ask the hard questions and I vote 'No' when it is the right thing to do," he said.

"I am accountable and available as I have been since being elected," King said.

"During my first campaign, I vowed that I would be a full time working county commissioner, available day or night. I have stood firm on my promise and have never missed a meeting, whether it was scheduled, special or an executive meeting. I take my responsibilities and obligations very seriously and will continue to be a voice of reason for the good of our county. I understand it is a privilege to serve Holmes County and not a right. If re-elected, I will continue working with the state and federal agencies to ensure that more of our tax dollars are brought back locally and will promote and foster job growth within county lines," King said.

"We have accomplished a lot together; I want to continue to make positive things happen here in Holmes County. It's a great place to live and raise a family."

King said he would be honored to receive support this November.

If re-elected, "I will bring with me experience where it counts," he said.

The Closet provides hats, scarves, work hats for both men and women, wigs of all kinds and colors, prosthetic breasts, bras of all kinds and colors specially made for prosthetic breasts, cammies/softies, handmade comfy pillows, make-up availability, drivers, gas money, hotel and motel vouchers, supplies, support groups and single support from those who have experienced cancer and much more.

Elaine Mayfield, volunteer with The Closet, said her volunteer work with The Closet has changed her life.

"I came in expecting to work with people who are dying," Mayfield said. "Instead, I found that I'm working with people who are truly living."

Julia Bullington, coordinator and volunteer with The Closet, said it puts things into perspective.

"You get to thinking that all life's little issues are so important," Bullington said. "There's meetings and schedules and appointments, and they're all so very important until you gain perspective from some of these women who come in who are truly living their lives to the fullest each day and suddenly you see what in life truly matters."

Mayfield said the most that women are looking for when they come to The Closet is to feel normal again, "to feel like a woman again."

Mayfield said her first experience was with a woman who had a radical mastectomy, which is where they surgically remove one or both breasts, partially or completely.

"I wasn't prepared for what I saw," Mayfield said. "It was horrible, and I tried to be respectful and remain steady, but it was her to say 'they made a mess, didn't they?' I never would have imagined just how courageous and strong they are, even with their frail bodies."

She said after that experience she made it her goal to help correct the "messes" that cancer had made in the lives of these people's lives.

"What people do is come here looking for simple things like a scarf or a wig, and they end up finding so much more," Bullington said. "I didn't realize how much I would've become involved and how much of me would be leaving with every person. It's an amazing feeling watching these women transform into beautiful, happy women; going from sad to joyful."

Mayfield told about a young lady in her late 20s who had a double Mastectomy and said "can you just give me some boobs and a wig?" and "can we get those a couple sizes bigger?"

"The most amazing part is when she said she felt like a woman again," Mayfield said. "We got her into her wig and her new bra and she looked in the mirror and said 'Oh my gosh! I'm kinda hot!' That's what makes this all worth while; giving back what cancer has stolen."

Mayfield also added there was a program that gave free makeovers for cancer patients.

"They use top-of-the-line products to restore facial tissue and renew a woman's appearance after it has been ravaged by countless cancer treatments," Mayfield said. "The clinics are located in Dothan and Crestview, and the patients do have to get there on their own, but it is more than worth it."

Bullington wanted to clarify that The Closet isn't there just for breast cancer patients, and they do give replacement prosthetics, bras, etc.

"It's great when they get a wig, and they ask how much it is and we can tell them it is free because of those who support their local Relay for Life and give to the American Cancer Society," Bullington said. "So I say that if they want to repay them then when they get better they should give back by becoming a team member for Relay for Life and raise money for others just like them. It's a very rewarding challenge and it makes you appreciate what you have."

For more information on The Closet in Holmes County or more programs available, contact the Holmes County Chamber of Commerce at 547-4682.

A NOTE FROM TERRY:

As I have researched and studied our School District I continue to find underachievement and wastefulness. I have decided to continue to share with you the things I have discovered so that you too will understand the severity of our situation. These facts found at the Florida Department of Education website are proof that my opponent's "Business As Usual" approach to our School District WILL NOT WORK! We do not need "Business As Usual", we need leadership, fiscal responsibility and focus on our children. While visiting many of you door to door I find myself spending a lot of time discussing the issues and it is limiting my ability to reach more voters. THAT IS OK!! I hear your concerns and I WILL make a difference when elected to the office of Superintendent of Education. I know that we all have the same ultimate goal and TOGETHER we will succeed for the Children of Holmes County. Please join me in the many cook outs that I am having across the county and if you are still unable to talk with me CALL ME, 850-326-0603. My door is always open and my phone is always on.

History of Bonifay Woman's Club

Last week I wrote some of the Bonifay Garden Club history. This week's column tells some of the illustrious history of the Bonifay Women's Club which was compiled by Alberta Ingle and published in the Heritage of Holmes County in 2006.

The Ladies Library Association was the forerunner of the Business and Professional Woman's Club in Bonifay. At a town meeting in 1910 presided over by Mr. C. M. Cox, a need was expressed for an organization to develop cultural and intellectual opportunities for the community. Since no schools in the area provided a library for their students the ladies saw a need to provide library services. In addition, they saw other community needs. First, when ladies came to town with their husbands there was a need for bathroom facilities and a place to "freshen up." Remember, in 1910 they would have come to town via horse and buggy or mule and wagon.

Both of these goals would require a building. To achieve this, Mr. G.W. Banfil donated

HAPPY CORNER
Hazel Wells Tison

The ladies of the association would pay $50 per annum. A small wooden building was erected across from what is now First Baptist Church on Waukesha St. which housed books required for reading in the schools.

