 p.m. Monday in reference to an attempted armed robbery.

Upon arrival, Cpl. Gonzalez spoke with Sonic employees and each stated that Brittany Ellis, 20, a former employee, entered the establishment wearing black clothing and a black mask with holes cut out for the eyes, nose and mouth. She was also using the sleeves from her long sleeve black shirt to cover her hands like gloves, the employees stated.

Ellis then reportedly said "give me the money" to one manager, when another witness recognized Ellis and said, "Brittany, what are you doing? I know it's you. ... I know the way you walk."

At this time, both witnesses observed Ellis holding a knife (with the blade exposed) in her left hand against her left leg. Ellis then removed the mask she was wearing, exposing her face, before leaving from

Boys and Girls Club receives federal grant for new facility

JEFF BRYAN/Riverland News

Six-year-old Nick Newman sprints toward third base as he runs past Ryan Skates during a kickball game Monday morning at the Boys and Girls Club of Marion County Dunnellon branch. With the help of a federal grant, the club will begin construction on an 8,000-square-foot facility across from Walmart on U.S. 41 in January.

Construction on new club likely to begin in January 2011

JEFF BRYAN Riverland News

It's a go for a new Boys and Girls Club facility in Dunnellon. Officials secured funding — $840,000 — through the Community Development Block Grant, which is funded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The new facility will be located on 5.6 acres of land across from Walmart on U.S. 41, near the site of the old Dunnellon Middle School. The Marion County School District owns 5.6 acres of property; however, district officials agreed to lease the property to the Dunnellon Boys and Girls Club for $1 per year for the next 50 years.

"We will be centrally located, less than a mile from the library," said Bobby James, a school board member and former principal at Dunnellon High School. "When people drive through Dunnellon, they're going to see this wonderful facility."

The primary building, which will host most of the programs, will be 8,000 square feet and include classrooms, a basketball court and courtyard. The secondary building will house a conference room and individual meeting rooms that, if needed, can be leased out to community organizations or civic groups.

The new facility will replace the club's current building, which consists of a modular unit across from Ernie Mills Park in the downtown area.

Funds from the grant will be released later this year and construction is expected to start in January. However, the money can only be used on construction of the facility and will not cover the cost of furnishing the building.

That's why James and Bette Nagele, board members for the Dunnellon Boys and Girls Club, are turning their attention to businesses and the community for monetary support. The Boys and Girls Club of Marion County will not be able to help with operating costs, James said.

"We need John Q. Public to step up," James said. "We need quality programs. We need educational programs. A city is not really a city unless they take care of their kids."

"We have to get community support. We know it's there, but we've never asked for it before." Added Nagele: "If we can all give a little, it quickly adds up."

City OKs red-light cameras

Installation of devices to start in few weeks

JEFF BRYAN Riverland News

Stop or they'll shoot.

The Dunnellon City Council approved the use of red-light cameras at three intersections within the city limits Monday night at its meeting.

The ordinance passed on a 5-0 vote. Installation of the cameras will begin in a few weeks. Once the cameras are activated, there will be a 30-day grace period before enforcement begins.

The city and contracted vendor will install a total of four cameras at three spots: along U.S. 41 South by Walmart; one camera will be placed at U.S. 41 and Powell Road; and two more will be installed at Brooks Street and U.S. 41.

It's not about collecting fines or punishing local drivers, Dunnellon Police Chief Joanne Black added.

"It's about reducing accidents and increasing safety," she said.

It took more than 30 minutes of discussion before the council OK'd the decision. The major source of contention wasn't with adopting the state measure, but with the wording the city agreed upon with the vendor regarding right turns at red lights.

Once the council came to an accord on the verbiage to be used in the business contract, officials gave the proposal the green light.

Get caught on camera running a red light and it's a fine of $138 and no points on a driving record, Dunnellon Police Chief Joanne Black said.

However, if any law enforcement official stops you for running a red light, even at an intersection with the cameras, it's a fine of $264 points and up to three

Churches to toast longtime pastor

The Rev. Houston has served congregations since 1984

NANCY KENNEDY Special to the Riverland News

The Rev. David Houston is pastor of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Dunnellon, and the Rev. David Houston is pastor of New Salem Missionary Baptist Church in Holder.

For the past 26 years, Houston has alternated between these two churches as pastor, all the while working a full-time job as a custodian at Citrus Springs Elementary School.

He says it's always been a part of him, having watched his own father serve multiple churches at one time.

In 1984, when his father died, he felt called to the ministry and was asked to take over at two of his father's churches. A month after his father's death, he preached his first sermon in public.

He said before that, he had only preached to the cats and dogs.

The Rev. David Houston will be honored by New Salem Missionary Baptist Church in Holder and Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Dunnellon this weekend.

NRC seeks public input on planned Levy Co. facility

Meetings slated for Sept. 23

Special to the Riverland News

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission staff is seeking public comments about its preliminary finding that there are no environmental impacts that would preclude issuing Combined Licenses (COL) for two new reactors at the Levy County site near Crystal River.

