

Social Security to cut local office hours

Effective Nov. 19, the Ocala Social Security office will be open to the public Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. – a reduction of 30 minutes each weekday. In addition, beginning Jan. 2, 2013, the office will close to the public at noon every Wednesday. While agency employees will continue to work their regular hours, this shorter public window will allow them to complete face-to-face interviews and process claims work without incurring the cost of overtime. The significantly reduced funding provided by Congress under the continuing resolution for the first six months of the fiscal year makes it impossible for the agency to provide the overtime needed to handle service to the public as it has done in the past. In addition, on Nov. 23, the day after Thanksgiving, all Social Security field offices will be closed to the public. As we did last year, employees working that day will focus on reducing backlogged workloads. Most Social Security services do not require a visit to a local office. Many services, including applying for retirement, disability or Medicare benefits, signing up for direct deposit, replacing a Medicare card, obtaining a proof of income letter or informing us of a change of address or telephone number are conveniently available at www.socialsecurity.gov or by dialing our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213. People who are deaf or hard of hearing may call our TTY number, 1-800-325-0778. Many of our online services also are available in Spanish at www.segurosocial.gov.

Tomyn lists new school assignments

Superintendent-elect George Tomyn announces the first appointments to his executive staff, less than 48 hours after winning Marion County's top educator title. Tomyn and two new school board members take their oaths of office on Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 11 a.m. Included in the appointments are new assignments for the two deputy superintendents who provided the opposition for Tomyn in the recently elections. The following administrative appointments take effect Monday, Nov. 26:

Rick Lankford, current Vanguard High School principal, becomes deputy superintendent of curriculum and instruction. Cindy Repp, currently the assistant principal for curriculum at Vanguard, becomes the interim principal at Vanguard. Dr. Diana Greene, the current deputy superintendent of curriculum and instruction, moves to Fessenden Elementary as principal. Dr. Anna DeWese moves from principal at Fessenden to the district to join K-12 Academic Services, a combined department. Please see TOMYN, Page 3

Bryant, Zalak chosen to serve top spots on County Commission

A new voice will lead the Marion County Board of County Commissioners. On Nov. 6 at their regularly scheduled board meeting, commissioners voted to have Commissioner Kathy Bryant take the chairman's seat. Bryant is serving her first term on the Board of County Commissioners; this is her first time serving as chair. Commissioner Carl Zalak will take the vice chair seat. This is Zalak's first term on the commission and first time serving as vice chair.

As chairman, Bryant will manage board meetings, public hearings and workshops. She will also establish board priorities and serve as a board ambassador at many public events. In the absence of the chair, the vice chair will assume these responsibilities. Bryant replaces former commissioner Charlie Stone as chair. During her two years on the board, Bryant considers her involvement with consolidating public safety communications, bringing the Ocala 489 industrial park to fruition, and solving Marion County's solid waste dilemma through purchasing air space at the Bushnell ACMS landfill to be among her top accomplishments. For her upcoming year as chair, she would like to continue to target economic development. "I want to keep the board focused on economic development and make sure we continue moving our community forward," Bryant said. "One of the other things I look forward to this year is hopefully putting together our solid waste authority. I'll also continue to make sure we are fiscally responsible." Citizens elected Bryant to the commission in 2010. Since joining the commission, she has served as the board liaison to the Tourist Development Council, among other local agencies. Bryant also serves on the Board of Directors for the Florida Association of Counties and serves as vice chair of that agency's health and human services policy leadership team. She is also a graduate of the Florida Association of Counties' Certified County Commissioner program.

Kathy Bryant

FDLE delays Blair's transition

BY JIM CLARK
 Editor

Just when you thought things had settled down in the Marion County sheriff's race, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement stepped in to add some confusion. In the hottest race of the local election, Blair defeated Bernie DeCastro, 73 percent to 26 percent. It has been a roller coaster ride for Blair, who lost in the Republican primary to Dan Kuhn, who dropped out of the race after a scandal. GOP officials decided to put Blair back in position to win, but ballots had already been printed with Kuhn's name, so a vote for Kuhn meant a vote for Blair. DeCastro, from the Constitution Party, tried to get the early votes cast before Kuhn's withdrawal thrown out, but a judge ruled against him. Blair then celebrated the win Tuesday night and was prepared to work with

