Zanetti, Crawford to lead School Board

The Marion County School Board unanimously voted to keep its current chair and vice-chair leadership for the next year at a reorganizational meeting last week.

Judi Zanetti (District 1) continues as the board chair. She's also served as vice-chair. Voters first elected Zanetti to the School Board in 2004 then re-elected her for a second four-year term in 2008. She recently decided not to run for re-election next year.

Zanetti is a kindergarten teacher on leave from the classroom who joined the district in 1990 as an elementary teacher. Her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education comes from the University of Central Florida. She is married and has two children in local public schools.

As board chair, Zanetti will lead twice-monthly School Board meetings and year-round work sessions and serve on various leadership boards throughout the community.

Ron Crawford (District 5), now serving his fourth consecutive term on the Marion County School Board, reprises his role as vice-chairman. He previously served as both chair and vice-chair. Crawford joined the board in 1998 and has been re-elected by voters three times. His bachelor's degree comes from the University of South Florida, and he has over 25 years of experience in the private business world.

Other members of the Marion County School Board include Angie Boynton (District 4), Bobby James (District 3), and Jackie Porter (District 2).

With Boynton absent from the meeting, the remaining four board members also approved the same meeting schedule as in years past – holding board meetings on the second and fourth Tuesdays monthly at 5:30 p.m. at 512 S.E. Third St. in Ocala.

Toys for Tots starts

The annual Marine Corps League Toys for Tots drive has started throughout the western area of Marion County.

The South Marion Citizen and West Marion Messenger office is a dropoff point.

Those wishing to donate may bring a new, unwrapped toy to the office, 8810 S.W. State Road 200, Suite 103, during regular business hours.

The Citizen and Messenger office will not accept cash donations.

Problems with construction of new bridge detailed to county

In an informational packet prepared for distribution to the Marion County Commission, problems associated with the new flyover being constructed were detailed.

The flyover, or overpass, will connect the 31st Street Extension on the east side of Interstate 75 to the west side, going on 40th Avenue to State Road 200. It eventually will be part of a western bypass.

According to the report: "Work started with utility relocations on the west side of I-75 behind Berkshire Plaza, which has since been completed. Work on the east side of I-75 has included the installation of water and sewer line extensions for the City of Ocala."

There were two change orders, both are the responsibility of the city.

"Bridge pile installation on the east side began with the driving of a test pile which broke during installation. This circumstance resulted in changes by FDOT ... and a replacement test pile was then successfully driven. Of the remaining 19 piles driven on the east side, two more broke during installation and one was driven short which requires a splice.

Work to replace the two broken piles will take place at a later date. The short pile needed to be over driven to meet refusal.

"Breaking of bridge piles is not a typical occurrence ... Cost for the 3 replacement piles at this time will be the responsibility of the Contractor.

Fairfield Village

Thanksgiving celebration held early at Fairfield Village

Jean Chapman, Sandy Ford, Loretta Zang, and Toni Belcher. Many others were thanked for their help in the decorations and presentation of the food. Turkey and ham were the main dishes which were accompanied by the "pot luck" contributions of those attending. As usual, there was so much food to enjoy that the tables were overflowing.

Those of us who attended the "early" Thanksgiving celebration at the Fairfield Village Clubhouse on Saturday, Nov. 19, agreed that we all have so many blessings to be thankful for that the list could go on and on.

Paula LeBlanc gave a prayer of thanksgiving that added a beautiful reflection toward all the many things for which we can be grateful not only this time of year but year round.

The feast was presented by the Social Activities Committee made up of

Many people enjoyed the event; however, one table caught my eye in particular. Celebrating their first Thanksgiving in our neighborhood, the Leslie family showed the real spirit of the season with a family gathering with grandchildren and friends and neighbors. The accompanying photo shows just how much fun the group was having ...and it was contagious.

Another special note for our community was the fact that Fran and Ed Glenney were back "home" after some 15 months of being away to help to care for their daughter, Jody, who has been battling bone cancer. The truly wonderful news is that Jody is much improved and is now in physical therapy.

Another family, Stan and Shelia Cohen, have been helping in the care of their daughter who has also been ill. The latest news is that she is improving and everyone is certainly praying for her complete recovery as well. The Cohens are known for their work with foster children in Marion County and this year is no exception. Those who would like to help these children can contact the Cohens to help them as they pass their love on to so many deserving children.

Quail Meadow

Red Hot Fillies donate decorated tree to Helping Hands

Carolyn Slocumb

Every year the Red Hot Fillies of Quail Meadow donate a decorated tree to a facility in Marion County. In the past these trees have been donated to assisted living homes, but this year we decided to present our tree to Helping Hands Foundation.