Staff from the NRC and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Jacksonville District, will discuss their Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) in two meetings from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 7 to 10 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 23, at Plantation Inn, 9301 W. Fort Island Trail, Crystal River.

The NRC will transcribe the meetings and post the transcript on the agency's website at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reactors/new-reactors/col/levy.html>. NRC staff will be available for informal discussions with members of the public during "open house" sessions from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and 6 to 7 p.m. No formal comments about the DEIS will be accepted during these open houses.

The DEIS is available on the agency website at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reactors/new-reactors/col/levy.html>. The DEIS is also available via the NRC's electronic document database, ADAMS, by entering accession numbers ML102140231 and ML102140235 in the ADAMS search engine at: <http://adamswebsearch.nrc.gov/dologin.htm>. In addition, a hardbound copy of the DEIS will be available for public inspection at four local libraries: Citrus County Coastal Region Library at 8619 W. Crystal St., Crystal River; Dunnellon Branch Library at 20351 Robinson Road in Dunnellon; the AF Knotts Public Library at 11 55th St. in Yankeetown; and the Bronson Public Library at 600 Gilbert St. in Bronson.

Those wishing to register in advance to present their comments at the meeting, or with special needs for attending or presenting information at the meeting, should contact Douglas Bruner at (800) 368-5642, ext. 2730, or via e-mail at Levy.COLEIS@nrc.gov by Sept. 16. Those wishing to speak may also register at each meeting no later than 1:15 p.m. and 6:45 p.m., respectively. Individual comments could be limited by the time available and the number of people wishing to speak.

NRC staff will also consider written comments on the DEIS for 75 days following its publication in the Federal Register, expected shortly. The public may comment either by mail to the Chief, Rules and Directives Branch, Division of Administrative Services, Office of Administration, Mailstop TWB-05-B01M, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001, via e-mail at Levy.COLEIS@nrc.gov, or via fax to (301) 492-3446.

Marion County roundup

County firefighters not involved in solicitations

MARION COUNTY — Marion County Fire Rescue has received a handful of calls today from citizens expressing concerns about a phone solicitation they've received. The citizens said the solicitation is requesting funds to support local firefighters.

MCFR is not associated with any organization collecting money for firefighters and has not received any funds from any agency.

Before giving donations to any entity, citizens should investigate the legitimacy of the solicitor and find out how the agency plans to allocate donations. If citizens suspect the donation request is a scam, they should contact the Marion County Sheriff's Office non-emergency line at (352) 732-9111.

Officials confirm second case of EEE

OCALA — The Marion County Health Department has confirmed a positive case of Eastern Equine Encephalitis.

The positive case is the second of the year and both cases were present in horses. The latest case was found in a horse in the Micapony area.

Eastern Equine Encephalitis is a mosquito-borne virus that can be transmitted to humans and horses by the bite of an infected mosquito.

The health department advises the public to remain diligent in their personal mosquito protection efforts. These efforts should include the "5 D's" for prevention:

- Dusk and Dawn — Avoid being outdoors when mosquitoes are seeking blood. For many species, this is during the dusk and dawn hours.
  - Dress — Wear clothing that covers most of your skin.
  - DEET — When the potential exists for exposure to mosquitoes, repellents containing DEET (N,N-diethyl-metoluamide, or N,N-diethyl-3-methylbenzamide) are recommended. Picaridin and oil of lemon eucalyptus are other repellent options.
  - Drainage — Check around your home to rid the area of standing water, which is where mosquitoes can lay their eggs.
- For more information about Eastern Equine Encephalitis, contact the Marion County Health Department at (352) 629-0137.

OUR VIEW

Public service officials taking right steps

We're blessed to live in a community where we know our neighbors, the employees at the bank and retail stores on a first-name basis.

Perhaps, most importantly, we live in a community where we know those who are protecting us, our families and our property.

This is why the Dunnellon Police Department's inaugural "National Night Out" can be considered a success. Measuring it by how many people joined local law enforcement, firefighters, elected officials and civic leaders on a walk throughout several communities would be an injustice.

Seeing a police officer or firefighter in your neighborhood — walking the streets and willing to talk — is an opportunity everyone should seize.

Would you want to see a police officer or fire truck in your neighborhood with lights and sirens blasting, headed to a family tragedy or emergency? The answer is most likely a resounding no.

Times have certainly changed throughout the years. People can no longer leave their homes or cars unlocked or leave their cars running while dashing into a convenience store.

However, times have not changed enough that we shouldn't know our local police by their first names. It's certainly a comfort during an emergency when you know who's there to assist you, comfort you and protect you. (Almost like we know Mom is better at doctoring those scrapes and bruises than Dad).

So the next time you're out and you see one of our local law enforcement officials or firefighters, thank them, shake their hand or pat them on the back for their tireless dedication and sacrifices they make to protect our wonderful community.

We wouldn't want it any other way.

