Occupy Ocala

The national protests being dubbed as "Occupy Wall Street" spread to downtown Ocala on Saturday as a group of a couple hundred people gathered with signs and stood on the sidewalk, asking passing drivers of vehicles who backed them to honk. In the top photo, some of the people went on a short walk around the block north and west of the Downtown Square. They couldn't march around the Square because of the weekly Saturday market that was in operation. At the right, Stacey Barrineau displays her Hula Hoop skills while holding up a sign saying "revolution." Note the highlighting of the word "love" which is backwards in the "revolution" word. Only one police officer could be seen in the area of the peaceful demonstration.

Medication take back day set for Oct. 29

On Saturday, Oct. 29, the Marion County Sheriff's Office, along with the Ocala and Police Department and in partnership with the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), will participate in the National Pill Take Back Day. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., a uniformed officer will be stationed at the following "no questions asked" collection sites:

- Marion County Sheriff's Main Operations Center, 692 N.W. 30th Ave., Ocala.
- Marion County Sheriff's Office Southwest District Office, 9048 S.W. State Road 200, Ocala..
- Marion County Sheriff's Office South Marion District Office, 8230 S.E. 165th Mulberry Lane, The Villages.
- Ocala Police Department, 402 S. Pine Avenue, Ocala.

The purpose of this event is to give people in the community who have a surplus of outdated prescription drugs; pills they don't have a prescription for; or pills they obtained illegally, an opportunity to turn them in without facing any criminal charges or repercussions.

Marion County and the state of Florida have seen a significant increase in the abuse of prescription drugs and overdoses in the last few years.

Many of these cases involve adolescents who obtained these medications from their parents or their home medicine cabinet.

The Sheriff's Office encourages anyone who has prescription pills they would like to or need to get rid of, to take advantage of this National Pill Take Back Day to do so.

Residents can also visit www.dea.gov to enter their zip code and locate the drop-off site closest to them.

More information about prescription drug abuse is also available on this site.

Keep your home and neighborhood safe by only using medications you have a prescription for, and using them responsibly.

Help 'Bring the Harvest Home'

Local food pantries have seen requests for grocery assistance increase by up to 44 percent since this summer. The spike has coincided with a dwindling supply of donations, leaving area pantries in a dire spot and vulnerable to not being able to assist area residents. On Oct. 4, 2011, the Marion County Board of County Commissioners launched a 21-day food drive called "Bring the Harvest Home" to help re-stock these depleted food pantries and provide aid for Marion County's most needy residents.

The pantries are in most urgent need of:

- Dry goods/foods that complement dry goods (rice, pasta, pasta sauce, cereal, crackers, peanut butter and jelly).
- Canned meats (corned beef, corned beef hash, ham and tuna).
- Canned vegetables and fruit.
- Baby items (ranging from powdered formula and jarred food to diapers and lotion).
- Toiletries, such as soap, shampoo, deodorant, toothbrushes, toothpaste and toilet paper are also always needed.

If you would prefer to donate by cash or check, please contact one of the main food pantries directly:

Brother's Keeper (352-622-3846).
Interfaith (352-629-8868).
Salvation Army (352-732-8326).

Early deadline for Nov. 2

All material for the Nov. 2 West Marion Messenger must be submitted by e-mail on or before Thursday, Oct. 27.

The office of the Messenger and the South Marion Citizen will be closed on Friday, Oct. 28, and not reopen until Monday, Oct. 31.

The office is relocating to Suite 103 in the same shopping center, Kingsland Plaza, 8810 S.W. State Road 200.

Flu shots

It's flu shot season all over the area, and one community that was visited recently was Quail Meadow. Joan Christopher, right, is shown getting her flu shot from a representative of VaxCare, who inoculated 41 people that day.

Fairfield Village

Looking for Halloween decorations

Priscilla Geissal

One of the "perks" of living in Fairfield Village is the proximity to creative and interesting people who love to decorate for the different seasons/holidays or for whatever reason.

Since I am going to be out of town in Chicago and Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, for the next week, I cruised around our neighborhood looking for fall or Halloween décor. I was amazed or surprised to find that I must be looking too early for most of our neighbors. Therefore, I am encouraging our more whimsical neighbors to bring out the beautiful fall decorations or the ghoulish Halloween fun things before I get back so that I can feature their homes in our column.

Meanwhile, I have photos of one home that is ready for the ghosts and the goblins of the upcoming Halloween time. With so many children in our family, we have lots of Halloween decorations ourselves, but I am tardy in that I do not have mine out yet either.

