SERVING THE COMMUNITIES & BUSINESSES BETWEEN SR 200 AND US 27

Local theater group to honor Reese as golf film opens

The movie is built around golf, but it's about life, from despair into a journey to deep faith. Members of area churches are organizing groups to attend "Seven Days in Utopia" www.sevendaysinutopia.com at the Marion Theatre when it begins its showing on Sept. 2.

Mike McGinnis, member of First Baptist Church of Ocala, and former golf instructor at the College of Central Florida, said his Sunday school class has talked about the book. According to McGinnis, the book and movie have a great message about golf and life, and he encourages everyone to see it.

Mark Cummins, pastor of the Church of Hope, has seen the movie. He notes that "it has a message of hope, in the tension of broken relationships, leading to the discovery of the purposes and plans that God has for the central character's life." Cummins observes that in the movie the message comes forth that "God engages us outside of church, in all the various realms of our lives."

The movie has a special meaning for a group of Ocalans who plan to attend the Marion Theatre premier because of its ties to Ocala.

Aeronautical engineer/entrepreneur and longtime Ocala resident Sandy Reese, who died Friday, Aug. 12, had a direct connection with the movie and its producer/author David Cook. The two men became business partners in Reeso Putters www.reesoputters.com which Reese designed and engineered. The face-on putters are featured in the movie.

Reese will be honored by the Save The Marion Theater group with a moment of silence and a brief ceremony on the evening of the movie's first showing at the Marion, which the Ocala native grew up attending at an early age.

Meanwhile, through the generosity of others, many youths 18 and under will have chances to attend the movie free when accompanied by a ticket-bearing adult.

JV football action

The West Port High School junior varsity won its half of action in the preseason classic Friday night, beating Belleview 14-13. Here the defense swarms all over a Rattler runner. West Port cruised in the varsity half, 41-0. The JV opens the season at Dunnellon Thursday.

McClain says he'll run again in 2012

County Commissioner Stan McClain, District 3, announced that he will seek re-election in 2012.

"We have pushed forward during some very tough economic times over the past three years but have kept our county's fiscal house in order by making some tough cuts and by holding the line on our spending," said McClain.

"The hard work has paid off, and now we are poised to become one of Florida's leaders out of the recession, and I am looking forward to serving with this team one more term to help bring job growth and prosperity back to our community."

In 2004 when he first ran for office, McClain ran on what his news release calls a common sense platform of limiting spending, cutting taxes,

He has built a reputation as a fiscal conservative with a commitment to encouraging economic development by setting reasonable tax policies and by looking for forward-thinking ideas to spur on job creation, according to the release.

McClain says he has also taken strong action to protect Marion County's springs and natural resources and has been a consensus builder in achieving reasonable water policies.

"As a leader in the state Chamber of Commerce, as a former House Speaker, and as a former member of the County Commission, I share Stan's philosophy that government's role in economic development is to set good tax and regulatory policy and then let our small businesses work," said former House Speaker Larry Cretul.

"Stan is a thoughtful leader for our community, and we are looking forward to his return to the Commission."

"Marion County's greatest resource is its people," said McClain. "Without them, we could not achieve our most simple goals, and I am ready to work with them again in shaping a bright future for Marion County."

Early deadline for next issue

Because of Labor Day, the deadline for news for the Sept. 7 issue of the Messenger will be Thursday, Sept. 1, at 3 p.m. Any material received after that time will be held until the following week.

The Messenger and Citizen office will be closed Monday. Regular hours will resume at 8:30 Tuesday morning.

Also, please remember to submit your memories of 9/11 by Thursday. Thank you for your participation.