Chris Blair

Sheriff Ed Dean, who is retiring, on the transition. But along comes the FDLE. In a brief, pointed statement Wednesday morning, Dean said, "I congratulate Chris Blair on his election. I understand the need for an orderly transition of the office and I was prepared to begin this process. However, I have been requested this morning by Florida Department of Law Enforcement Commissioner Gerald Bailey to delay the Sheriff's Office transition efforts for 30 days in view of the pending FDLE investigation. Commissioner Bailey has promised that FDLE will conduct an expedited investigation." Into what, however, isn't known, although there have been reports of an investigation into Blair's campaign. Meanwhile, other local candidates, almost all Republicans, celebrated victories in Tuesday's general election. Please see BLAIR, Page 3

Katherine Foote marks her 100th birthday

Carolyn Slocumb

QUAIL MEADOW

October 31, 1912 – that was the day Katherine Foote was born on a farm in Pennsylvania. Katherine had 13 brothers and sisters! At the age of 17 she decided she wanted to see the big city of New York. So, she left the farm and went to New York all by herself.

The first job she had was as a waitress in a coffee shop. It was there that she met Gene Sarazen, a great golfer who in 1935 became the first of only five golfers to win golf's professional Grand Slam. Gene was very impressed with Katherine and he wanted her to have a better job; so he got her one working on the 86th floor of the Empire State Building. This job was like a "dream come true" for Katherine.

She met many famous people while working here. Among those she met was Al Smith, who became a very good friend. She also met Winston Churchill and when they were introduced she asked Mr. Churchill if she could give him a kiss! His reply was, "yes", so she gave him a big kiss right on his lips! Another famous person she met was John Raskob, the man who financed building the Empire State Building. Mr. Raskob saw some of her knitting and asked if she would knit him a sweater. Naturally, Katherine was honored to do so. Upon completion of the sweater, Mr. Raskob told her to go to Bloomingdale's and get anything she wanted and he would pay for it. They remained friends for the rest of Mr. Raskob's life. On another occasion, Katherine was taking a boat ride around Manhattan and there was a tall, skinny young man also on the boat. He kept "making eyes" at Katherine, and she thought he was just some young kid. It just so happened, that skinny kid was Frank Sinatra!

Along with all the celebrities, Katherine also met Alden Foote, a photographer on the observation deck of the Empire State Building. She and Alden married in 1940. They had three sons and one daughter. Alden went into the army and served in Patton's 3RD Army. For the most part, Katherine raised her four children by herself in lower Manhattan. During World War II she worked as a bartender and also at very upscale seafood restaurant in NYC. After leaving New York, Katherine moved to Hawaii and lived there for 32 years. She enjoyed the beautiful view of the ocean from her home. She also had a great garden and raised huge squash. In 2008 Katherine and her son, Arthur, moved to Quail Meadow. She enjoys going out for a ride in her wheelchair, and her faithful dog, Chalupa, is always in her lap.

On Saturday, Nov. 3, Katherine's family and friends gathered at the clubhouse to celebrate her 100 years of life. She enjoyed all the love and attention shown to her by family, friends, and neighbors. Katherine's son Alden, who lives in California, has written a two act play which is being produced. The title of the play is "Angel of Chatham's Square". When Katherine was read the play, her remark was, "that's about me". And, yes, the play is about part of her life.

All of her children were here for the big party: Chuck Alden and his wife Patti from New York; Alden and his spouse Donya Regalia from California, Arthur from Quail Meadow, and daughter, Priscilla Banks, from Ocala. Also in attendance was Katherine's grandson, Joseph LaForte, who lives in Honolulu.

Can you imagine all the changes Katherine has witnessed in her 100 years? In 1912, the year she was born, the Presidential election had the distinction of having three men running for the office: Teddy Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, and Woodrow Wilson - these men consisted of a former president, the current president, and a future president. And 1912 is also the year the Titanic sank.

If you want to meet a very inspiring lady, stop by and visit with Katherine Foote.

In the race for school superintendent, George Tomyn outdistanced Diana Greene, 58 percent to 41 percent. Both are on the staff of Jim Yancey, who is retiring.

Another countywide election saw Wes Wilcox top Judge Cochran, 59 percent to 40 percent, in the race for Supervisor of Elections. Wilcox is already a veteran of the local office.