Since we will be visiting where we have lots of little kids who love the dress-up and decorations, we might have some new ideas to bring back south with us.

I will feature more homes with special interesting exteriors in upcoming weeks.

In the meantime, I hope that everyone is enjoying the beginning of the milder season in Florida.

I am an "odd ball" because I love the summer time, and I do not mind the heat and humidity that others dislike. All the charm of Florida's climate appeals to me except for the hurricanes which I pray we have avoided this year.

Maybe there will be no violent storms to tear down the decorations that I expect to find soon in Fairfield Village… "a lively place filled with lovely people."

Interesting hobby for visitor to Brother's Keeper

Retirement allows us to pursue our hobbies or to develop ones that we did not have the time to pursue while working. Larry Callahan, Sebastian resident, is such person. Larry officiates all over the United States at track and field events.

Larry began running in high school and for a year in college. He ran the 440, 200 and 800 meter. He also ran cross country and then he did not run. He did not run for 25 years and then began running again competitively from 1987 to 2000. It was his son David who challenged him to run again. Larry said, "I got the bug." He joined a track club where he met the meet director for the club and when he could no longer run because of his knees, he started officiating. His training began with clinics and he worked summer youth meets with established officials. USA Track and Field requires recertification every four years after the Olympics. There are three levels of certification - association, national and masters. To become Masters, one must pass rules review, have good evaluations, experience at major meets and also give clinics at both local and nationally.

Larry began officiating at high school games but no longer does high school. He was at the 2008 US Olympic trials in Eugene, Oregon. He was the crew chief at the 2009 US Outdoor National Championship. He has done NCAA Division 1 and Division 3 championships. He recently did the USATF Junior Olympics in Kansas where the temperature reached 109. He has done the World Masters with various age groups. He had athletes as old as 97. His longest travel was to Eugene, Oregon and he has traveled to fifteen plus states to officiate.

Larry said he had a 97 year old male triple jumper this year at the World Masters. He had an 85 year old do 10,000m runner at World Masters in Buffalo in 1995. Yes, 10,000 is correct. At the end of the race, he took off his clothes and sat on the track to rest because he was too hot. Larry told how one jumper wanted to escort him to his car as many at the meet did

Parents placing health at risk over vaccinations

New parents can drive themselves crazy trying to avoid making mistakes with their babies. Some issues are relatively benign. But some are so serious that they have repercussions far beyond a specific household.

You might wonder what individual child-rearing decision can affect entire communities? It's the decision some parents have been making to reject or delay the childhood vaccinations that are recommended by our country's preeminent medical and physician associations and agencies.

The Internet is rife with incendiary anecdotes about children experiencing negative reactions after vaccination and with righteous holding-forth from parents apparently convinced that vaccinations promote disease rather than control it.

A particularly insidious belief is about a link between vaccines and autism — an allegation that's been traced to a single fraudulent report and disproved soundly in the scientific literature.

Editorial

In addition, some new parents dismiss the severity of vaccine-preventable diseases. They haven't seen these diseases in their lifetimes — primarily because of our universal vaccination program, which seems now to be a victim of its own success. They should be asking their parents and grandparents what it was like just 50 or 60 years ago, when polio was a terrifyingly real threat and whooping cough or measles could drive neighborhoods and schools to sickbeds and hospitals.

These parents don't seem to understand the chain of infection or the true risk of vaccine-preventable diseases, focusing instead on sensationalized and overblown exhortations about perceived threats of vaccines. The parents act on their own "research" instead of recommendations from medical authorities based on decades of scientific studies.

The facts are simple: An unvaccinated child is at greater risk of catching one of these potentially life-threatening diseases, and also can transmit it throughout the community. There already are reports of pediatricians who will not allow unvaccinated children into their offices.

As the CDC says, it's like a boat with a small leak: "When we started bailing, the boat was filled with water. But we have been bailing fast and hard, and now it is almost dry. We could say, 'Good. The boat is dry now, so we can throw away the bucket and relax.' But the leak hasn't stopped. Before long we'd notice a little water seeping in, and soon it might be back up to the same level as when we started."

Denver's Tebow gets a Miami home game

Jim Clark
Editor

There are a lot of big games in the National Football League each week. Playoff spots are on the line as teams jockey for position in the standings.

The Denver Broncos at Miami Dolphins game is not one of those that the entire football nation will be watching with anxiety.

That, however, doesn't apply to the state of Florida. The Denver-Miami game will probably be the most popular in the state next weekend, especially since the Florida Gators have a week off to lick their SEC wounds.