Another goal which the association achieved was to remove animals and chickens that roamed the streets of Bonifay. In addition, they introduced music appreciation to the community by bringing Lyceum programs to the Holmes County High School Auditorium. Some early members of the Ladies Library Association were Mrs. Chrissie Miller, Miss Docia Wright who later became Mrs. C. A. Primm, Mrs. E.A. Williams, wife of the Editor lots 15, 16, and 17 as a site for a Library Building. In addition, he offered a loan of $400 at 8% interest as soon as eight responsible citizens signed a contract to pay $1.00 each quarter.

and publisher of the Holmes County Advertiser; Mrs. W.A. Sessoms (Blanche), Mrs. Kelly Sessoms (Emma), Mrs. Matye Allen, Mrs. F.M. McDonald, Mrs. T.M. Creel, Mrs. N.D. Miller, Mrs. J.S. Brown, Mrs. T.J. Wright. Mrs. Blanch Sessoms served as the president for 30 years.

(She and her sister, Emma Sessoms, a concert pianist and singer came from New York to perform at the Chauteauqa in DeFuniak Springs. While here they met and married the Sessoms brothers.)

As Trustees for the Ladies Library Association, Mrs. Blanche Sessoms, Mrs. C.M. Cox and Miss Docia Wright drew up a constitution and a set of by-laws which were adopted by the club.

In 1919, two young ladies from Bonifay, Clara Johnson and Jewel Godwin applied to attend Florida State College for Women, but since the Bonifay High School was not accredited, they had to pass a written entrance exam to be admitted. The Bonifay Ladies Library Association made it their goal to acquire the books required by the State Board of Education for the high school. This paved the way for their accreditation and made college entrance for Bonifay's students a greater possibility.

In order to pay for the building and support their many other activities, the club sold greeting cards, entertained with a kitchen band made up of kitchen utensils, served innumerable meals to Business Men's suppers, Rural Carrier suppers, a Cigar Factory luncheon, High School club suppers, and other fund raisers. Many, many social and community activities have been held at the "Club House" which everyone knew to be the Woman's Club house on Waukesha St.

In 1948, the Ladies Library Association became the Bonifay Woman's Club. When we lived with Mr. and Mrs. T.M. Creel, she often spoke of the Woman's Club as the Library Club. In 1949, the block building replaced the wooden structure. In 1953, an eight foot by 31 foot concrete walk was built. Then the following year, as soon as that was paid for, the ladies decided to buy a piano for the club house.

Since then, funds have been raised through various activities such as the publication of three cook books, cake sales, and public political forums.

When the Bank of Bonifay built their new building, the Club House site was needed by the bank and a new building was constructed on east Virginia Ave where they hold their meetings on the 3rd Monday nights, September through May. Two grand-daughters of Mrs. E.A. Williams, one of the founding members, currently hold membership, Diane Williams Smith, Club President, and Marianne Dannelly Barton. Frances Matthews Williams, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Williams is also a member.

Bonifay Woman's Club has been a vital part of Bonifay for almost 100 years, and though its vision has changed from the original Ladies Library Association, it remains a club whose goal is the betterment of our town and our community. I salute you ladies of Bonifay Woman's Club.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor

I would like to inform the public of the facts that took place during the City Council meeting I attended a few weeks ago. I was placed on the agenda to address City Ordinances I had concerns about, as well as 150 signatures of Holmes County residents.

To the members of the Bonifay City Council, my name is Lori Patterson and I am a small business owner in Bonifay. I have 2 concerns about city ordinances. My first is about ordinance No. 18 which reads;

An Ordinance declaring what shall be deemed a nuisance, providing for the removal of nuisance and for punishment for failure or refusal to move. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Bonifay, Fla. That it shall be Unlawful for any person to keep or maintain any nuisance per se or filth, the contents of cesspools, ofal, garbage, foul water, dye water, refuse from manufactures, urine, stable manure, decayed animal or vegetable matter or any other offensive substances detrimental to health, "thrown, placed or allowed to remain in or upon any premises, streets, avenues, alleys, side walk, gutter, public restoration or upon any lot or ground within the corporate limits of said town.

Any person failing or refusing to remove any such nuisance shall be punished by fine not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Approved this 17day of June A.D. 1910. This ordinance was re-adopted July 27th 1992 by our previous Mayor, Mr Sims.

I understand this ordinance to mean that everyone who is riding a horse on city streets and not cleaning up the manure they leave behind are in violation of the ordinance.

I also understand that all of the people who leave their trash behind on the streets are in violation of the ordinance. There are not enough garbage cans provided for the people to discard their refuse. These are both Health hazards

Long after the Parade and Rodeo have gone, the city deals with the manure in several ways. First the traffic drives through it and spreads pathogens throughout the community. Second, children are forced to play football on manure ridden fields. I can provide the Council with two specific instances where a child was covered in welts from playing football after the Rodeo. The second being a 17-year old Cheerleader for Holmes County High. She sat on the ground on top of a blanket and her legs were all broken out in welts & she had to have an injection.

I requested the City of Bonifay provide adequate garbage cans and toilets for the public. Cap off the flag pole holders. Fines for polluting which will generate funds to enforce ordinance No. 18. To pressure wash the streets and sidewalks. That all horse owners be responsible and purchase a "bun bag" to keep our streets clean.

This may seem like nothing to many and what is she complaining about? Well when you have to smell the manure on a daily basis and look at the wreckage left behind and deal with ants, roaches, rats, maggots, flies, and garbage that I did not put there but directly affects my business as it makes this Town that has potential, look like a dumpster, smell like a dumpster and keeps people driving right on by. Let it affect your wallet and see how fast you complain.