The Marion County Commission will have two new members when it reorganizes. In the only real contested race on Tuesday, Earl Arnett defeated Jessica Hadley, 55 percent to 44 percent, and will replace Charlie Stone, who ran unopposed for a State House seat.

Incumbent Stan McClain and newcomer David Moore easily defeated write-in hopefuls. Both were winners in the primary, with Moore ousting incumbent Mike Amsden.

In some other races affecting Marion County, Ted Yoho easily beat two opponents to win the U.S. House District 3 race. In the primary, Yoho ousted incumbent Cliff Stearns.

In U.S. House District 5, incumbent Democrat Corrine Brown got 70 percent of the vote to win, although in Marion County Republican LeAnne Kolb was the top vote-getter.

In U.S. House District 11, incumbent Richard Nugent defeated David Werder by getting 64 percent of the vote.

In nearby Florida House districts, Keith Perry retained his seat over Andrew Morey, incumbent Jimmy Smith defeated well-known challenger Nancy Argenziano, and Stone and Dennis Baxley won without opposition.

In the only Florida Senate race on the local ballot, Dorothy Hukill of Port Orange defeated Frank Bruno in District 8. Charlie Dean was re-elected without opposition.

Fairfield's SAC honors volunteers at meeting

Priscilla Geissal

FAIRFIELD VILLAGE

The Social Activities Committee of Fairfield Village had its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 6. The interim officers presided. There was good attendance by members of the community.

Acting Chair Norma Powers, recognized the outgoing Chair Jean Chapman, who surprised a number of those present as she announced special recognition for some volunteers from 2011 and 2012.

Those recognized and thanked with special certificates were: Toni Belcher, Sandra Ford, Loretta Zang, Jean Chapman, Norma Powers, Joe Vitagliano, Simone Vitagliano, Ed Glenney, and Priscilla Geissal.

Chapman spoke for the officers and others who have worked tirelessly for the past two years. She said, "We had a ball doing what we did. The entire committee did a great job. I, personally, want to thank everyone for all their help."

Nominations were taken for the SAC for 2013.

Chair—Norma Powers. Activities Director—Toni Belcher.

Assistant Activities Director—Sharon Breeden.

Secretary—Carol Starr.

Treasurer—Stan Cohen.

There will be a vote at the meeting to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 4 at 6 p.m. All members are encouraged to be present and to take part in the voting.

Everyone was reminded of the Fairfield Village yard and bake sale set for Saturday, Nov. 10. Those participating in the craft and bake sale to be held in the Clubhouse were reminded to have tables set up on Friday afternoon.

There was a discussion of the pledges made toward the purchase of a piano to be used for activities in the Clubhouse and for the pleasure of neighbors who would be encouraged to come up to the Clubhouse and enjoy the piano when it is purchased.

There have been two $100 pledges made by Sandy and Norris Williams and by Barb and Jim LePage.

Anyone who would like to be a part of this effort is encouraged to do so. Any donations will be greatly appreciated.

Many feel that the piano will be a great addition to the Clubhouse especially since a new singing group is being organized under the direction of Paula LeBlanc.

This new group will make its debut appearance at the Christmas gathering.

The meeting closed with the reminder that the Thanksgiving pot luck dinner will be on Saturday, Nov. 17 at 5 p.m. The Christmas pot luck will be on Saturday, Dec. 15 at 5 p.m.

Those attending are asked to check the sign-up sheets in the lobby of the Clubhouse and indicate what they plan to bring so that the menu will be appropriate and completely covered in all areas of the menu.

The reminder was made that the dishes contributed should be sufficient for at least eight people.

Everyone present showed great interest in the upcoming events. Fairfield Village lives up to its slogan, "a lively place filled with lovely people."

Volunteers were honored for special service to the Fairfield Village SAC. L to R. Priscilla Geissal, Norma Powers, Toni Belcher, Sandra Ford, Simone Vitagliano, Joe Vitagliano, Ed Glenney, Jean Chapman, and (not pictured) Loretta Zang.

Interim SAC members conduct regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 4 in the Fairfield Village Clubhouse.

Our Message

Another botched Florida vote

Three days after last week's general election, well after all 49 of the other states had reported election results, ballots were still being counted in two metropolitan Florida counties and the state had not declared a winner of the presidential election.