Best around

For at least 25 years, my little '71 candy-apple red and white Ford Bronco has been getting gas at Dinkins Station. I wouldn't have thought about going anywhere else. I would drive it up to the gas pump, and Mr. Dinkins or one of his helpers would come out and immediately put up the hood and check it out, then tell me if they saw trouble, then showed me where it was. I didn't have to ask him to do it, they just did it.

I always gave Mr. Dinkins two menthol cough drops and his helper's one. There wasn't a better gas station around. I drove in for gas one morning and Mr. Dinkins put it in, that evening I decided to glue some fast food toys to the dashboard. The next day, I drove in for gas again, Mr. Dinkins took care of it then came over to my car window and said, "How long have you had those toys there on the front dash board"? I told him I glued them on last night. He said "Whew, I'm glad you said that, I was beginning to wonder about myself."

I told Mr. Dinkins he should never change a thing about his store and I hoped they would never go self-service, he said he wouldn't do it either.

The Dinkins Store and gas station will be missed by all and whatever goes in there, to the people who traded there and knew them, it will always be Dinkins.

Support Deakins

We are hanging by a thread here fellow voters. I just have a thought from me to all of you; the longtime to the new residents of Dunnellon (what a nice place and such amicable people.) My family moved here 1 1/2 years ago from Philadelphia, Pa. The Pennsylvania state representative, Dennis O'Brien, who held the position for many years, lived in our community. He took care of the residents, athletic clubs for all sports and activities and all other concerns of our community. My reason for this letter is that I hope everyone will go out to vote for our own local resident, John Deakins. He has a tough battle in the primary election for State representative in District 22. Mr. Deakins is the only candidate for this office that is a veteran and a Marion County resident. Thank you for serving our great nation. So please take the time to read some of his literature, do your own research and I believe you will come to the conclusion to vote for the "hometown" guy. As he served our country, I believe he will fight for us and Dunnellon. God Bless the USA and thanks for listening.

The Other Guy

Buzz is the word for potty training

So my wife and I feel like we've crossed one major hurdle in parenthood — our 3-year-old son, Jackson, is 99 percent potty trained.

When he hits the 100-percent mark, we're going to celebrate Walt Disney World-style. We made a promise with the little tyke that if he learned to use the bathroom like a "big boy," we'd take him to see all of his friends at Disney.

After all, what 3-year-old doesn't know everyone there?

If he could write, I believe he'd have his days already mapped out. Granted, he doesn't need a map, nor does he need a list to tell us whom he's paying homage to first.

That honor goes to Buzz, as in Buzz Lightyear, space ranger.

Now, I know Mickey Mouse is an icon, the big cheese (insert corny laugh here), if you will. But how can Mickey compete with a guy who can fly, drives a rocket ship and has a laser built into his spacesuit?

Seriously, my "big boy" zooms around the house as if he was flying. Then, much like most boys, told us he wanted to fly like Buzz right before he jumped off his bed, shouting "Buzz Lightyear to the rescue."

Of course, if he had his wish, Disney World would summon every one of his friends — from Lightning McQueen to Mater and Mickey — and have them all in the same spot at once. (Not that I would argue against it.)

Jeff Bryan
 Editor

Certainly, the task at hand has not been an easy one. (Is there ever an easy time when it comes to your children?) It's been interesting to watch him grow and learn the skills to get him out of pull-ups, not that we're completely done with that stage yet either. We've got his 2-year-old brother Jayden to follow up with on the PT. We're confident, though, that since he sees Jackson doing it and the reward that will follow, it'll be easier the second time around.

However, learning the ins and outs of what does work (celebrating) versus what doesn't work (getting upset), was tough. But once my wife and I learned what was helpful, it made it easier.

That's where the Buzz phone came in handy. An immediate connection to Buzz made it an easy task to convince Jackson that he needed to go potty. Telling Buzz that Jackson would not be able to see him at Disney World made that little 3-year-old move quickly.

Now, if we can just find out a way to get him to go to bed just as quickly.

TIME TO SMILE

Come On Down!

My favorite sister was visiting last week. I have been trying to talk her into retiring to Florida. She has about five years to go, so I work on her every time she comes to visit.

I took her to Abigail's Café on West Pennsylvania Avenue. The owner, Christina, is a great cook and talented artist. I was hoping Christina's homemade cakes would cinch the deal. Maryellen and I will drive 100 miles out of our way for a good homemade chocolate cake. By the way, Abigail's Waldorf Chicken Salad on a croissant is incredible. I am getting hungry just thinking about it. Yummy!

Maryellen is into country-line dancing, golf and horses. She would fit in to the Florida lifestyle easily.

She came to visit by herself one winter. Her husband couldn't get off work. Ohio was experiencing a brutal winter, so she decided to fly down alone. She wanted to take a ride to see The Villages. Several people she worked with have retired there. My mom and I drove her down to see the place.

It was the most bizarre afternoon I have ever had. My sister was addicted. Her eyes were glazed over. We took every tour available.

She loved every inch of it. My mother and I were worried. My sister is so not The Villages type. She doesn't drink, isn't big on socializing and prefers horses to people. Maryellen was ready to sign on the dotted line. I looked at my mother in horror. My mother said "Maryellen why don't you wait until John gets a chance to look at it?" She came to her senses and we dragged her out of there.