The streets were cleaner faster this year, however that is not a solution to this problem. We as a community need to make changes that better our community. Either we stand for something or settle for anything. If you care to stand with me on this issue I need all the support from the community I can get.

The forefathers of this community wrote this ordinance for a reason. They took pride in keeping their streets clean. Why can't we?

Lori Patterson

Dear Editor,

Several years ago I began approaching our BOCC with the problem of our parks, playgrounds for children and swimming areas built with government agency money. For example, the park on Highway 79 (Wayside Park).

As you enter into Holmes County this is one of the first parks visitors coming through see. It has no restroom facility, playground in dire need of repair, people openly drinking and doing drugs, broken beer bottles in the swimming area, huge holes where children played, profanity written all over the covered picnic area (which by the way had no safe tables), grass never cut, no garbage cans, and no handicap entrance to the park or swimming area. This park as well as other grant money built parks and playgrounds were in practically the same shape.

I attended meetings of the BOCC for over three years asking that something be done, to do their job and live up to the grant agreement signed to get these monies. In the agreement were rules and regulations that had to be followed to receive these grants. A copy of the grant agreement is supposed to be a matter of public record but is not.

I finally went to Tallahassee and met with the EPA board in charge of the grants. I took pictures of parks, statement from people who visit these parks and explained the situation. I informed them of the number of years I had tried to get our BOCC to act upon this but to no avail. The EPA Board informed me that this was not acceptable and gave me copies of the grant agreement. They assured me they would begin investigating this immediately. They were absolutely appalled by what they saw and heard.

I continued to go to BOCC meetings and asked them if EPA has contacted them. At this time Brandon Young, the County Attorney at the time informed me he had received a form letter like many other form letters he had reviewed and would handle it in the same manner as all the others. As a result the EPA committee made a surprise visit and inspected everything built with grant money. After this visit they wrote the BOCC would have a certain length of time to correct these problem or they would have to pay all money back and all grant request they had would be put on hold. They also informed the BOCC future checks would be made.

This, Holmes County citizens and voters is what we have been dealing with for many years. Get the money and run, I have been following all grant money received and find basically the same problem with them all.

I feel, as a Holmes County resident, District 3 voter, represented at this time by Phillip Music, that it's time to clean house.

What we need to have to run the county is a younger, energetic, business-educated and motivated person with a family that wants to ensure the future of Holmes County and all the people and endure and preserve the integrity of this county for us and our children. A man that is a longtime generation resident and a member of our work force. He needs to be capable of not being intimidated. As an educated business man he will know how to get new business in out county which will bring more employment, budget our money wisely and generate new revenue for Holmes County and obliterate the old "Buddy System" that we have now.

The ones running for District 3 are Phillip Music, and David Whittaker. You know where my vote goes and I sincerely hope everyone considers the qualifications of each and not who you know.

Thanks,
JoAnn Ellis Cooley

Neighborhood Watch comes to H.C. community

Special to the Times-Advertiser

BONIFAY — Tuesday, Oct. 9, marked the beginning of the first Neighborhood Watch program in the Holmes County area. Over 20 residents of Sideline Mobile Home Country Community joined in the efforts.

Monthly meetings will be held on the first Tuesday of every month for local residents to exchange information on crime and safety issues that affect every neighborhood.

While the monthly meetings are for the residents of Sideline Mobile Home Community, any and all are welcome to sit in and learn more about the program.

While the new owners and the Holmes County Sheriff's Department are no strangers to the benefits of this program, this effort has not been previously utilized in this area.

"Neighborhood Watch is a fabulous way to learn and quickly communicate safety and crimes concerns facing any community," Corporate Representative Susan Spencers said. "Our residents already participate in two annual socials to have fun and to get to know each other. This foundation will be greatly supported with the seriousness of working to help keep the community drug-free and as safe as possible."

Bonifay queen to crown new Southern Miss

Special to the Times-Advertiser

BONIFAY — On Nov. 3 Deanna Hodges will crown the new Teen National Southern Miss at the Days Inn Convention Center in Panama City Beach. The doors will open at 1:30 p.m., and the pageant starts at 2 p.m.

Deanna is the 17-year-old daughter of Ted and Donna Hodges of Bonifay. She enjoys training and showing horses in Western Pleasure, Showmanship, Horsemanship, Reigning and Barrels.

"I have had a great year representing this pristine title in parades, MC pageants, and it was especially fun when I was interviewed on the news with WMBB," Hodges said. "In fact, I have chosen my career based on how much I enjoyed the public speaking. I plan to major in mass communications, journalism and public relations. Hopefully I can utilize my degree in the political arena.

"Without pageants I would have never known my true calling," Hodges said. "Our director, Mr. Prowant, is so much fun to work with, and he is so fair and honest. The National Southern Miss

I am Debbie Kolmetz and I am running for School Board Member, District 2. I'm running for this position because children and their education are very important to me. God blessed me with a wonderful family of seven daughters and two granddaughters, of which I am very thankful. Children are our most valuable asset. They are the leaders of tomorrow and our future. Being a mother of seven, my life has revolved around children and school. I am very familiar with the school system having our own children attending school for 37 consecutive years. I've done substitute teaching, school volunteer work, attended many school board meetings, served on school committees, and a business owner. If elected, I will put the interests of children first. I will treat people fairly, be available, and devote full time to this job. I want to give back by donating ten percent of my school board salary each year to a scholarship for a senior in Holmes County schools. I won't be able to change the world, but I will work hard to make a difference for the better in whatever way God sees fit. I have enjoyed meeting the people of Holmes County during this campaign and hope to work with you in the future.