However, unlike the disastrous 2000 election, the Florida vote this year did not determine who would become president. So the delay has not received the same level of attention, but the failure to report results of a general election in a timely manner is nonetheless an embarrassment to the state and should be a call to action.

After the 2000 presidential election, when Florida votes were counted and re-counted for more than a month before the presidential election was decided, the election system in the state was reformed under the direction of a 2002 federal law called the Help America Vote Act (HAVA), passed largely as a result of the Florida election fiasco.

The 2004 and 2008 presidential elections were relatively uneventful. But this year, as a result of multiple factors, the system broke down again in some of the state's most populous counties. Some of the factors leading to a broken system are political. Some are financial and systemic. But all are fixable.

One of the more often cited political factors was the Republican state legislature's decision to cut the number of early voting days from 14 to eight days. This was believed by many to be an effort to suppress Democratic votes, and even after there were reports of long lines in early voting, Gov. Scott refused to follow the lead from former Gov. Charlie Crist and extend early voting hours.

The shorter time for early voting, coupled with the unnecessary length of the ballot caused by the legislature putting 11 constitutional amendments on it, created a situation bound to create problems. But these alone do not explain the fiasco in some of the state's most urban areas.

Some of the other possible reasons include inadequate funding in some elections offices created by tight county budgets, shortage or breakdown of voting equipment, and legislative limitations on where early voting places can be located. For example, according to elections officials, state law limits early voting locations to libraries, city halls or elections offices. The result is in large urban areas, finding sufficient early voting locations may be difficult, even if funding is available.

To address and resolve these issues, we urge our legislative delegation to support creation of a statewide commission that includes elections supervisors, legislators and experienced business managers, and authorize this commission to investigate the whole range of issues that led to this year's breakdown.

We then urge our Legislature to listen to and act on these recommendations and make it easier for Florida residents to vote, and for these votes to be tabulated and reported in a timely manner.

This is not a Democratic or a Republican issue. This is a fundamental citizenship issue. And we urge our lawmakers to take the issue seriously and take non-partisan actions to prevent another Florida election debacle four years from now.

Among Friends

They're not called demotions, but...

Just when you think you're going to have a nice, positive, post-election column, something happens to gum up the works.

I guess I can still legitimately praise George Tomyn and Dr. Diana Greene for the school superintendent campaign they ran.

While all the attention was focused on the unfortunate events in the sheriff's race, which at this writing still isn't settled, Tomyn and Greene ran a quiet, seemingly positive campaign. Voters heard the qualifications from each, and didn't get the nasty, negative mailings, etc., that permeated other races.

But just when you think everything was going along smoothly, Tomyn, less than 48 hours after winning the election, announces changes in his administrative staff to take effect on Nov. 26.

Among those changes was the "reassigning" of Greene and Wally Wagoner, Tomyn's primary opponent, to jobs that removed them from the deputy superintendent role that each held.

Greene has become principal of Fessenden Elementary, and Wagoner, well, he's just reassigned and we don't know where.

Tomyn insisted that these were just reassignments and not demotions, but come back a month from now and compare the current salaries of the pair to what they will be making then.

I guess that's the people living up to the saying, "To the victor belongs the spoils." Still, I can't help but think that the school system would have been better served if Greene and Wagoner had remained in their current jobs.

Jim Clark
Editor

Furthermore, it would seem to have been politically expedient for Tomyn to take the high road and keep these two people in their posts. They might have become allies, ensuring Tomyn's re-election in the future.

Now, I can just see the wheels turning for 2016. You can gear up right now for the school superintendent race, and you can bet that this move by Tomyn will be front and center in the debate.

How's that for having something to look forward to?

Speaking of clean campaigns, there were a couple of others that went all right, too.

In the race for supervisor of elections, Wes Wilcox easily outpointed Judge Cochran. Wilcox ran on his own record, choosing not to criticize Cochran, who had no experience in the elections office. The outcome was not a surprise, but neither man's reputation was tainted. Congratulations to both.

And in the lone contested County Commission race, things went smoothly as Earl Arnett defeated Jessica Hadley. Both also stayed above the fray, and we even got a "live" phone call from Arnett's camp. Again, nice job by both.