About a half a mile away, she snapped out of it. She said "Oh my gosh, that place was hideous." "I was about to turn into a 'Stepford Wife.'" We don't know what came over her that day. She has since recovered. I told her The Villages is allegedly known for its STD problem. That squashed any chances of a relapse.

I enjoyed The Villages. It would be the perfect place to practice my people watching skills. I know The Villages is not Maryellen's kind of place. No matter how much I want her to move to Florida, I know she would not be happy there.

This past visit, John took a ride down on his scooter to see what the fuss was about. He wasn't impressed. He said "Maryellen and I would stick out like a sore thumb." If he only knew how close he came to living there.

Last week, I took her on a drive through horse country in Ocala. She was salivating. I could see Maryellen on her ranch, putting the horse out to pasture. (That is what they do with horses, right?) She and I are so different. I am a city girl and she is a country girl.

Maryellen hates the heat, so she would have to be a snowbird. She informed me I would have to take care of her horses while she was up north. We both had a good laugh about that one. The only horses I like are in pictures. Big animals scare me.

Well, she came close to committing to moving to Florida. She and John own land here. Building a house on it would be easy. I guess I will have to keep working on her. A few more homemade cakes and she'll be packing her bags.

Principal's office

Middle school gears up for an exciting year

Welcome back students! Principal Jane Ashman, faculty and staff would like to welcome all students back for the start of a new year here at Dunnellon Middle School. There are many new faces added to our school family, teachers, and non-instructional personnel. We are excited to announce that we are an "A" school and will once again strive to achieve higher.

Please join us for our Open House from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 19. This will give all

Jane Ashman
Principal

our students an opportunity to receive their schedule and meet their teachers in the classrooms. We have found this to be beneficial for students to find their way around the campus. Our schedule for this year will remain the same with school beginning at 9:20 a.m. and ending at 3:40 p.m. There will be an "Odd" and "Even" schedule, and they will meet in their homeroom every day. If your child is a car rider, you must drop them off and pick them up in the designated car-rider line in front of the main office building. When students arrive at school, they are to report to the cafeteria for breakfast. If your child does not eat breakfast at school they need to report to their homeroom teacher. Please note: There is no supervision for students that arrive on campus before 9 a.m.

During the first week of school, your child will receive the Marion County Student Code of Conduct booklet. We ask that you read this book with your child. You and your child must sign and return the two-sided acknowledgement page in front of the booklet as soon as possible. Your child will also be receiving a critical information sheet, please fill this out as soon as possible and send it with your child. We must have this information in case of an emergency, and if you wish, your child be checked out of school by someone other than your spouse, this person must be listed on this critical information sheet or we cannot release your child. This is for your child's protection. All homeroom teachers will be collecting this information from the students.

Parents it is very important that we have your correct mailing address on file. A monthly newsletter will be given to your child to bring home at the end of the month for the next month. The newsletter will contain a monthly calendar, a lunch menu and important information about current events and happenings here at Dunnellon Middle School.

For those who are not familiar with our campus, the attendance office and discipline office are in Building 10. This is also where you will go to pick up or drop your child off if it is after or before the start and end of the school day. Administration, guidance and registration are in the main office in Building 1. All visitors must sign in and get a visitors pass from the main office. If you are checking a student out of school early, you do not have to come to the main office you can report to the attendance office in Building 10 and sign your child out from there. No checkouts are done in the main office.

All visitors on campus must have a valid ID and check in with the main office or the Discipline Building 10. You must have a valid picture ID to check out students.

If you should have any questions or concerns, contact our office at (352) 465-6720. We look forward to seeing everyone from 5 to 7 p.m. Aug. 19 for orientation.

She loved her job at the post office in Traveler's Rest and she worked at Rainbow Springs in Dunnellon, Florida. She was a member of PROWL at Pine Run in Ocala, a security program with the sheriff's department.

She was a proud member of the Red Cross of Ocala and Munroe Regional Hospital. She was one of the Ocala Rockettes and loved dancing. She met her second husband, Harold F. Falk, dancing and they were married for three short years when he passed away. Harold was from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was the president of the Falk Industries, which has a plant in Auburn, Alabama.

Memorial services will be held at the First Baptist Church in Inglis, Florida, followed by her desire of a private burial at sea.

Mary C. Parker

Mary C. Parker, 88, died Sunday, Aug. 1, 2010 in Crystal River.

Survivors include her sons, Thomas "Larry" Parker and Bradley Parker.

Arrangements were entrusted to Roberts Funeral Home in Dunnellon. Services are private.

Michelle Catania, 42

After a brave battle with cancer, Michelle Catania, 42, of Manalapan, peacefully entered Heaven on July 27, 2010 surrounded by loving family at home. She was born on Jan. 4, 1968 in Lakewood, N.J., to Angelina (Barbuto) and Robert Wilkins. She moved to Dunnellon, Florida at 14, where she attended high school, followed by attendance at Central Florida Community College in Ocala.