The coaching staff at Denver has chosen this week to make Tim Tebow the team's starting quarterback. If you don't know who Tim Tebow is, well, you probably don't watch much football.

Tebow graduated from the University of Florida with two national championships and a Heisman Trophy. He was drafted by the Broncos amid all the skepticism that his throwing motion, among other things, was not NFL caliber.

But Denver's previous quarterback, Kyle Orton, was doing so poorly that the job, for now at least, belongs to Tebow.

Not only is Tebow starting for the opponent Sunday in Miami, Florida's national champions are being honored. So you know there are going to be Gator fans aplenty in the stadium.

With the way the Dolphins have played this year, that might mean a crowd rooting for Denver, more specifically Tebow, this weekend.

And another thing making this game more interesting is that the Dolphins are having a major problem ... at the quarterback position.

Back when the 2010 draft was held, there were a lot of people in Florida hoping that either Jacksonville or Miami woul draft him (Tampa was pretty well set at the QB spot). That didn't happen, so getting a chance to see Tebow, in his home state, get a big start is a major plus.

I'm not a huge Gator fan, although some of it has to rub off on you when you've been force-fed Gator news for more than 40 years. I did enjoy watching Tebow, going all the way back to Nease High School in St. Johns County. He seemed like a charismatic leader, and a genuine good guy, and for that reason I was hoping he would make it big in the pros.

It hasn't happened yet, but maybe this weekend's game will be the first major step for the Florida grad.

So come this weekend, I'll be settled down at home watching either the whole game itself or, if our exciting Orlando TV station decides to give us something else, the major highlights on NFL Red Zone.

The way Jacksonville and Miami are playing, this could be the biggest game of the year for fans of those two teams (the Bucs of Tampa are in first place).

Well, Well, Well

The "truth" about our differences as Americans is now being shown and told! The majority of Wall Street protesters look like hoodlums, throwing trash wherever they are and even protest against our Capitalistic system. Most have no idea what they are protesting, they are just trying to be the new "60s" hippies. Have you noticed the difference in most of them and the Tea Party rallies where men and women act like gentlemen and ladies, none throwing out trash for others to clean up? Tea Partiers carry patriotic signs that show a genuine love for our country, not the opposite. I was always taught that trash leaves trash. Decent people do NOT litter! Which one do you want to identify with? Think about it!

Now we have the racist charges answered in a way even the most left wing liberal should understand. Tea Parties support Herman Cain! The last time I checked he is black, not white. Our dislike of President Obama has never had anything to do with his race, it has to do with his policies. If liberals would examine the direction the Democratic Party is going, they would understand why there is no longer an official Socialist Party nominee. The man who ran on multiple occasions as the Socialist candidate stated that we no longer needed that to occur. Reason given: The Democratic Party has taken up their agenda and plans, moving so far to the left that it is no longer the same party many voted for in the past. He obviously is now a Democrat.

The writer of "Sounds Good, No Facts", should look at his Democratic Party, how can their moving toward the Socialist Party or worse be acceptable? Is this the America you want for your children? No Thanks! If you take an honest look at the politics of the day, it is liberal vs. conservative, bigger government vs. smaller government, and to highlight the most important difference: What party fights against having God removed from our culture? Yes, it's time to look at the facts, no more class warfare which was all the so called "Jobs" bill was about, to instill class warfare, divide and conquer. I was also taught that you can judge people by the company they keep. Take a serious look at both Democrats and Republicans to see where you choose to be. God Bless America!

Complaints

Today it is possible to find information about members of Congress and the Senate so you can make a really informed decision about whom you want to vote for.

Use your computer, a friend's computer, the library computer. You type in the name of the person and add complaints.

It also works for products advertised on TV. The ad convinced me to buy. "We will take off one payment so you only have to pay ." Complaints convinced me not to buy.

The most important use of complaints is for politicians who speak Congressege instead of English.

Darn it. I gave it away. Hurry before they pass a law making it illegal.

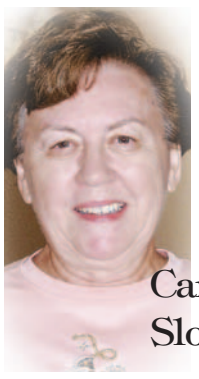
Quail Meadow

Important anniversaries in October at Quail Meadow



Carolyn Slocumb

Several more of our "snowbirds" have returned; we're always glad to see them. Also, we have some very important anniversaries in October: Bob and Lois Bonnell celebrated 61 years of marriage on the second and Charlie and Becky Cram celebrate 58 years on the 24th. On a sad note, Paul and Martha Teeter would have celebrated their 71st wedding anniversary on the 5th of this month, but Paul passed away on September 28th. We send our condolences to Martha and the family.