Warrant Officer honored

On Aug. 10, 2011, George W. Wood Jr. completed Warrant Officer Candidate School (WOCS) at Fort Rucker, Alabama, and was appointed to Warrant Officer 1 (WO1). While at WOCS, Wood earned the title of Honor Graduate; graduating second in his class. Wood was selected to attend WOCS in January, after serving in the United States Army for eight years and reaching the rank of Staff Sergeant. Wood and his wife, Jennie, are currently living in Georgia while he attends further training at Fort Gordon. Wood will receive his first assignment as a WO 1 in the spring of next year. Wood is the son of Emma Wood of Ocala Palms.

Rally for Israel

The Republican Club of Ocala Palms spearheaded a Restoring Courage/Standing with Israel Rally on Aug. 24 on the Square in downtown Ocala. This rally was in conjunction with three events in Jerusalem sponsored by Glenn Beck; events intended to show Israel they have support and are not alone in the world. A special thanks to Rep. Dennis Baxley for supplying the drinking water. It was much appreciated.

OBS sales pass $4.5 million mark

Hip No. 537, a colt by Wildcat Heir consigned by Summerfield (Francis & Barbara Vanlangendonck), Agent, went to Vision Racing and Sales for $85,000 to top the second and final Open session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's 2011 August Yearling Sale. Hip No. 596, a filly by Chapel Royal consigned by Greystone Manor Farm, was sold to Steve Dwsokin for $48,000. The dark bay or brown filly is out of Aggressive Broad, by Broad Brush, and is a half sister to stakes winner Awesomewithbroads.

Vision Racing and Sales went to $43,000 for Hip No. 583, a colt by Tiz Wonderful consigned by Eversole Thoroughbreds, Agent. The dark bay or brown colt is out of Witchful Saint, by Saint Ballado, and is a half brother to stakes placed How Bout Tonight.

Hip No. 732, a Rockport Harbor colt consigned by Imagine., went to Quarter Pole Enterprises, LLC for $40,000. The gray or roan colt is out of Europium, by Exchange Rate, a daughter of stakes winner Just Bet On Me.

For the session, 195 horses sold for a total of $1,929,400, compared with 229 horses grossing $1,793,850 at the corresponding session last year. The average price was $9,894, up 26.3 percent from $7,833 in 2010, while the median price of $7,000 rose 40% from $5,000 a year ago. The buyback percentage was 25.6 percent, identical to last year's session.

For the two Open sessions, 408 horses sold for a total of $4,562,100, compared with 475 horses bringing $4,138,350 a year ago.

The average price was $11,182, up 28.4 percent from $8,712 in 2010.

Fairfield Village

Wo'man'ly event a big hit in Fairfield Village

Priscilla Geissal

On Thursday evening, Aug. 25, at 7 p.m., the Fairfield Village Clubhouse became the scene of another of ALL Manager Peggy Sluss's Lifestyle Events. So far, all of these events have been a splendid success for which Peggy gives much credit to several others of our community residents who pitch in to make these events so much fun.

That was the case again this time as Peggy along with Toni Belcher, Linda Ford, Becky Kelsch, and Ann Kulesa coordinated a "Fashion Show" with quite unusual (foreign) models. There were celebrities from around the world... Charlene (Belcher), Danielle (Ford), Roberta (Kelsch), Edwina (Kulesa), and Raylene (Sluss), along with Penny (Geissal) and Josephina (Scott).

Fairfield Village attendees of the event were totally entertained with these well-known French, Irish, Dutch, German, Scotch, English - and (we suspected) - Libyan "ladies" who showed off the latest fashions. The show started with casual wear, then business wear, followed by evening attire, and as a most remarkable finale...bridal wear worn quite convincingly by the lovely Danielle (Ford.)

All those present seemed to feel that though the blushing bride, Danielle, was not able to rival Duchess Catherine or even Kim Kardashian - with their much publicized weddings of the past several moths, there was a gorgeous wedding dress modeled which is actually available for rental in the Ocala area for quite a reasonable fee.