As a young woman she excelled as the lead in many plays and musicals at DHS and CFCC. Truly fearless, she learned to fly planes while beginning a successful career in restaurant management in her early twenties.

Soon thereafter, she returned to New Jersey and married her longtime sweetheart, Tony Catania. As they started a family with the births of Nicholas, now 15, and Stephen, 13, she continued to find success in business, managing retail stores including TJMaxx, The Limited and Kohl's. After her first bout with breast cancer, she changed careers and found even greater success and many friends in real estate as a top salesperson and broker-associate at Weichert Realtors in Marlboro. Michelle also rekindled her love affair with the theater, becoming involved in community productions with the Mighty Oak Players, of Monroe, and Center Players, of Freehold, where she recently performed as a lead in the female version of The Odd Couple. In addition to theater and real estate, she enjoyed preparing gourmet meals, singing and backyard gardening.

A sister, aunt, mother, wife, daughter and friend who touched many lives with her bright smile, huge laugh, good advice and a giving heart - this beautiful, talented woman will be missed by many.

Additional survivors include Michelle's five siblings; Glenn and Robert Wilkins, Gina Georgiano, Angela Rose and Maggie Gunther. Also, step-father, Thomas Gunther, father- and mother-in-law, Anthony and Donna Catania, numerous nieces and nephews, cousins, brothers- and sisters-in-law and many loving friends.

A memorial for family and friends took place on Friday, July 30 from 4 to 8 p.m. at Higgins Memorial Home (www.higgins-memorialhome.com) in Freehold, New Jersey.

In lieu of flowers, tax-deductible donations may be made in Michelle's honor payable to the Michelle Catania Children's Theater Program, mailed care of Center Players, 35 South Street, Freehold, N.J. 07728 or online at <http://michellectatania.wordpress.com>.

Frank A. Terrell, 65
Frank A. Terrell, 65, Dunnellon, died Friday, Aug. 6, 2010.

Survivors include his wife, Marilyn Y. Terrell; one daughter, Dionne Davis; and one son, Marvin Terrell and wife Lisa, both of Ocala. The funeral will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Union Missionary Baptist Church, Dunnellon.

Snow Funeral Ministry is in charge of arrangements (352-438-0007).

Outdoors

Volunteer and keep your cool

The outdoors isn't for everyone - but volunteering is. One often heard reason for not volunteering here in Florida during the summer months is the oppressive heat. The same reasoning holds true for our recent chilly winters. At Rainbow Springs State Park in Dunnellon, we have an answer for that. Volunteer support is needed indoors, as well as outdoors. Simple examples of that are office support jobs such as filing or receptionist type jobs that could include answering the busy phone to assist rangers at the toll booths.

Many visitors call the park prior to their visit. Often they simply need directions or want to know the entry price. After being trained by one of the park rangers, a few hours of help with the phones would be a generous donation of your time. Phone calls are answered at the Visitor Center - a hub of activity during the day. Volunteers at the park should consider the two levels of volunteering that is offered. The first level is that of a Park Volunteer. Park volunteers generally show up several hours during the week, help rangers on their projects, or work independently or in small groups. Some ask for an assigned area of the park to work in or choose an area on their own that they would like to spend their time on. These volunteers are under the guidance and direction of the Park Services Specialist.

Another level of volunteerism is offered by becoming a member of FORS, the Friends of Rainbow Springs. FORS, an organized volunteer CSO (Citizen Support Group) is comprised of more than 200 members, many of whom are active volunteers. As a group, they contribute more than 15,000 hours annually. Many of the hours spent are in areas of the Visitor Center at the gift shop, or the tollbooths or the food concession. A great volunteer time is had at the many special events sponsored by FORS. In the winter, the park becomes a magical place for young and old. Santa's Living Room is a favorite of the season. Volunteers string the park with thousands of lights to make it a special winter wonderland for the visitors. Other volunteers become elves or Santa's helpers - or drive Santa himself in the boat to the dock full of anxiously awaiting children. The Crafty Ladies are a group of FORS members that spend Thursday mornings together, making crafts to sell in the gift shop throughout the year. Yet another group of FORS members meet Monday mornings to perform general maintenance or take on projects such as building park benches. Many volunteers belong to both groups and find that with training, they are actually maintaining and managing a state park. Choose from a wide array of volunteer opportunities: administrative support, campground host, construction and maintenance, historic preservation, ranger station, tour guide, trail maintenance, litter removal, weeding flower beds, concession stand and gift shop operations, public relations and more. Opportunities abound indoors and outdoors. Everyone has a place in the volunteer programs at Rainbow Springs. For more information about volunteering, e-mail Nicky.Aiken@dep.state.fl.us, visit Floridastateparks.org or contact Nicky Aiken, park services specialist, at 465-8539.

If the whole world were an Apple fritter who would need heaven?

When a person has reached the ripe old age I have reached there are precious few pleasures left. Actually, there are many pleasures left but no energy to pursue them and if I happen to catch a pleasure, I can't remember what in the world I'm supposed to do with it.