To recognize the end of summertime water aerobics, the Wonderful Water Women's group had breakfast at Stone Creek last week. Marion Gartman was presented a gift of appreciation for giving her time, energy, and encouragement to the group during the summer. Marion reminded everyone that this was the year we "evolved" as women and each woman was presented with a miniature trophy. Marion will be conducting indoor exercise classes each Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings at the clubhouse.

VaxCare did an outstanding job giving us flu and pneumonia shots. The response was smaller than previous years, but 41 brave people came and rolled up their sleeves. It is so convenient to just go to the clubhouse for this service. It is especially helpful to those in wheelchairs, or using walkers; they can drive up to the door and go inside without climbing stairs, etc.

October is called "Breast Cancer Awareness" month. Probably most of you know of someone (family member, friend, or yourself) who has been diagnosed with this condition. During this month we see many pink signs reminding us of the importance of early detection. Ladies, please get your mammograms and do self-exams. As a survivor (21 years), I can attest to the importance of these procedures.

The Craft Fair and Bake Sale will be here in just a few weeks (Nov. 12). We need baked goods donated for the sale. Please call Carol Sjogren if you plan to donate cookies, cakes, pies, etc. for the sale.

This is the last reminder to get your tickets for the Oktoberfest Dinner and Auction. Theresa Yoders and Lil Carie have the tickets ($5 donation). Also, bring your wrapped gift for the auction.

Tailgate Turkey Pile-On

It's a WIN-WIN!

How to feed football fans and fight hunger

Pat and Gina Neely

FAMILY FEATURES

When it's your turn to call the plays on game day food, you need recipes that are easy to make, easy to eat, and will feed a crowd of hungry fans. These four recipes from celebrity chefs Pat and Gina Neely are a must for your tailgating playbook — full of satisfying flavor that will score big with football fanatics.

The recipes make it easy to please the football crowd, and Kraft Foods' "Huddle to Fight Hunger" makes it easy to help your neighbors in need. According to Feeding America, more than 50 million Americans — that's 1 in 6 of your neighbors — live in food insecure households. But you can do something about it.

Join the Huddle to Fight Hunger on Facebook — for every "like" at www.facebook.com/KraftFightHunger, Kraft Foods will help donate one meal to Feeding America. Last year, Kraft Foods and their family of iconic brands donated more than 20 million meals. Its mission this year is to help donate 25 million meals.

It's a win-win for everyone — make the recipes for your friends, like the Kraft Fight Hunger Facebook page and you will help feed your neighbors.

Zesty 100 Yard Bites

Chipotle Chile Mac and Cheese

Potato Dog Skins

Zesty 100 Yard Bites

Prep Time: 20 minutes
Makes: 12 servings

- 1/3 cup Kraft Mayo with Olive Oil Reduced Fat Mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon Sriracha sauce
- 1 teaspoon fresh lime juice
- 12 slider buns
- 12 slices Oscar Mayer Deli Fresh Honey Ham
- 12 slices Oscar Mayer Deli Fresh Slow Roasted Roast Beef
- 3 Kraft Big Slice Colby Jack Cheese Slices, cut into quarters
- 2 plum tomatoes, cut into 12 slices
- 12 Claussen Bread 'N Butter Pickle Chips
- 12 stuffed green olives

Mix mayo, Sriracha and lime juice in a small bowl. Spread each bun with 1/2 tablespoon (1 1/2 teaspoons) mayo mixture.

Fill each bun with 1 folded slice each ham and roast beef, a cheese slice quarter, tomato slice and pickle.

Top each bun with a small decorative bamboo skewer, skewered with an olive.

Substitute: Substitute hot pepper sauce for the Sriracha sauce.

Potato Dog Skins

Prep Time: 10 minutes
Total Time: 1 hour 30 minutes
Makes: 6 servings

- 3 large baking potatoes (2 1/2 pounds), baked
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 3 Oscar Mayer Selects Premium Beef Franks
- 1/3 cup Bull's-Eye Original Barbecue Sauce, warmed
- 1/2 cup Kraft Shredded Colby & Monterey Jack Cheeses
- 1/3 cup Breakstone's or Knudsen Sour Cream
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh chives

Heat grill to medium heat.