The visiting models did more than a respectable job of showcasing very stylish outfits that would fit the tastes of someone somewhere in the world - surely? We did feel that several of our models were definitely of the PLUS SIZE category rather than of the very tiny and demure demeanor of Duchess Catherine (Kate) or that of her much publicized younger sister, Pippa Middleton, who has become quite the icon of English elegance and grace.

We believe that the photos of our most alluring guest models will speak for themselves as Fairfield Village continues to prove that we are indeed quite the "...lively place filled with 'lovely?' people."

Danielle (Ford), quite the sexy icon, is a terrific hit along with her darling little puppy in the matching animal print coat. More photos, Page 8

Edwina (Kulesa) is a study in contrasts with the turquoise and black outfit which is set off by her petite purse and darling hat. Edwina is the essence of "sweetness" as can be seen with her saccharine smile.

Stone Creek

A baby shower not a common event in our community

Patricia Gizzi

A baby shower at a 55+ community is usually not an event one sees, but this happened at the home of Rita Levy last Thursday. She is a member of the Crafts of the Mind Book club and the club sponsored the baby shower for one of their outreach programs - Alpha House. Amy Schwartz, secretary of the club, suggested the idea. Thirty people attended the luncheon and brought much needed items for the Alpha House. Those in attendance were book club members as well as residents who volunteer at the Alpha House along with their director, Lori Chamblin. June Council and Kathy Rossi are Stone Creek residents who volunteer at Alpha House. Also present were volunteers from Brothers' Keeper Soup Kitchen who work with Rita Levy and Patricia Gizzi, co-chairs of the baby shower. Sister Concepta, director of the Soup Kitchen was also present, and many of Rita's friends who wanted to help.

Lori Chamblin spoke to the group and told them about the history of the Alpha House and had hand outs on the various jobs that volunteers can do. She thanked the Book Group for their donations and how this shower would help them. Many at the shower thought it should become a yearly event for Alpha House.

Sister Concepta also spoke of the needs of the Soup Kitchen and thanked those that contribute food. If you are interested in volunteering, you can call Sister Concepta at 352-867-9860. Rita Gonzales who coordinates the pick-up of food for the Soup Kitchen also asked for volunteers.

Officers of the club are Carol Wilkes, Peggy Seery and Amy Schwartz. Crafts of the Mind Book Club meets on the third Tuesday of the month at 10:30 a.m. to discuss the book they are reading that month. This month, they read The Matterhorn by Karl Marlantes. This book is a novel of the Vietnam War. New community manager, Chris Johnson was invited as he spent two tours of duty in Vietnam. There was a great deal of discussion about his perspective and the perspective of the author.

The book club recently took a field trip to see the movie, The Help, as they had read the book earlier this year. They are looking to take another field trip to see Sarah's Key, another book they read.

If you are interested in reading and discussing books, give this club a try. They will be planning next year's books in the coming months.

The Book Club has teamed up this year with the Leisure Arts Club to purchase children's books for their bag program of putting great children's books with activities into homemade book bags for Saddlewood Elementary School.

These bags and books will be given to the library for teachers to check out. The book club will be selling donated books at the Fall Festival on Oct. 15. If you have books you would like to donate you can drop them off at Terry Quinn's home in Pinebrook. There is a box outside her front door.

The money from the sale of these books will be donated to Leisure Arts for the purchase of children's books.

This is just another example of how clubs, organizations and residents of Stone Creek are giving back to the Ocala Community. What a great place to live!

Pizzazz on a Plate

Jazz up recipes with flavorful nutrition

FAMILY FEATURES

If you're hungering for something new to eat, or it's time to put some zip into the same old menus, take heart. These recipes bring two great ingredients together — Texas Rio Star Grapefruit and USA peanuts — perking up meal time with fresh and flavorful dishes.

Texas Rio Star grapefruit brings a mouthwatering burst of sun-kissed sweetness — the perfect fruit for brightening up winter days. With so many nutrients squeezed into such a versatile fruit, it adds plenty of zing to healthy eating.