Rev. James Snyder

One pleasure has been by my side for more years than I care to remember. No matter what the circumstances I may be in at the moment, I can always count on this pleasure to lift my spirits and paint a grin on my mug. Of course, if the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage catches me with this pleasure I have some real explaining to do.

This is where my wife and I paddle separate canoes.

The pleasure I am referring to has created more discussion - or maybe I should say monologues - in our home then just about anything else. I'm for it and she's against it. In all reality, her arguments against it, at least in verbiage, far outweighs my argument for it.

When you come right down to it is very difficult to explain why you like the things that you like. My motto is, to each person his own pleasure. In this regard, we are not all created equal.

The pleasure I am speaking about is a lowly, but highly delicious, Apple Fritter. When God created the Apple Fritter, he sat down and said, "Uhm, um um that's good." And the world has never been the same since.

When I see an Apple Fritter I say, "Uhm, um um that's good."

When my wife sees an Apple Fritter, particularly my Apple Fritter, she says, "How many calories are in that?" She never refers to it by its proper name but simply calls it, "That."

My view on the subject is that when something tastes as wonderful and as delicious as an Apple Fritter there is actually no reason to count calories. In fact, in the pursuit of the pleasure of eating an Apple Fritter calories simply do not count.

Someone who did not know me very well might ask an obvious question, "When eating an Apple Fritter aren't you worried about what your wife may say?"

That is a perfectly reasonable question. With all the problems in the world and all of the difficulties and disappointments we encounter day by day, that would be a very good question to ask. However, when I am in the "act" of eating an Apple Fritter nothing else matters in the whole world. That is the effect an Apple Fritter has on Yours Truly.

I believe that is the purpose of a pleasure; to help me forget about the nastiness of the world around me.

To be honest, I must say that my wife has one good point about my Apple Fritters. If you just look at the ingredients of an Apple Fritter, you could conclude that it is unhealthy for a person. However, that is looking at it from the scientific side of things.

I look at things from the philosophical side. And when I do that, I must conclude that the lowly Apple Fritter has marvelous restorative abilities. With all the ingredients laid out on the table I will find no appetite for it. In fact, I might turn my nose up in disgust if I look just at the ingredients.

However, put them all together and wave a magical wand over it and voila, you have an Apple Fritter capable of bringing a great deal of pleasure to someone like me.

Normally, if someone like me has normal moments, I keep the consumption of my Apple Fritters from my wife. And I do this out of deep respect and love for her... not to mention my Apple Fritter. I know if she knew I was eating an Apple Fritter it would upset her. Not wanting to upset my Beloved, what she does not know I am eating will not hurt her or me for that matter.

I was just thinking the other day, if the whole world were an Apple Fritter who would need heaven. Nothing pleases me more than indulging in a freshly baked Apple Fritter. How wonderful it would be if this pleasure was multiplied a billion times around our world.

Instead of war, or hate, or greed, or lust, or killing, there would simply be Apple Fritter Time. Everybody would indulge in sharing the marvelous pleasures of eating Apple Fritters. We would sit around café-like and talk about how wonderful Apple Fritters are. The center of every conversation would be delighting in Apple Fritters.

Every language on the Earth would have something nice to say about

Pilgrimage to England

Special to the Riverland News
Assistant Pastor Peter Wilkerson of Riverland Baptist Church, along with his wife, Fran, spent the month of June visiting churches in the United Kingdom, sponsored by the Vision UK ministry. Since its inception, five churches have opened their doors. Each year, Peter and Fran make a pilgrimage to England to offer encouragement and support to those churches sponsored, and this year give a positive report that, although slow, there has been growth in all five churches. Riverland Baptist Church is 1 mile north of Highway 40 on U.S. 41. For more information about Vision UK or the many other ministries offered, contact 489-6171 or visit www.riverlandbaptistchurch.com.

this delicacy. It would be the common point of conversation in every nation under the sun.

This kind of world would make heaven here on earth.

But this is not the kind of world we live in. The apostle Paul noted this when he wrote, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better" (Philippians 1:21-24).

No pleasure upon the Earth, even Apple Fritters, compares to what God has in store for us in heaven.

Commissioner Stone receives honor

The Florida Association of Counties recently recognized Marion County Commissioner Charlie Stone for earning his Advanced County Commissioner designation. Stone graduated with 11 other peers from across Florida. Eighty-four other Florida commissioners have received this designation since the program started in 2006.

The Advanced County Commissioner program is a series of three seminars that includes 27 hours of coursework on topics including leadership, strategic planning and growth management among others. "This training offers a commissioner an opportunity to learn ways to address many of the challenges that local governments face in today's environment," Stone said. "Positive leadership is always in search of best practices to help us accomplish goals."

The FAC, a nonprofit association, has existed since 1929 and offers elected and governmental leaders from Florida's 67 counties opportunities to network, share lessons learned and better serve Florida's citizens. For more information about the FAC, go to www.fl-counties.com.