We were overwhelmed with the gratitude shown by the staff and residents of this organization.

Can you imagine what it would be like to be out on the street with no food or money, and no place to call home?

The joy shown on the faces of the adults and the children made us all feel very grateful that we were able to add a little cheer in their lives.

Helping Hands started in 2008 when a 70 year old man was asking customers at an Ocala Burger King for shelter.

He was mentally ill and without family or friends.

He approached Brad Dinkins seeking a place to stay; Brad put the man in his truck, but was unable to find a motel that would accept him.

However, later that night Mr. Dinkins found a vacated apartment nearby. Other concerned citizens joined with Brad in a new effort to help the homeless, and within 6 months they were housing 12 people, and helping rebuild their lives.

In May 2009 they began remodeling a 20 bed apartment building to provide housing for the homeless. On July 22, 2009 they legally became a Florida nonprofit corporation, and selected the name Helping Hands Foundation, Inc. Brad Dinkins is the Chairman and Founder of the foundation.

Among those assisting Brad are Holly Miley (also known as Mother Hen), Tracy Rains and Pete Whirle.

Since the beginning of the organization they have remodeled a home and furnished it for a homeless woman and her daughter, opened Helping Hands Thrift Store in Silver Springs Shores, opened the Treasure Shoppe on Southwest Highway 200, and most recently purchased an eight unit apartment building that is used exclusively for women and children.

The goal of Helping Hands is to help people overcome their past and rebuild their lives.

For more information on Helping Hands, go to their website: www.helping-handsocala.org.

The Christmas tree this year was designed by Joan Christopher.

The theme of the tree was "Dickens Christmas Carol". All of the ornaments were handmade by members of the Red Hats. Delivering this tree was a wonderful way to begin the holiday season.

Reminder: This Friday is "First Friday" and since it is December, that means we will be decorating the clubhouse. Come join us at 7 p.m.

Crowds gather at Memorial Garden on Nov. 11

By Barb Dedics
SPECIAL TO THE MESSENGER

Under a beautiful blue morning sky, patriotic residents and friends of Ocala Palms Golf and Country Club, gathered at the Memorial Garden to pay tribute to all veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces on 11/11/11.

Larry Fleming, U.S. Army veteran, and Lou Rossi, U.S. Navy veteran retired, co-officiated as Masters of Ceremony. The ceremony began with the presentation of the Colors by the Florida National Guard out of Orlando and St. Augustine followed by the Pledge of Allegiance lead by Fred Heiner, U.S. Marines veteran.

The Ocala Palms Color

Guard and Flag Folding Detail under the direction of Ron Chrisner, U.S. Marines veteran, performed the Memorial Flag Ceremony. The ceremony included receiving and raising a memorial flag provided by Mrs. Pat Powell, to be displayed in honor of her husband Sam Powell, World War II Navy veteran, and the retiring of the current memorial flag which had been furnished by Mrs. Barbara Owen, in honor of her father, Noel Moffett, World War II Army Air Corps veteran. Enrique Pecou, a Purple Heart recipient and Vietnam veteran, described the significance of each fold of the flag.

Joe Garitta, U.S. Navy veteran retired, paid tribute to the Navy and Coast Guard personnel lost at sea by placing of flowers in the pond below the waterfall. POW John Bradley, U.S. Air Force, was rendered a special "Honor Salute" for his service to this country.

The names of deceased Ocala Palms veterans and their Branch of Service were read by John Paulus, U.S. Air Force veteran. After names were read and the Branch of Service identified, Fred Heiner, U.S. Marines veteran, struck the Memorial Bell.

Each year, the Florida National Guard chooses a fallen soldier to be recognized and honored. This year Sgt. Robert Allen Wise, a Florida National Guard Fallen Hero, KIA in Iraq on Nov. 12, 2003, was honored with a reading of his bio by John DeJesus, U.S. Army veteran.

Under the direction of Elaine Liebegott and Bob Brouillard, music was provided by the Ocala Palms Choir and band students from the First Assembly Christian School and Grace School, all of Ocala. Noel Brouillard and Earlene Carte led the audience in the popular song "God Bless the USA."

Our Message

Be generous this holiday season

We're now inside one month of the Christmas holiday, and we have just passed the maddening Thanksgiving weekend with all the stories of shoppers trampling each other, even using pepper spray, to get what they wanted in the stores for holiday gifts.

Many people sit back and read all those stories and wish they could be part of it ...but their finances won't allow it.