Thank you for your vote and support on Nov. 6th.

Hello friends and neighbors. My name is Phillip Music, and I would like to take this opportunity to say "thank you", for allowing me to serve as your Commissioner in District 3 of Holmes County for the past 2 terms. I have been married to my wife Janice for 49 years, and we have 4 children. Making Holmes County a better place to live and raise our children is a goal that I have always tried to work towards. We have made it through some hard economical times together over the past few years, but it took hard work and tough decisions to stay on track and protect the citizens of this great county. The septic tank bill was only one of the tasks that we took on, to make your voice heard in Tallahassee. We have worked to lower the millage rate by 1.7 points, which will benefit you as tax payers of Holmes County. If you will allow me to serve you another 4 years, I promise to continue to work for you. Accountability, dependability and stability are important factors in a candidate's character. I strive to maintain all of these as your commissioner and as a citizen to this county in which I am proud to serve.

Remember "Believe In Music" one more time when you vote.

WARNING: A real live Christian is in Holmes County.

The reason I thought they were all dead is a few years ago Wayside in Holmes County was decorated with a porno display, see sheriff's case # 08-07-5838. Restrooms full of human waste, as seen on TV Ch 7 the camera lady got sick. She asked me how this could happen? My reply was, God is dead or real sick. Proof of this. I had asked two preachers on different days they were there to baptize people in Wrights. This water has washed away sins for years, but when I pointed porno displays, drunks, restrooms that had not seen water for 5 years they would not make a statement to take to H.C.C.C.

If another Christian is in Holmes County VOTE for David Whitaker.

TDC elects new officers

By RANDAL SEYLER
638-0212 | @WCN_HCT
rseyler@chippelypaper.com

CHIPLEY — The Washington County Tourist Development Council elected its 2012-13 slate of officers and approved a grant request for the Chipley Woman's Club's annual bridal show on Monday.

Council member Joel Pate was re-elected as chairman, while member Scott Sweeney was chosen vice chairman following a ballot vote. Elizabeth Henderson was named council secretary.

"Some of us will be coming of the board in the next couple of years, so I would like to see some of you young members get experience in leadership while we are still here to help you," council member and former chairman Ted Everett said.

The council also approved a $1,000 grant for the Chipley Woman's Club to promote their fourth annual Bridal Expo, but the date is yet to be determined after the council and Jan Whitcomb, chair woman of the event, discovered that the original date of Feb. 3 is Super Bowl Sunday.

"We will have to change that," Whitcomb said.

Sweeney also suggested that the Woman's Club consider having the event on Saturday, or having a two-day event, instead of just holding it on Sunday. "With people being in church, then going home to change into something comfortable for riding around in, I believe you're going to lose people holding the event on a Sunday afternoon. On Saturday you would have the whole day for the event."

Member Jim Town said that according to the TDC's statistics, the Bridal Expo does draw attendees from out of the county. "Last year, 54 percent of those attending were from out of the county," he said, consulting the council's research. "Fifty-one percent were from out of the county the year before, and 65 percent were from out-of-county the previous year." He said the average attendance for the event showed 57 percent of the participants coming from out of the county.

"It was televised last year; I was surprised by the crowd at the Bridal Expo," said council member Mary Richmond. "I do wish they would hold the event for more than one day, though."

In the workshop preceding the meeting, Everett asked council members to each come up with 10 possible slogans for the TDC logo. At the September meeting, council members looked at some possible logo art that was presented by Sweeney.

At Monday's meeting, the council decided it would look for art that more clearly defined Washington County.

"We need something that says 'rural,'" Everett said. "Everyone's got homework for the next meeting."

Caryville sets Halloween festivities

CARYVILLE — The Town of Caryville set their Halloween festivities to be held from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Oct. 30 during their regularly scheduled meeting on Oct. 9.

"It seems that most of the surrounding cities and towns are holding their Halloween celebrations on Oct. 31," Chairman Henry Chambers said. "We'll set ours for the day before so that our children will have the benefit of having one at home too and we won't be competing the neighboring towns."

Council member Jim

Taylor informed the council that a man recently had his car window broken while parked on town property and was requesting that the town pay for damages.

"We need to put up a sign saying that the town is not responsible for damages while on town property," Taylor said and the council agreed.

The council approved of paying for a $95 sign to be placed at the Caryville Flea Market stating that "anyone that wishes to set up and sell must pay the town of Caryville $6 per day or $45 per month. This is anywhere on City Property. Pay at Town Hall, Monday through Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. On Saturday's you must pay at the Caryville Flea Market. See person in Booth 4 or Booth 7."

"Electricity is coming soon," said Paron's Produce at Caryville Flea Market, Paron Beeco. "Some tables are in need of replacement and some are in need of replacement. We also need the Flea Market address posted."

Beeco told the council he would be able to do all this without cost to the town, he just needed permission from the town to do so. The Council granted him permission to do so.

The next regularly scheduled meeting for the Town of Caryville is set for 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the Caryville Town Hall.

Kiwanis hears County Commission District 1 candidates

Special to the Times-Advertiser

The Chipley Kiwanis Club met for its weekly luncheon on Oct. 16, at Pattillo's Restaurant at the Washington-Holmes Technical Center, where lunch was prepared and served by the students in the culinary program.

The program for the meeting was a question and answer session with the two candidates for County Commissioner for District 1: Alan Bush and Ross Pritchard. Alan Bush worked for the Florida Department of Transportation for 26 years. He has a degree in forestry and resources conservation and a master's degree in civil engineering. He is a registered professional engineer. He also has emergency management experience.