40 homes sell for $2.2M at auction

Buyers make their mark at foreclosure sale

MICHEL NORTHSEA
Staff Writer

A 3-bedroom, 2-bath home in Rainbow Lakes went for $30,000 and another one on Shorewood Drive went for $75,000. And another 3-bedroom, 2-bath in Rainbow Acres was only $25,000.

These Dunnellon area homes were offered during a foreclosure action in Ocala last week.

Auctioneers from REDC, Real Estate Disposition Corporation, auctioned off 86 homes in Marion, Citrus, Levy, Sumter and Hernando counties as part of its six-day tour in Florida. Overall, 1,500 foreclosures were auctioned in Fort Myers, Orlando, Miami-Ft. Lauderdale, Tampa, Jacksonville, Melbourne and Sarasota.

Of the 86 homes auctioned at the Ocala Hilton, five were in Dunnellon, 25 in Ocala, a few in Fort Coy with the rest in Levy, Citrus and Hernando counties.

Priscilla Phipps hadn't come to buy, but simply wanted to see what the auction was all about. One day she plans on becoming an investor, so she was looking for a lesson on finding good deals.

"I was blown away," she admitted. "Everything was happening so fast."

Typically, 25 to 30 homes are auctioned per hour — a fast, but manageable, pace for buyers, said Rick Weinberg, vice-president of public relations.

Phipps wasn't the only one attending a real estate auction for the first time. When the question was posed to the audience, more than 50 percent raised their hands indicating they were at their first auction.

Many in the audience were investors.

Sheila Noel, of Williston, was hoping to buy her second piece of property from REDC. Earlier this year, she was the successful bidder on an online auction. Now, she was interested in two pieces of property in the Morriston area.

Noel bought her first investment piece of real estate — which had been used as a grow house and needed a lot of fix-up — with some of her 401K money after realizing the stock market wasn't doing much for her bottom line.

She offered advice to those new to the auction way of buying.

Noel said potential buyers should do their homework before bidding by going online to check out what the value of the property is in today's market.

"Don't get caught up in the frenzy of wanting to win the bid. Set your price and don't go over it," she said.

Valerie Hanchar, Dunnellon resident and real estate broker, agrees.

She went to the auction with her mother. They were looking to buy a piece of property offered. Their attempts were unsuccessful when the price they were willing to spend was surpassed.

"We were only willing to pay so much," she said.

Leaving the auction, Hanchar said she felt good deals were out there but it was also a "buyer beware" market.

"Buyers need to definitely look over the property," she said.

Overall, 40 homes sold during the evening for $2.2 million.

For those making last week's auction — all is not lost.

Some transactions may fall through and in those situations, the properties are made available through REDC's website, Auction.com, Weinberg said.

Resident publishes Christmas play

Dunnellon resident June Adams has published a Christmas play entitled "Mary's First Christmas," with the subtitle "A Christmas Love Story." It tells the Christmas story as remembered by Joseph and Mary and their experiences of adversity, excitement and joy leading up to the birth of Jesus. The book may be purchased from Xulon Press or numerous book stores with Christmas material.

Associated honor with choice award

Seven Rivers Regional Medical Center associate Harry Bailey, right, of Dunnellon is a recipient of the hospital's quarterly Associate Choice Award for his outstanding commitment to making the hospital a better place for patients, employees, physicians and volunteers. He was recognized for going above and beyond to provide a helping hand to their fellow associates. Also pictured is Amy Kingery.

YOUR DENTAL HEALTH

by M. E. Hampton, D.D.S.

GUM TREATMENT MAY HELP DIABETICS

Recent research has uncovered links between gum disease and other parts of the body that previously may have seemed unlikely. For instance, periodontitis has been associated with an increased risk of heart disease and stroke, which makes a good case for addressing gum inflammation. More recently, researchers have discovered another potential benefit of keeping gum disease at bay. According to research, it has been found that treating periodontal disease in diabetics may lower their insulin levels. Researchers suggest that the connection is based on bacterial infections of the mouth that cause inflammation, which results in chemical changes that reduce the effectiveness of insulin produced in the body. As a consequence, diabetics find it more difficult to control their blood sugar

At the office of Mark E. Hampton, D.D.S., we work with our patients so they can achieve and maintain a beautiful smile and healthier gums and teeth. We take the time with our patients to explain their treatment options and inform them of additional preventative care. Most adults with gum disease are unaware that they have it. Periodontal disease is usually a slow, painless, progressive disease. You need not lose your teeth to gum disease. If diagnosed early, the teeth can be saved. We're located at 11902 Illinois Street, Dunnellon. Where we are currently accepting new patients. Please call 352-489-5071 to schedule an appointment. "We're Dedicated to Excellent Dentistry."

P.S. Previous research has found that 90 percent of patients with periodontal disease were at risk for developing Type 2 diabetes.

the rear doors (leading to the restroom/side exit) prior to receiving any money from the business, the report stated.