Some are struggling to put food on the table, much less video games under the tree, if they have a tree.

For many people, it's time to open up the wallets and grab some of those extra toys and help those who can't provide what they want for their families, and especially for the children.

We carry stories from time to time of various organizations holding charity drives.

The West Marion Business Association is collecting items that will help keep people warm: gloves, hats, etc.

The Salvation Army kettles are out in full force with the bells ringing as you enter the various stores, especially the food stores.

The Toys for Tots boxes have been distributed through the area, including in the South Marion Citizen and West Marion Messenger office, where you can drop new, unwrapped toys for the Marine Corps League to process and distribute for the kids at Christmas. Some businesses usually have "angel trees" where people can take a name off a tree and buy a gift for that child.

There are, of course, many food providers that are helping get people something to eat for the holidays.

So no matter what your favorite charity is, do something to help. The folks in Marion County have always been giving and caring, and we should all become a part of that.

Christmas is much more gratifying when you know you've made it better for someone you don't even know.

All of Marion County's needy thank you in advance for your generosity.

Among Friends

Does this UF team deserve a bowl game?

Sitting there Saturday night watching the Florida-FSU football game, I really got tired of hearing the announcers proclaim Florida bowl eligible.

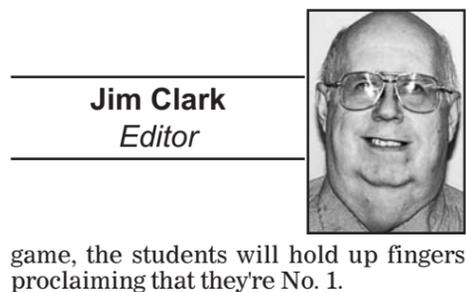

Let me ask you: Does this team really deserve to be invited to a bowl game? Is a 6-6 record enough to send a school on a bowl trip?

The propaganda coming out of Gainesville is that it will give the Gators much more practice for the young players to get ready for next season. One announcer said "It's like having an extra spring practice."

Funny, I always thought a bowl invitation was a reward for the players for having a good season.

And if the bowl game is to be used as plenty of practice for next year, does that mean that all the Gator seniors are done? Will only underclassmen play the bowl game and practice for the next few weeks, since it's providing extra practice for next year? Will the seniors even make the trip?

Who am I kidding? It's all about winning, and it's all about the money ...nothing else. Forget these lofty proclamations ...the school won six games, became bowl eligible, and will get an invitation somewhere, probably Jacksonville, because the Gators "travel well" and the school will get a good payout. And that's all that anyone cares about. The fans will go to the game, the students will hold up fingers proclaiming that they're No. 1.

Jim Clark
Editor

No. 1 belongs to the winner of the national championship game. Unfortunately, it's looking more and more as if that will be either LSU or Alabama, a game I surely don't want to see again. I'm lobbying for Oregon against Houston if they both win their conference titles. I know that won't happen.

But the Gators? Let them stay home and root for Billy Donovan's basketball team. A 6-6 record shouldn't qualify a team to go bowling.

As for me, I'm a Notre Dame fan ...you know, the school that fired Charlie Weis. The Irish finished 8-4 and I'm anxious to see what bowl they get to. With that record and a number of close losses, they deserve it.

No new taxes and fees

During their up-coming 2012 session, our governor and our state legislators are considering a plan to create a state sales tax on purchases made by Florida residents from out-of-state companies on the Internet. The new tax is expected to generate some $450 million in income during 2012 and then increase yearly by sizable amounts. They are then preparing to use these new funds to further reduce the corporate income tax on businesses inside Florida. In the 2011 session they reduced these business taxes by some $30 million.

Also in the 2011 session, the governor and the legislators made large changes in the membership of the Public Service Commission. The commission has since become a rubber stamp approval agency for our public utilities instead of a monitoring and governing agency. Check your telephone and electric and water and sewer bills for the first three months of this year, compared to your current bills.

The small increases in the fees and taxes on these bills that were passed on to us, used to be part of the cost of doing business for these companies.

That $450 million in increased state income will come from us, the Florida residents who make Internet purchases. It is an increase in our taxes. All of our state's sales taxes are added after the sale.

Gov. Scott is a Republican, as are the super majorities in both houses of our legislative branch. Their dedication to the continued wealth and profits of Florida's businesses is obvious. Also obvious is their knowledge on how to keep their campaign chests and slush fund buckets full. Unfortunately, all of their success is coming from an increased cost of living for us, the Florida resident and consumer. The 2012 elections will be a good opportunity to show the Republicans that passing on new taxes and fees to strapped consumers, while giving tax breaks to their profitable friends and donors, can be hazardous to their livelihood.