Ross Pritchard is a licensed building contractor, and has 25 years experience as a licensed paramedic and firefighter. He has lived in Washington County since 1987.

ALAN T. BUSH

Question: In the past, County Commissioners have been directly involved in operations. What is your opinion of that and how would you approach the job?

Bush said less involvement in road maintenance is more appropriate. Being directly involved can undermine the effectiveness of the supervisor so the commission should set policy and rules rather than being directly involved. Pritchard said the county commission shouldn't micromanage. He also said the road department is unique in that it is the only department where commissioners get directly involved. He believes in having a chain-of-command and observing it.

Question: What is your position on County Commissioners receiving mileage?

Pritchard said a county commissioner is paid $29,000 per year and that the job is part-time. He is against commissioners receiving reimbursement, and he said it is not needed. He also doesn't think that a cellphone should be a reimbursable expense.

Bush said each county commissioner is given an allotment to cover expenses. One month per year is used to set expenses. He is not sure about whether insurance would cover the use of a private vehicle on county business.

Question: How would you handle the chain-of-command if a supervisor is not doing his job?

Pritchard said the EMS has a discipline board and that something like that might work.

Bush said a mechanism needs to be established to track complaints in the road department so that the complaints can be resolved as much as possible. He also said the county administrator should handle day-to-day operations, and county commissioners should not deal with employees directly.

Pritchard agreed and noted that the board as a whole needs to back the county administrator. The county commission should act as a board, not as individuals. He said the commission needs to cut expenses as much as possible and increase revenue by attracting new companies to the county. He said the county is ignoring its intellectual work force, and too many young people get a college education but then have to leave the area to find employment.

Pritchard said Washington County is a hub between Ft. Rucker, Tyndall AFB and Eglin

AFB, and the county should try to attract companies to provide good paying jobs other than state jobs. He noted that the board is not attractive to outside businesses. The county commission should contact other counties for ideas to attract industry.

Question: With the budget situation as it is, how do you address the budget to generate additional revenue?

Pritchard said the county needs new industry and needs to get the county commission, the chamber of commerce and the Economic Development Council working together to attract industry to Washington County.

Also, a $5 million balloon loan matures next year. The county is paying interest only. The commission should have shopped this loan before now in order to decrease the interest expense.

Bush noted that it is hard to know exactly where to cut, but that there are contingency funds in the budget. He pointed out that the intangible tax on the gas pipeline has somewhat offset the loss of ad valorem taxes.

Question: Should we budget for the county as a whole or sub-budget for the districts?

Bush said the county has done very little planning in the past. There is nothing budgeted for improvements. Rather than budgeting for each district, expenses should be accurately tracked to make sure that each district gets its fair share. The county should budget for the county as a whole, and everyone has to be treated equally.

Holmes County topped the Panhandle Varsity Power Ranking last week and went on to defeat South Walton on Oct. 16 to stay on top.

The Blue Devils blew away the South Walton Sea Hawks 46-16, improving to 6-1. They were ranked No. 2 on Oct. 10 and moved up after defeating Vernon 36-7.

Formerly top-ranked Blountstown lost a close battle with No. 4 Marianna for the Tigers' second loss of the season. Three of the other top 5 teams also won. Bozeman, at No. 3, was the lone Top 5 team to lose last week.

Only six of the area's 17 teams came away with victories. Seven lost and four were idle.

Other rankings included:

2. Marianna (6-1) (4)

The Bulldogs rebounded from a tough loss to edge Blountstown 14-6.

3. Liberty County (5-2) (5)

The Bulldogs won their fourth straight game, the latest a 27-18 victory over Bozeman while undermanned.

4. Blountstown (4-2) (1)

The Tigers' defeats have come against the top two teams in the area.

5. Port St. Joe (4-2) (7)

The Tiger Sharks rolled past Niceville Rocky Bayou Christian 42-10 in extending their winning streak to three.

6. Chipley (3-3) (6)

The idle Tigers stay put heading into their matchup with the Bucks on Friday.

7. Bozeman (4-2) (3)

The Bucks slip after playing a sloppy game against Liberty County and losing for the second time in three games.

8. Graceville (4-2) (8)

The Tigers ran past South Walton 35-7 for a second straight win.

9. Mosley (3-3) (10)

The idle Dolphins move up one place.

10. Cottondale (3-3) (9)

The Hornets lost to Jay 36-20 for their second defeat in three games.

11. Arnold (2-4) (11)

The Marlins lost 21-0 on the road at Satellite.

12. Bay (2-4) (12)

The Tornados were held off by Live Oak Suwannee in a 27-21 loss.

13. Rutherford (1-5) (14)

The idle Rams move ahead one spot.

14. Franklin County (1-5) (16)

The Seahawks were idle and move a few spaces.

15. Wewahitchka (2-5) (17)

The Gators' snapped a three-game skid with a 44-28 win over Tallahassee John Paul II.

16. Vernon (1-5) (15)

The Yellow Jackets have lost four in a row in becoming one of the area's coldest teams, but they can salvage some momentum against Graceville this week.

17. Sneads (2-5) (13)

The Pirates' losing streak reached four games after a 28-14 defeat to Baker.

Graceville demolishes Vernon 49-6

GRACEVILLE — The Vernon Yellow Jackets (1-6) were probably ready to fly home to their nest after the Graceville Tigers (5-2) manhandled them 49-6 on Friday.

The Yellow Jackets already were trailing 35-0 at the half when Vernon fumbled the opening kick return in the end zone and a flock of Tigers landed on the ball, giving Graceville the first touchdown of the second half before the clock even ticked once, upping the Tigers' lead to 42-0.