The third witness observed Ellis running from the business, then watched her enter her vehicle on the passenger side. The witness positively identified the vehicle as belonging to Ellis and the driver of the vehicle was Ellis' friend, Danielle Adams, according to the report.

Cpl. Gonzalez reviewed the video surveillance from inside the store and positively identified Ellis by a Florida driver's license photograph, after she took off the mask and was exiting out of the side entrance of the business.

Shortly after midnight, Cpl. Gonzalez was contacted by a deputy with the Marion County Sheriff's Office in reference to the case. The deputy said that Ellis and Adams contacted the Marion County Sheriff's Office prior to this incident in reference to the report of stolen property. The deputy provided me with a cell phone number that was provided to the sheriff's office.

Shortly afterward, Cpl. Gonzalez called the telephone number, which was answered by Adams, who agreed to come to the Dunnellon Police Department along with Ellis to speak with Cpl. Gonzalez in reference to this case, the report states.

While at Dunnellon Police Department, Ellis stated she was at Sonic Drive In because Adams was there to pick her up. Ellis stated she went to the restroom on the side of the building, exited the building and then left in the vehicle with Adams. Ellis stated she was wearing a black long sleeve shirt and blue pants while she was at Sonic; however, she wasn't currently wearing the clothing at this time, because she changed while at her residence in Romeo. Ellis consented to a search of her vehicle and Cpl. Gonzalez discovered a Sonic cup and a black shirt inside the vehicle.

Cpl. Gonzalez placed Ellis under arrest for armed robbery and was later transported to the Marion County Jail. Bond was set at $2,000.

Yard work

JEFF BRYAN/Riverland News
Wetmore clears rock and other debris as he and Goff work on laying new sod. ABOVE: Mike Goff, foreground, and Steve Wetmore, back, were busy placing sod around Dunnellon City Hall last Thursday. The two were completing a beautification project around city hall that included laying new sod, pressure washing the building and relocating shrubs. "Prepping was the biggest thing," Wetmore said. The city employees hoped to have the project completed this week.

Shabbat experience Friday, Aug. 13

Congregation Beth Israel of Ocala will present a Shabbat Experience on Friday, Aug. 13, at 6 p.m. at the Collins Medical Resource Center, 9401 State Road 200, Building 300 in Ocala.

The program will feature Jennifer Singer, Educational Director of Congregation Kol HaNe-shama (Reconstructionist) in Sarasota who will lead in joyous song and worship.

Her daughter, Sarah, will enhance the service with her beautiful soprano voice.

There will be a short service starting at 6 p.m. followed by a traditional Shabbat meal.

Special Shabbat songs and blessings after the meal will conclude the program.

There will be no 8 p.m. services on that evening. The cost is $18 per person. Contact Estelle @ 352.237-8277 for reservations by Aug. 6.

Blessings by the Box

Angel Food Ministries is a nonprofit, nondenominational organization dedicated to providing food relief to communities throughout the United States. Angel Food is available in a quantity that can fit into a medium-sized box at $30 per unit. Each month's menu is different than the previous month and consists of both fresh and frozen items with an average retail value of approximately $60. Generally, one unit of food assists in feeding a family of four for about one week or a single senior citizen for almost a month. There are no second-hand items, no damaged or out-dated goods, no dented cans without labels, no day-old breads and no produce that is almost too ripe. There are also specialty boxes and no limit on the number of units an individual can purchase and there are no applications to complete or qualifications. Angel Food Ministries also participates in the U.S. Food Stamp program, using the Off-Line Food Stamp Voucher system. Menus, order dates and times as well as the pickup date and time will be available on the Web site, AngelFood-Ministries.com

For those who might not have Internet access, call the church office. First Assembly of God of Dunnellon is at 2872 West Dunnellon Road, one mile west of Hwy. 41 (across from Nichol's Lumber). Church office phone number is 489-8455. Web site is www.firsttag.net.

Beaches

Claims

Cleanup

Economic Investment

Environmental Restoration

Health and Safety

Wildlife

At BP, we have taken full responsibility for the cleanup in the Gulf. And that includes keeping you informed.

Looking For Oil

You may have heard oil is no longer flowing into the Gulf, but our work on the beaches continues. When oil is spotted, the Response Command Center is notified, a Shore Cleanup Assessment Team is mobilized and work begins immediately. Efforts are being coordinated from staging areas in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida.

If you see oil on the beach, please call 1-866-448-5816 and we'll send a team to clean it up.

Cleaning Up The Beaches

The number of people mobilized to clean up the beaches depends on the size of the affected area. Individual teams can number in the hundreds, and thousands of additional workers remain on-call. Working with the Coast Guard, our teams continue cleaning up until the last bit of oil has been removed.

Our Responsibility

Our beach operations will continue until the last of the oil has been skimmed from the sea, the beaches and estuaries have been cleaned up, and the region has been pronounced oil-free. We have already spent more than $3.9 billion responding to the spill and on the cleanup, and none of this will be paid by taxpayers.

Our commitment is that we'll be here for as long as it takes. We may not always be perfect, but we will do everything we can to make this right.