Meyer to Ohio State a travesty

With the reporting by all the sports networks that Urban Meyer is going to Ohio State. What a travesty. My first thought is to throw up and then to think Ohio people aren't that stupid. Born and raised in Ohio in the town of Barnesville, Ohio, my great, great, great, grand father Levin Barnes founded, it sickens me to have Meyer be associated with Ohio State. I even directed band in the "O" in Ohio/Buckeye Stadium. But let Meyer get to Ohio State and I will no longer support one of the greatest football programs ever. Just think Woody Hays and Jim Tressell, he's not even in their class, wow.

People should remember that Meyer won two national championships not with his recruits but those of Ron Zook who was a winning coach at Florida. Meyer feigned illness to leave Florida, but he never would say what his condition might be. He didn't recruit Tim Tebow and when Tebow graduated Florida has been going down hill ever since. Just think of John Brantley one of Meyer's recruits. The news media hypes up a particular coach or derides one of the finest ever, being Joe Paterno, and all at once Meyer has a resume that tops all others but it's on paper only, the type that's black on white and read all over which is a joke.

Oh well, how long will it take Meyer to claim illness and have to leave Ohio State. Let's say losing to Michigan, Purdue, Michigan State, Nebraska, Penn State, Illinois and Iowa should do it. Oh yes, lets not forget Northwestern and Minnesota, that should do it. Poor baby.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Some of the mystery surrounding your recent fiscal situation soon will be dispelled with a clear explanation. Use this new knowledge to help you chart a fresh financial course.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Start your Hanukkah and Christmas gift buying now. This will help avoid problems caused by possible mid-December delays. A family member has important information.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Use a little more sense in how you plan to spend your end-of-the-year holiday dollars. Meanwhile, you continue to gain support for your stand on a workplace issue.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) Wearing that big, loving Lion's heart of yours on your sleeve leaves it unprotected. Let things develop a little more before you allow your emotions to spill over.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) You might feel you're not ready to patch up an unraveled relationship. But the longer you wait, the more difficult it will be for all parties to take the first healing step.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Your end-of-the-year holiday plans could be disrupted by something out of your control, but stay the course. Ultimately, things will settle back into a normal pace.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Your honest approach to a workplace project earns you both respect and credit from those in charge. Meanwhile, that personal problem still needs to be dealt with.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Money could be a little tight this month. This means the usually bargain-oblivious Sagittarian should look for ways to save on end-of-the-year holidays.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Examine the facts, and you might find that it's a wiser move to shift gears and redirect some of your goals before the end of the year. Someone close to you offers good advice.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) Be careful that your generosity is not abused. Find out more, both about the special favors you might be asked to grant and who is asking for them.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20) You've come through a recent rough time in great shape. Congratulations. Now go out and enjoy your well-earned rewards. More good news comes in mid-December.

Energy saving for the holidays

For many people, the holidays mean decorating fever. Whether you put up one strand of lights or are in competition with your neighbors, stringing hundreds of small, colorful lights is part of the season. But, your festive displays don't have to mean higher bills that put a damper on your holiday cheer.

Many people get into the spirit of the season by hanging string upon string of lights around their homes. It is the season to be festive, and we encourage people be energy-wise while decorating. A small investment in more efficient lights and timers can add up to more jingle in your pocket.

While the blinking lights and illuminated trees are symbols of the season, sometimes we don't realize how much energy those bulbs use. Now, take a look at LEDs, (Light Emitting Diodes) and see how you can save energy as well as money, Running 10 strands of these lights would cost less than $6 for the season. Remember the 1989 Christmas Vacation movie? Clark Griswold, the character who lit his house with 25,000 bulbs, would see his electric bill would drop from about $2,200 to $30 if he switched to LED bulbs. LEDs are small light sources that are illuminated by the movement of electrons through a semiconductor material. According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the amount of electricity consumed by just one 6-watt incandescent bulb could power 140 LEDs -- enough to light two 24-foot strings.

After Thanksgiving feasting comes the loafing

James Snyder

Twenty-four hours ago, I was seated with my family and friends around the Thanksgiving table. Now, I am seated in my chair and cannot move. I won't say I ate too much yesterday. I did, I just won't say it.

Why is it on Thanksgiving we give ourselves permission to gorge ourselves to the point of semi-consciousness? The difference between consciousness and semi-consciousness is that with semi-consciousness you feel like you have been run over by a semi-truck.