Fifty-one seconds later, Tigers sophomore Jared Padgett was back in the end zone after picking off a Yellow Jackets' pass at the 35 and running it into the end zone, giving the Graceville squad a commanding 49-point lead and invoking the continuous clock.

Graceville's Toquille Franklin was perfect for the evening in kicking, making all seven of his point-after attempts.

The Tigers' senior Rasheed Campbell was responsible for the Tigers' first score of the evening, scampering 67 yards on the first play of the game to score, just 15 seconds into the opening quarter.

Campbell also intercepted a Vernon pass inside the Yellow Jacket 20 and returned it to score, giving the Tigers a 14-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

Padgett opened the second period by scoring on the first play, racing from behind the Tiger 36-yard line for a 67-yard touchdown only 25 seconds into the quarter.

Fourteen seconds later, senior

Javonte Cotton scooped up a Yellow Jackets fumble at their own 20 and carried it into the end zone, bringing the Graceville lead to 28-0 with 11:21 left to play in the first half.

Senior CJ Miller scored the final touchdown of the second quarter when he broke through the middle of the Vernon line from 42 yards out and dashed into the end zone, capping a 62-yard, 5-play drive.

Vernon's sole touchdown came with 1:56 left in the third quarter, when senior Nick Porter went up the middle from the Tigers 15-yard line to score. The two-point attempt was no good because of a fumbled snap, but the Yellow Jackets were on the board for six.

The Tigers travel to Jay next Friday and Vernon goes to Northview. Kickoff is at 7 p.m.

a team," said Jernigan, who had 66 yards receiving and 28 on the ground. "There was a lot more intensity, and we were a lot more focused in practice."

Jernigan and the Bucks took control with 28 points in the second quarter after starting with 4 total yards on their first two drives. Bozeman trailed 12-7 after one quarter following scoring runs of 46 and 54 yards by Kobe McCrary and Wyatt Brock, respectively.

Bozeman scored first when Jernigan recovered a fumbled punt snap in the end zone on the game's first series. Chipley went in the opposite direction as Bozeman on its next four drives, amassing just 51 yards while Martinez took over.

"I wasn't too concerned with the start because we knew both teams would have to settle into the game," Bozeman coach Loren Tillman said. "We saw what we wanted and eventually got it."

Martinez capped a 65-yard march with an 11-yard run to give Bozeman (5-2) the lead early in the second quarter following Brock's scoring gallop. Martinez scored from 1 yard after a Chipley punt on the ensuing possession.

Chipley quarterback Jordan Finch, who was 1 for 8, fumbled the ball away after a 9-yard loss two plays later, and Jovani Bell scored from 25 yards to continue the surge. McCrary was stopped on fourth down with 1:24 to play in the half and Martinez connected with Jernigan for 44 yards and a 35-12 halftime lead.

Chipley stopped the scoring barrage when Jordan Burns kicked the ball out of the end zone for a Tigers' safety in the third quarter. It was the lone highlight, as Jernigan and Bell staked Bozeman to the mercy-rule finish.

McCrary led all rushers with 179 yards on 27 carries. Brock added 51 yards, but Chipley couldn't overcome the momentum shift. Chipley coach Chip Harris refused comment and quickly ordered his team to the locker room.

Bell finished with 79 yards and added a second score of 5 yards in the third quarter.

Bozeman hosts Wewahitchka next week, but Tillman said prepping for South Walton already has started.

"We prepared three weeks for Chipley," Tillman said. "We're getting ready for South Walton, that's the focus."

MEET THE CANDIDATES

By RANDAL SEYLER

BONIFAY — With less than two weeks until the General Election and early voting starting this Saturday, Holmes County candidates have been busy working for votes.

In addition to national and state offices up for election, Holmes County voters have seven local races to decide, including two county commissioner positions, the sheriff's race, the superintendent of schools and a school board seat.

The Holmes County Times-Advertiser wanted to present our local candidates again one final time before early voting commences. The comments quoted originally were submitted for the Holmes County Voter's Guide, which we published in August. Comments were edited for length, and we attempted to contact candidates who had not participated in the original publication to include their comments here as well.

EARLY VOTING BEGINS

Early voting begins 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at the Supervisor of Elections office in the basement of the Holmes County Courthouse. Voting continues from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily until Nov. 3.

You may access the Supervisor of Elections office from the back of the courthouse, and there will be reserved parking at the back of the courthouse for early voting.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, DISTRICT 1

JIM KING, BONIFAY
Democrat - Incumbent

"A lifelong conservative Holmes County resident myself, I possess a proven track record of leadership and strong work ethic," Jim King said in a news release.

JIM KING

"Since being elected, I have maintained both an open-door and 'open-ear' policy, listening to all concerns of citizens and addressing issues to the best of my ability," he said. "I've always strived to make the very best decisions for Holmes County based on all of the information presented. I am a dedicated, full-time commissioner and have a wealth of experience and bring valuable knowledge to this position."

"I am accountable and available as I have been since being elected," King said. "During my first campaign, I vowed that I would be a full-time working county commissioner, available day or night. I have stood firm on my promise and have never missed a meeting, whether it was scheduled, special or an executive meeting. I take my responsibilities and obligations very seriously and will continue to be a voice of reason for the good of our county."

BOBBY SASNETT, WESTVILLE
Republican

"I am a God-fearing man and will bring honest, transparency and fiscal responsibility to the office I seek," Sasnett said. "I began my business in 1973. My company was forged from a desire to give quality service and help the local economy. Sasnett Home Builders has thrived for over 30 years under my management."