Peanuts have a familiar taste that's a favorite with kids and adults alike. When combined with new and different ingredients, this nutrient-packed addition makes new foods and flavors a family hit.

Want to add pizzazz to your plate? Find more delicious recipes and nutrition information at www.nationalpeanutboard.org and www.texasweet.com.

Good and good for you

Peanuts are a superfood — with more than 30 essential nutrients. They're a surprising source of:

- Protein — with 7 grams per one-ounce serving, peanuts have the most protein of any nut.
- Niacin, folate, fiber, magnesium, vitamin E, manganese and phosphorus.
- More antioxidants than green tea, broccoli or spinach.

Rio Star grapefruit delivers a burst of nutrition with one-half of a medium-sized grapefruit delivering:

- One fruit serving for adults, antioxidant vitamins C and A, fiber and lycopene — all with only 60 calories.
- 100% of the daily requirement of vitamin C for adults. Vitamin C supports healthy immune function, which helps the body fight infection.

Crunchy Peanut Chicken Strips with Spinach Salad

Prep time: 15 minutes
Cook time: about 30 minutes
Makes 4 to 6 servings

- 1 cup finely crushed baked tortilla chips
- 6 tablespoons peanut flour, divided (available at supermarkets nationwide and online)
- 1/4 cup roasted, unsalted peanuts, finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon Mexican seasoning blend
- 3/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 pound chicken tenders, or boneless, skinless chicken breasts cut into 1-inch strips
- 2 beaten egg whites
- Olive oil nonstick cooking spray

Peanut Dressing:

- 2 tablespoons creamy peanut butter
- 2 tablespoons rice wine vinegar
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 2 teaspoons toasted sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon hot chili sauce (such as Sriracha)
- 1 teaspoon honey
- 1/4 cup canola or vegetable oil

Salad:

- 5 cups baby spinach, washed and dried
- 1 red bell pepper, sliced thin
- 1/2 medium red onion, sliced thin

Preheat oven to 425°F. Stir together tortilla chips, 2 tablespoons peanut flour, chopped peanuts, Mexican seasoning and garlic powder in a shallow dish.

Dip chicken into remaining peanut flour, then in egg whites, then into tortilla chip mixture, pressing to evenly coat. Place on a baking sheet and sprinkle any remaining crumb mixture over chicken. Coat liberally with cooking spray and bake for 20 to 25 minutes or until chicken is golden brown, coating with nonstick cooking spray several times during cooking.

While chicken is cooking, in large bowl, whisk together all dressing ingredients until smooth. Gently toss spinach, red pepper and onion in dressing. To serve, divide dressed salad among plates and top with 2 to 3 chicken strips.