Of course, a great thing about Thanksgiving is the fabulous dinner spread, surrounded by family and friends. It is truly a time to give thanks to God for the manifold blessings he has showered on us throughout the year. Although there have been a few drought times during the past year, God's showers of blessing always came at the right time.

Thanksgiving Day is for the diet-challenged person. Nothing is more challenging to me than my diet. And of this in particular I am most grateful for Thanksgiving. It is the one day of the year I can toss caution to the wind (which is the only exercise I get on Thanksgiving) and forget my diet carefully supervised by the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage.

It is not that I take advantage of the situation ... OK, so I do take advantage of the situation. However, that is the glorious aspect of holidays like Thanksgiving. The person, me in particular, can get away with things that the rest of the year would be impossible. And I'm not just thinking of that second piece of pumpkin pie.

The second great thing about Thanksgiving is the day after. The business community refers to this day as Black Friday. They mean, of course, it is a day when they turn their ledger from red to black.

Whoever invented the shopping frenzy associated with the day after Thanksgiving should be congratulated and offered the Nobel Peace Prize. Black Friday in our home is when my wife and our daughters leave the house early in the morning to spend the entire day shopping and I get the opportunity to black out for the entire day. If I may say so, it is a glorious day of loafing.

The feast like we usually have on Thanksgiving Day requires at least one full day of concentrating and allowing the meal to digest, no matter how long it takes. The older I get the longer it takes my digestive system to complete its work. My philosophy is, don't rush the process.

I'm all for cooperation. I believe this world would get along much better if everybody would just cooperate. I set the example by cooperating with my digestive system for the entire day.

I have found the best way to assist my digestive system is to spend the day loafing. And I have managed to bring loafing to a finely developed art. It has taken years for me to get to this point of expertise. Throughout the years, I have developed the finesse associated with total loafing that should be recorded somewhere.

My expertise in this area is most remarkable for the simple fact that I only get to practice this one day out of the year. I can assure you that one day is intensely devoted to the strenuous activity of loafing.

If you promise not to let this get back to you know who, I do get in an odd day every now and again to practice for this day. Nobody can reach the pinnacle of success I have on this matter without some kind of practice throughout the year. I am completely devoted to my art, as any other artist would be.

In case someone gets the wrong idea about all of this, let me assure you that loafing has certain health benefits. Of course, if I am caught practicing my loafing when my wife has instructed me to do some things around the house, it has an adverse effect on my health. The key here is to practice loafing when your wife is out of the house shopping the entire day, which is why Black Friday was invented.

It is a proven fact that most of the people in our country today are overworked and totally stressed out by their lives. In spite of all the technology available to us, we are a nation that has forgotten how to rest.

Years ago in our country, when we were more Christian than we are today, we set aside Sunday as the day of rest. That has completely gone by the wayside as we became a culture of 24/7 activity. The only solution all our experts have come up with is to pop a pill and keep on going.

A friend of mine has a marvelous saying, "Either come apart and rest a while, or you will simply come apart." I like that.

Jesus said something similar: "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:28-30 KJV)

We have learned how to feast and our buffet table is loaded with goodies. Perhaps it would be a good time to take some time to rest and let our soul settle and digest the rich blessings of God.

Though Thanksgiving is a time for reflection, it is also a time for looking ahead to all the many wonderful prospects for our lives and for the lives of our families. We, in Fairfield Village, pray that the coming months and year will bring a break in the economic misfortunes that have faced so many Americans.

Along with this hope is our prayer that our military and service men and women will find the coming year one where there will be less hostility. Perhaps, within our lifetime, we will be blessed to see a time when there is progress being made toward an acceptance of the right of all people to live in peace with the hope of a positive future.

With that hope in mind, we in Fairfield Village look ahead to the holiday season with joys that are abundant for all our families and friends. Here in FFV, we plan to demonstrate daily that we are truly "a lively place filled with lovely people."

Gift-wrap volunteers being sought

The Marion County Children's Alliance Family Violence Prevention Workgroup is looking for volunteers to wrap gifts in the Paddock Mall from Nov. 28 through Dec. 24 during mall hours. Volunteers must be 18 years or older or have experience in gift wrapping. The gift wrap station is located next to the "As Seen On TV" store. Proceeds benefit victims of domestic violence. For information, go to www.breakthesilenceonviolence.org. To sign up, call 352-438-5990 or e-mail monica@breakthesilenceonviolence.org.

There was so much food at FFV's celebration to enjoy that there were 8 serving tables with all kinds of delicious food to choose from.

Fran Glenney prepares to serve her delicious Apple Crisp that was a favorite with those attending the FFV Thanksgiving "Pot Luck" Dinner..