"I will bring to the commission my experience, passion and drive. Let me work these same accomplishments for you the voter," Sasnett said.

BOBBY SASNETT

"Only God knows the future. I will always pray for guidance. I think its going to be a long, difficult time ahead of us. I will do my best to oversee the budget, keep the county going in the best direction possible and absolutely do my best to bring good clean jobs back to Holmes County."

"I am a member of the National Rifle Association, have worked with multiple grant programs to assist the elderly, sponsor of many youth activity programs and a staunch supporter of emergency services."

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, DISTRICT 3

PHILIP MUSIC, BONIFAY
Democrat - Incumbent

Philip Music said he has been blessed to be able to serve as commissioner for the past eight years. He added that being able to serve the citizens of Holmes County has been a great honor and he appreciated the trust that has been bestowed upon him.

PHILIP MUSIC

During the past eight years, Music said he has helped to keep the millage rate as low as possible and also voted to help save the county over $700,000 in refinancing a bond. Music said he is committed to serving the citizens of Holmes County to try and make it a better place for everyone.

Music has been married to Janice Music for 49 years, and they have four children and 13 grandchildren. He is the owner of his own construction company and has worked in that field for more than 30 years. He said he is also a proud Christian man.

"I would be grateful to have the opportunity to continue to serve in the role of county commissioner," Music said.

DAVID WHITAKER, BONIFAY
Republican

"I decided to run for county commissioner because I love living in Holmes County and want to be proactive in helping to ensure financial stability and progress of this county while preserving the traditions and heritage of the people in this county," Whitaker said.

DAVID WHITAKER

"My willingness to listen and understand the needs of the people of Holmes County along with my integrity and common sense approach make me the ideal candidate to 'Progress and Preserve' Holmes County as we move forward," Whitaker said. "The experience I have gained through my financial background and the knowledge I have obtained through my bachelor's degree in business management provide me with the essential tools for making informed decisions on how to best spend taxpayer funds."

"Challenges facing our county in the future will continue to be budgeting in a tough economy and creating job opportunities for local residents. This can be accomplished by creating ways to bring in revenue for the county and proactively seeking out financial grants that best suit our unique needs," Whitaker said.

SCHOOL BOARD, DISTRICT 2

WILBURN G. BAKER, WESTVILLE
Nonpartisan

"For me, it's the satisfaction of helping our children become successful leaders in Holmes County's future," Baker said. "If I can help one child do better in his or her studies, it would all be worth it. Oftentimes, it is just listening and providing resources, guidance and support to a child to make all of the difference of whether or not he or she fails or succeeds."

WILBURN G. BAKER

"I have worked closely with the Holmes County Board of County Commissioners for over 30 years and have gained much from my experience that will be helpful if elected to the school board office," Baker said.

"The challenge that I believe we face now, and what will become an even bigger endeavor in the future, is the ability to offer our children excellent educational and academic opportunities with minimal budget to work with. With this always in the forefront of my mind, I plan to stay abreast of possible resources to help meet this challenge. The days of sitting back and waiting for things to get better are over."

DEBBIE KOLMETZ, PONCE DE LEON
Nonpartisan

"I decided to run for school board member because I feel I have a lot of experience in the Holmes County school system that can be put to good use in this office," Kolmetz said. "My life has always revolved around children, and school has been a big part of my life."

DEBBIE KOLMETZ

"Raising seven daughters and putting them through school in Holmes County has given me plenty of hands-on experience," Kolmetz said. "I've been very involved in the schools doing substitute teaching in K-12 for 30 years, serving on committees and advisory councils, officer in Booster Club and PTO, numerous volunteer hours at school as well as community volunteer work."

"The major problem for this office now and in the future is budget cuts. With the state cutting back on money available for education, we are in challenging times. We need a common sense approach to spending. I will always put the best interests of our children and their education first," Kolmetz said.

"Being a school board member is an important role and one I don't take lightly," she said.

HOLMES COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

JOHN BRAXTON JR., WESTVILLE
No Party Affiliation

"I know Holmes County can be the safest county in the state," said John Braxton Jr. "We cannot expect law enforcement alone to solve all the communities' issues. The way we make Holmes County the safest place to work, live and raise our families is through a collaborative effort between law enforcement and the community as a whole."

JOHN BRAXTON JR.

Braxton said he has spent his entire career in service to his community, fighting crime and protecting families. "I have a very specific plan to make that a reality through community policing. I will implement an approach to policing that promotes law enforcement involvement with the residents of Holmes County and inspires residents to get invested in the safety of their community," he said.

"I am not a politician; I am a career law enforcement officer," Braxton said. "There are lessons I have learned from decades in law enforcement that can't be taught in a school or through a book. I believe that the measure of success in law enforcement is not in number of arrests; rather it's in the absence of crime."

TIM BROWN, BONIFAY
Republican Party - Incumbent

"I am your current sheriff, and I feel that we've worked had these last three and a half years to serve the people of Holmes County. If re-elected, we will continue to work hard for the citizens of Holmes County," Brown said.

TIM BROWN

"I have 27 years of experience in law enforcement. I've worked the last three as sheriff in Holmes County. I started out working as a dispatcher, I've been a corrections officer, I was a road deputy for several years, investigator for 10 years, captain over the road and I've been you sheriff for the last three and a half years," Brown said.

"One of the major challenges for the sheriff's office is fighting crime with the resources available. In the last three and a half years, we have been able to do that by being a true conservative sheriff. I understand where the money comes from. And I understand that a small county such as we are has a very limited tax base, and we have to live within our means."

HOLMES COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

EDDIE DIXON, BONIFAY
Democrat

"It has been my goal since the day I started teaching in Holmes County in 1989. I want to help make a good school system great," Dixon said.