Grapefruit and Peanut Salad Flatbread

Prep time: 20 minutes
Cook time: 8 to 10 minutes
Makes 8 servings

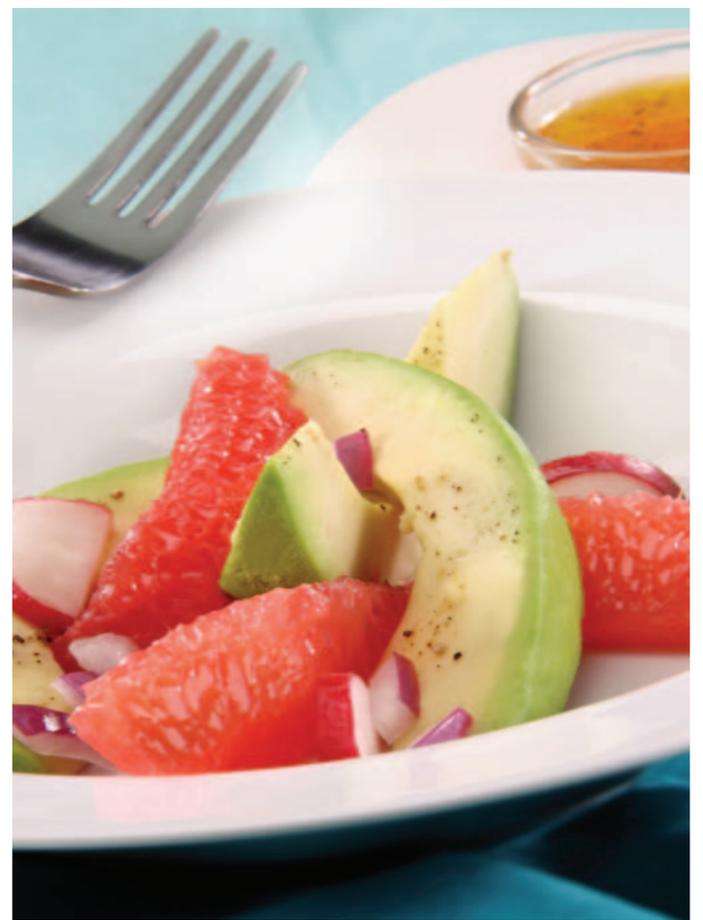

- 1 pound whole wheat pizza dough (or ready-made whole wheat lavash, naan, or flatbread)
- Flour for dusting
- Olive oil cooking spray
- 8 ounces fresh mozzarella cheese, sliced thin
- 1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
- 1 teaspoon aged balsamic vinegar
- 3 cups baby arugula
- 1/4 cup red onion, sliced thin
- 1/4 cup snipped fresh basil
- 1/8 teaspoon sea salt
- Freshly ground pepper to taste
- 2 Texas Rio Star grapefruit, peeled and segmented
- 1/4 cup roasted, salted peanuts, coarsely chopped

Preheat oven to 450°F and line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper. If using pizza dough, divide into 2 equal portions and roll each into a thin oval on a lightly floured board (about 9 x 13 inches). Place on prepared baking sheets and spray with cooking spray. Top with equal amounts of cheese and bake for 8 to 10 minutes or until crusts are golden brown.

In large bowl, whisk together olive oil and balsamic vinegar; add arugula, onion, and basil, tossing gently to coat. Season with salt and pepper.

Divide arugula mixture among flatbread and top with grapefruit segments and peanuts; serve immediately.

Fresh Grapefruit, Avocado and Radish Salad

Prep time: 15 minutes
Makes 8 servings

Make sure all ingredients are chilled before assembling this salad.

- 1 tablespoon freshly squeezed Texas Rio Star grapefruit juice
- 1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon granulated sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 5 radishes, thinly sliced
- 2 tablespoons minced red onion
- 4 Texas Rio Star grapefruit, peeled, and segmented
- 2 large firm but ripe avocados, peeled, pitted and sliced

In medium bowl, whisk together grapefruit juice, olive oil, sugar, salt and pepper. Add radish and onion, toss to coat and set aside. On a large platter, layer grapefruit and avocado slices, top with radish mixture. Serve immediately.

Our Message

Labor Day is now Thanksgiving

Many years ago, Labor Day was established to honor the working people of our land, and that is still the purpose of the holiday.

Up north, it marks the end of summer, but down here it has little effect on the people because of the weather.

For now, Labor Day is a bittersweet reminder of the hard times that we are going through economically in the United States.

The editorial cartoon near the bottom of today's page is very appropriate for many people, calling Labor Day "The New Thanksgiving" for many who are fortunate enough to be working and support a family, to say nothing of themselves.

Still, we need to keep in mind the day's purpose, to honor those who labor throughout our great nation. Workers have made our country the best in the world, and some of them have done it with the sweat of their brow and with nearly back-breaking effort.

So take the time to think about those who work so hard for us across the country, and give them their due on the holiday.

Road danger

We are approaching another holiday weekend, and we are begging people to please be careful on the roads.

The past 10 days or so have been deadly on Marion County highways, with several people being killed in accidents.