If I Were The Devil

All seniors should remember Paul Harvey, but if you do or don't, please go on line to <http://stg.do/9LDe> to hear his prediction made on ABC April 3, 1965, it only lasts 3 1/2 minutes. Regardless of your political persuasion, you will be able to confirm what a wise man Harvey was and how his "If I were the devil" is playing out in America today. It is scary so Satan must truly be smiling!

The very principles that made us the greatest country in the world are no longer the backbone of our Nation. We are now a Nation who is openly turning away from God and we will pay the price for doing so. We have made our bed, now we will have to live with it.

We have invited God to remove his blessings from America and he may just do that. Don't be shocked to see us hit with more "natural disasters" than ever before as God has no choice but to bring us back to our knees, one way or the other. Get familiar with Biblical history, for as then, He is still in charge!

I pray I am wrong regarding the above, join me in this prayer.

Wayne Rackley

Climate change

The recent devastating and unusual storm, Sandy, that hit New York, New Jersey and other Northeast points, should have been a warning to those who think there is no such thing as climate change.

Storms are getting worse, coming at different times of the year and following paths that were unthinkable less than a generation ago.

Too many Americans refuse to admit that the weather is changing, whether you want to call it global warming or something else.

Most of the problems are man-made, with greenhouse gases and other pollutants changing the air and the balance of nature in this country and around the world.

Please, stop and take a moment to study what is going on around you in the atmosphere, and realize that the lack of tighter regulations is ultimately going to spell doom for our world.

It will take a while, for sure, but those who worry about what we leave for our grandchildren to straighten out, especially in things such as a national debt, must add climate control to the list.

There are some people who refuse to admit that this is a problem. They should get their heads out of the sand and quit hiding from reality.

Our world is a mess, politically, economically and ecologically. The people of this planet need to get together to straighten it out.

Meanwhile, if you're looking to start a business that will pay off in the future, I suggest you start making gas masks.

Years from now, everyone on Earth is going to need one.

Richard James

GO FIGURE! by Linda Thistle

The club collected 29 pairs of boy's pajamas, 31 pairs of girl's pajamas and 26 pairs of girl's socks, 46 pairs of boy's socks, plus nine packages of diapers and two packages of wipes. Club President, Carol Wilkes introduced Lori Chamblin, director of Alpha House and gave Lori the good news that $212 was collected during the sale of books at the Fall Festival.

Lori shared with the club's members the work that Alpha House does and how much our donations mean to this organization.

The money raised from the book sale will be used to purchase books for the clients' children at Alpha House. Patty Wallner and Amy Schwartz are the committee members who volunteered to purchase the books with input from Lori for the Alpha House. The books are donated in honor of Rita Levy's, 13-year-old granddaughter, Hannah Duffy who is fighting cancer of the brain.

The books that were not sold are being given to the Veterans Club to donate to Operation Shoebox which they support.

Here is another great example of a Stone Creek Club helping the Ocala Community.

Special donation to honor local teachers

The largest single donor in the history of the Public Education Foundation of Marion County will honor school-based teachers of the year and rookie teachers of the year with a special event complete with cash, prizes, and catering this week.

Though BMW / VW / Porsche of Ocala formalized its $50,000 partnership with the Foundation in September, they're inviting recently-elected teachers of the year and rookie teachers of the year -- 96 in all -- to the dealership located at 3949 SW College Road in Ocala for a welcoming reception.

The event takes place Wednesday, November 14, from 4:30PM-6:30PM.

BMW / VW / Porsche's $50,000 partnership with the Foundation includes a 2013 Volkswagen Jetta for next year's Marion County Teacher of the Year, cash awards for school-based teachers and rookie teachers of the year, and various sponsorships for employee recognitions, school projects, and school athletic programs. It also calls for the dealership to provide banners to hang at all schools promoting the partnership.

The Public Education Foundation of Marion County, Inc. is a not-for-profit corporation organized to enhance education in Marion County Public Schools. Foundation actions focus community interest on public education, initiate support, and underwrite projects and programs benefitting public school students, teachers, and administrators.

For more information, contact incoming Foundation Executive Director Judi Zanetti at 352.671.4167 or Judith.Zanetti@marion.k12.fl.us. You can also visit www.pefmc.org.