Cut potatoes in half lengthwise and spoon out the flesh, leaving half-inch shells. Mix garlic and melted butter. Brush potatoes on both sides with garlic butter mixture.

Grill franks 7 to 9 minutes, or until heated through, turning occasionally; slice into rounds. Grill potatoes until crisp, about 4 to 4 1/2 minutes on each side.

Spoon sliced franks into the potato shells; drizzle with barbecue sauce and top with cheese. Grill until the cheese is melted. Top with sour cream and chives.

Alternative Cooking Method: If you prefer, bake the buttered potato skins in a 250°F oven until crisp, about 15 minutes, before adding the toppings. Fill as directed and bake 5 minutes more.

Tailgate Turkey Pile-On

Prep Time: 10 minutes
Makes: 6 servings

- 1 12-inch loaf Italian bread with sesame seeds, sliced in half horizontally
- 1/4 cup Kraft Mayo with Olive Oil Cracked Pepper Reduced Fat Mayonnaise
- 24 slices Oscar Mayer Deli Fresh Oven Roasted Turkey Breast
- 6 slices Oscar Mayer Fully Cooked Bacon, crisped
- 1/2 cup shredded iceberg lettuce
- 1/4 cup sliced black olives
- 1/4 cup drained roasted red pepper strips

Hollow top of bread slightly; discard removed bread or save for another use. Spread mayonnaise on both sides of bread.

Fill with remaining ingredients. Slice into 6 (2-inch) pieces.

Tailgating Tip: To make for easy eating, wrap sandwich in parchment paper (like at a sandwich shop) and then slice with a serrated knife. Wrap in foil for transport.

Chipotle Chile Mac and Cheese

Prep Time: 20 minutes
Total Time: 35 minutes
Makes: 6 servings, about 1 cup each

- 1 package (14 ounces) Kraft Deluxe Macaroni & Sharp Cheddar Cheese Sauce
- 1 pound lean ground beef
- 1 onion, finely chopped
- 1 red bell pepper, finely chopped
- 1 canned chipotle pepper in adobo sauce, minced
- 4 green onions, thinly sliced
- 3/4 cup Kraft shredded cheddar cheese
- 6 Ritz crackers, coarsely crushed (about 1/4 cup)

Heat oven to 400°F.

Prepare dinner as directed on package. Meanwhile, brown beef with onion and bell pepper in large skillet over medium-high heat 5 minutes. Drain.

Add meat mixture to prepared dinner and stir in chipotle pepper. Spoon into greased 2-quart casserole or baking dish. Top with green onions, cheese and cracker crumbs.

Bake 15 minutes or until mixture is hot.

Tailgating Take Along: Make your casserole in a disposable foil pan. Just heat on a covered grill on low heat until mixture is golden and heated through.

Tip: For additional heat, increase to 2 chipotle peppers in adobo sauce.

Substitute: Prepare using extra-lean ground beef and Kraft 2% Milk Shredded Cheddar Cheese.

Leisure

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Mars, your ruling planet, begins a journey that will open up a growing number of possibilities. Put that surging Arian energy to good use and explore it to your heart's content.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This is the time to prepare for a career move coming up next month. Update your resume. Get those proposals in shape. And don't forget to buff up that Bovine self-confidence.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your Gemini instincts will guide you to the right people who might be able to help you get over that career impasse that has been holding you back. Expect to make changes.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're getting closer, but you still have a ways to go before reaching your goals. Continue to stay focused, no matter how difficult it can be for the easily distracted Moon Child.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) Your Leonine pride might be keeping you from getting to the source of a disturbing situation. Don't be shy about asking questions. Remember: Information is power.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) It's a good time to shake up your tidy little world by doing something spontaneous, like taking an unplanned trip or going on a mad shopping spree.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) This is a good week to get advice on your plans. But don't act on them until you feel sure that you've been told everything you need to know to support your move.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Be careful. You might be probing just a little too deeply into a situation that you find singularly suspicious. The facts you seek will begin to emerge at a later time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) This is a good week to make new friends and to look for new career challenges. But first, get all those unfinished tasks wrapped up and out of the way.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Relationships need a fresh infusion of tender, loving care. Avoid potential problems down the line. Stay close to loved ones as the month draws to a close.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) Aspects favor relationships, whether platonic, professional or personal. On another note: Be a mite more thrifty. You might need some extra money very soon.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20) This is the absolute right time to let those often-hidden talents shine their brightest. You'll impress some very important people with what you can do.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are impelled by a need to find truth, no matter how elusive. You would make a wonderful research scientist or an intrepid detective.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