Tragically, the latest is from our area, in an accident on U.S. 27 at 154th. Two innocent people were killed when a car going the wrong way on the four-lane superhighway smashed into them head-on.

The driver of the other vehicle had no working license. He has been charged with two counts of vehicular homicide, and well he should be.

It's tough to avoid being an innocent victim, but you must try to be aware of your surroundings and spot people like this before they get to you. In this case that was nearly impossible, however.

Please drive carefully this weekend. We don't want you on next week's list.

More on the county school buses

Jim Clark

As you may have guessed, I'm not a particularly big fan of school buses or school zones. There's a letter from Kevin Christian of the School Board office in today's paper, and he's defending the delays on the first day of school.

All right, I'll give him the fact that it was the first day, and it may have taken a little longer to get children acclimated to make sure they knew which bus to take on the way home.

Here are a couple of points, however.

First, what's the excuse for the same thing happening with a different bus near the same location on the second week of school. Monday, I'm heading south on 60th Avenue at some ridiculous hour of the morning, and there's a northbound school bus stopped not too far north of State Road 200. Its lights were on, and it was just sitting there, and sitting there, and sitting there.

What made it worse was that 60th is a wide road with a median bigger than five feet, so opposite traffic doesn't have to stop, but there we were, sitting and waiting, because the drivers in front didn't know the law.

But my frustration doesn't end there ... it really doesn't even begin there. Last week we editorialized about the fact that the bus stood and waited after children got on the bus at the end of a long dirt road whose terminus isn't visible from 60th. Even the mail doesn't go down that road, all the mailboxes are lined up at the eastern end.

As one who feels that government should not be doing jobs that should be the parents' duties, I have to wonder why these parents drive their children all the way out that dirt road, sit there until the bus comes, wait until it leaves, then go back down the road. Do you realize that in the time it takes to get there and wait, they could have driven their children to school? It would have made the ride more comfortable for the children, and chances are they could have left a little later in the morning ... like after sunrise.

I know it's a foreign concept to some ... parents responsible for their own children, instead of government being responsible for them.

I'm proud of my parents. I never rode a bus until high school, and that was only because I chose to go to a regional Catholic high school, instead of the local public school. Even then, I transferred schools after one year, and was within walking distance of my father's pharmacy, and I walked to him every day, and he got me home.

So I know the bus drivers have a tough job, but that's not my fault, it's the fault of parents and the school system.

And don't make the drivers do things like putting arm bands on little kids so they get on the right bus to come home. That should be an aide's job.

What's that? You say the buses have no aides? Now that sounds like another whole column.

Your Letters

About school buses

Thank you for covering public education in Marion County and sharing the latest information with your readers on a regular basis. Community publications serve a vital role in our society.

The first week of school has been busy but very successful thanks to students, parents, teachers, support workers, and countless others in our community, including bus drivers.

Can you imagine the responsibility placed on you, as a bus driver, to personally and safely transport dozens of students to and from school every day? And on the very first day, which was the target of your recent editorial, picking up thousands of students for the very first time? How daunting must it be for the kindergarten youngster who steps aboard yet is comforted by a bus driver who greets him or her with a smile, friendly comment, and then places a colored wristband on each student to ensure they get on the right bus in the afternoon?

Yes, this critical step stops traffic briefly. But this inconvenience ensures students make it home safely by getting to the right bus and stepping off at the right bus stop. It is a small sacrifice to pay when car drivers have already stopped thanks to the flashing red lights on the bus.

Imagine how our community would come to a halt if thousands of kids ended up scattered across the county each afternoon on the wrong bus, at the wrong bus stop, because they had no wristband to remind them of their destination? We're sorry the morning drive time is inconvenienced at the start of each school year, but we won't apologize for taking every step necessary to protect our children, the most precious resource we have. Surely two minutes is worth children making it home safely.

What Democrats?

When someone says they are a member of the Democrat Party, my retort is: What Democrat Party?

There is no Democrat Party. The Democrat Party was hijacked a long time ago by Socialists, and Marxists. Factions too cowardly to run out in the open. They co-opted the Democrat Party, by stealth.

Anyone calling themselves a Democrat is fooling no one but themselves.

Our founding fathers went through hell (literally, read the sacrifices they made) to give us freedom. Yeah, there are those who are willing to sell that freedom for a couple of bucks (not even 40 pieces of silver). Freedom comes cheap to some people. They do not have a clue of the worth of FREEDOM. Freedom is the rarest commodity in the history of mankind. More precious than gold.

Real Democrats have been hoodwinked. If there were a true Democrat Party I might be tempted to join Rhino's are no bargain, but a Socialist-Marxist Party is not my cup of tea.

ladies are invited to join this group. Plans for the remainder of the year will be discussed at this meeting. One big project of the Red Hatters each year is the Christmas tree that is decorated and given to a local assisted living facility. All the ornaments are made by our women. Joan Christopher is the designer of the ornaments. The first workshop will be on Friday, Sept. 16.

The next event is the First Friday gathering at the clubhouse also on the 2nd. We had a great turnout last month and are looking forward to another great evening. Invite your neighbors to come join with us at 7 p.m.

We wish a belated happy 60th wedding anniversary to Bob and Thelma Stevens. Their anniversary was on Aug. 9.

As of today, we can say, "goodnight, Irene." It is great that she decided to go on her way and by-pass Ocala.

Do you take time to look up at our beautiful sky? The early morning sky is truly a beautiful sight. One morning, a couple of weeks ago, I noticed a very spectacular sunrise; it looked like orange sunbeams reaching up into the heavens.

The very next day, also very early, the full moon was still very visible, but was about half covered with a cloud, but the unusual thing was, there was lightning in the cloud.

In the evening we have the privilege of seeing so many stars and the planets. Our air is so free of the city pollution that we get a glorious view of the heavens.

Visitors to our beautiful community often remark about how clear the sky is and the stars are so visible. Even my 4-year old granddaughter told me she likes looking at my sky because she can't see stars in Atlanta.

Take time to enjoy the beauty of our earth.

Where did the summer go? It's hard to believe September is here. With the new month, there are several important events taking place here in the Meadow: Friday, the 2nd, is going to be a busy day. The first event is the meeting of the Red Hot Fillies of the Meadow. This will be at the clubhouse at 1 p.m. All

Penny (Geissal) is suspected of being Gaddafi's mother masquerading in Fairfield Village as a model while she attempts to hide her "terrorist" son from capture. She was, however, lovely in her casual attire.

Raylene (Sluss) was the beautiful natural blonde who looked so stylish in her blue summer outfit with her coordinating green flats. Flashing that gorgeous smile under her straw hat, Raylene captured the attention of all the fashion show attendees.

Roberta (Kelsch) was the tallest and one of the most elegant of the foreign models. Though we were not sure what her national background actually is, it is known that Roberta is a very "big" football ...not soccer...fan.

Charlene (Belcher) is a natural redhead who looked stunning in her teal outfit with the lovely neck treatment.

Seen from the "rear"...a very nice point of view ... Josephina (Scott) dazzled the audience not only with those legs, but also with the platinum blonde tresses that are Josephina's trademark.

Free tickets for students are being provided by the Moot Thomas Amateur Golf Fund, starting with the opening on Friday and concluding on Thursday, Sept. 8. The first 25 students (grades 1-12) that are accompanied by a ticket-purchasing parent will receive a free ticket for each day's 4:15 PM and 7:00 PM showings. The Moot Thomas Amateur Golf Fund supports local amateur and junior golf in a variety of ways, through contributions managed by Trustees, which are received at PO Box 2798, Ocala. The Trustees believe Moot would have supported sharing this movie with all youth of Ocala. The Fund is also providing free tickets to all Marion County high school golf coaches and team members for a "high school golf team" showing. In addition, a copy of the David Cook's book, "Golf's Sacred Journey", www.linksofutura.com on which the movie is based and drawn from experiences Dr. Cook has had as a sports psychologist, will be given to each of those 25 parents who receive a free ticket for his or her child, at the 4:15 and 7 p.m. showings each day, compliments of The Briggs Law Firm and its partners, Randy and Bo Briggs, 5th generation Ocala personal injury lawyers, and supporters of The Marion Theater and HOPS. Seven Days in Utopia is a movie about a fictional character named Luke Chisolm set on joining the pro golf tour with his father as his caddie and a subsequent meltdown which creates a rift in their relationship and causes the young man's journey through defeat and discouragement to learn lessons about life as well as golf. The Save The Marion Theater Group is planning a series of events - including local competition at area golf courses - to alert the community about the inspiring story about a father and son relationship and a journey to deep faith, and will sponsor a special Saturday morning matinee Sept. 3 at the Marion Theatre with tickets available for an adult for $7.50, which includes a free ticket for a child under 18 and a free copy of the book. Local golf courses participating in the "Utopia World Putting Championship" to be held on Magnia Avenue Friday, Sept. 2 at 6 p.m. in front of the Marion Theatre are Country Club of Ocala, Golden Ocala, Golden Hills, Ocala Muny, and Silver Springs Shores. Since the Save The Marion Theater Group began its promotion of ticket sales at the Marion Theatre in order to save it from closing, attendance is up and the movie house has posted three consecutive profitable months through July. STMT is a division of Historic Ocala Preservation Society (H.O.P.S.) which is serving as fiscal agent so that donations to STMT are tax deductible as contributions. Contributions may be sent to STMT at P.O. Box 2421, Ocala Florida 34478. TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A new romance tests the unattached Bovine's patience to the limit. But Venus still rules the Taurean heart, so expect to find yourself trying hard to make this relationship work.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) It's a good time to consider home-related purchases. But shop around carefully for the best price — whether it's a new house for the family or a new hose for the garden.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A contentious family member seems intent on creating problems. Best advice: Avoid stepping in until you know more about the origins of this domestic disagreement.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) A recent job-related move proves far more successful than you could have imagined. Look for continued beneficial fallout. Even your critics have something nice to say.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) Ease up and stop driving yourself to finish that project on a deadline that is no longer realistic. Your superiors will be open to requests for an extension. Ask for it.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You should soon be hearing some positive feedback on that recent business move. An old family problem recurs, but this time you'll know how to handle it better.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Some surprising statements shed light on the problem that caused that once-warm relationship to cool off. Use this newly won knowledge to help turn things around.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Your spiritual side is especially strong at this time. Let it guide you into deeper contemplation of aspects about yourself that you'd like to understand better.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Your merrier aspect continues to dominate and to attract folks who rarely see this side of you. Some serious new romancing could develop out of all this cheeriness.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) You're always concerned about the well-being of others. It's time you put some of that concern into your own health situation, especially where it involves nutrition.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20) Just when you thought your life had finally stabilized, along comes another change that needs to be addressed. Someone you trust can help you deal with it successfully.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a sixth sense when it comes to finding people who need help long before they think of asking for it. And you're right there to provide it.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

FOR PEOPLE WITH MEDICARE

We have over 67,000 reasons to say “thank you.”

More than 67,000 Floridians have entrusted us with their health care. With their support, we’ve become the 2nd largest Medicare plan in Florida.*

This makes us proud because we are a Florida born and based company that specializes in Medicare plans – and only Medicare.

We have always believed that good health care starts with taking good care of your health. That's why we focus on prevention and giving our members the benefits they need to stay fit and healthy.

To all our members and providers: a heartfelt thank you.

We are honored by your support and partnership.

Let’s together continue keeping the health in health care.