EDDIE DIXON

Dixon said he has proven leadership in both the education and business worlds. "I utilize a common sense approach in decision-making. I maintain an open-door policy for all stakeholders. I maintain high moral and ethical standards in both academic and extracurricular activities. I attended Poplar Springs School and graduated from Holmes County High School."

Dixon earned his associate's degree at Chipola College and his bachelor's and master's degrees at Florida State University. He taught at Bonifay Elementary School and coached at Holmes County High School for four years. "I spent 16 years in educational technology sales and management designing curriculum delivery systems for hundreds of schools and school districts across the Southeast. I am presently the principal of Holmes County High School," Dixon said. "I will provide leadership that encourages employees to be financially conservative and utilize resources and personnel for the maximum benefit of students."

TERRY MEARS, BONIFAY
Republican

"I decided to run for this office based upon the need for a different approach to resurrect our decline in academia and community involvement in our schools,"

TERRY MEARS

Mears said. "Our children are our future. Education does not start and stop with a bell. Morals and values are taught by family and community."

Mears said he has more than 20 years of teaching experience and has 18 years of teaching in public classrooms. "I have a business background and can operate within the confines of a budget," he said.

"Obviously, the budget will be of focus. I feel that all programs will have to be scrutinized. This is where the community must be coupled up with the schools in order to help with the extracurricular programs. I further feel that that technology and teaching must be balanced," he said.

"I have proven leadership and teaching experience that spans from the battlefield to the school house. If given the opportunity, I will use every ounce of it for our future (the students and citizens) of Holmes County."

HOLMES COUNTY CLERK OF COURT

DON W. HERSMAN JR., BONIFAY

"I am proud to say that I am a Christian, husband and father. I have 23 years of experience managing a staff of 75 employees. I have 15 years of experience as an accountant. I have unmatched community involvement that includes Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce, Dixie Youth baseball, and Holmes Pee Wee football just to name a few. I believe that my management, leadership, accounting and customer service experience make me the most qualified to be your clerk of court."

KYLE HUDSON, WESTVILLE
Democrat

"As a student in high school, I learned the value of being a goal-oriented person and the importance of quality leadership," Hudson said.

KYLE HUDSON

"As I progressed through school, I set several goals for myself. Each of these goals has been centrally focused on public service and helping people. My first goal was to serve my community as agriculture teacher, which I have done for 10 years. My second goal, set 12 years ago, was to serve our county as clerk of court."

"I became keenly interested in this position because of the high level of leadership and accountability, which the job entails," Hudson said. "As I examined this position, I found it to be one which requires a high level of public service, one in which an individual can help others. My goal of office is to maintain the high level of service to which our citizens have become accustomed. Additionally, I would like to employ my leadership, interpersonal and administrative skills to continue leading out county in a positive direction."

JOHN KING JR., BONIFAY

MARSHA FARMER SHERROUSE, BONIFAY
Registered Democrat — Running No Party Affiliation

"I considered running four years ago, but knew it wasn't the right time," Sherrouse said. "When I heard that Cody was retiring, I felt that it would be the right time now. I love working in the judicial system, which I have been for over 12½ years. I feel that ... my work experience with the different agencies has helped me have a better understanding of how everything works together and the process and procedures, and ... my work experience of over 30 years in public service has helped me to know how to deal with people."

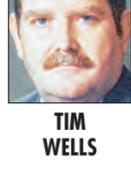

MARSHA SHERROUSE

Sherrouse said the clerk of court should be a person who is honest, accountable, has morals and principles and is a hard worker. "They have to treat people with respect, no matter who they are or what their circumstances may be.

"My work experience for over 30 years has been in some type of public service work," she said. "Much of my work experience has been related to the duties of the clerk of court."

TIM WELLS, BONIFAY
Registered Republican — Running with No Party Affiliation

"After being involved in the legal system for over 26 years, I know how vital the efficient operation of the clerk's office is," Wells said. "The office requires an experienced person, and I didn't see any other candidate who had the necessary background to handle the job."

TIM WELLS

Wells said in his 26 years as an attorney, he has handled most every type of case and matter that comes to the clerk's office.

"I've maintained a successful private law practice for over 22 years, including being a Florida Supreme Court certified mediator for over 15 years. My life's work is dealing with people. I listen to a client's concerns, answer their questions and use my best judgment to plot a course of action to solve their particular problem. I also deal with judges, clerk staff, opposing parties and opposing counsel on a daily basis," Wells said.

"A few years ago the housing market collapsed, bringing on the worst economic times that my generation has experienced," Felecia Fisanick said.

FELECIA FISANICK

"Homes that had property values in the hundreds of thousands of dollars are now worth about half that. As property values rose, so did our taxes, but as they crashed, did our taxes fall with them? One of the questions that many of you have asked is why this happened, and why haven't our taxes been lowered to meet the fallen property values.

"I want answers just as you the people of Holmes County do," she said. "I understand that the state has laws that must be adhered to, and I feel confident that we can follow those laws while still fighting for you and looking out for the best interest of the local tax payer."

"If elected, I will make sure the property appraiser's office will be one that you will be comfortable visiting while taking care of business," Fisanick said in a news release.

Pilots for Christ celebrate 1,000th flight

By CECILIA SPEARS
547-9414 | @WCN_HCT
cspears@chipleypaper.com

"Today, we celebrate our 1,000th flight," said Fred Kelley, Chaplain for Pilots for Christ.

"It is truly a miles stone that relates to over five million dollars in aircraft and pilot log time. We believe this demonstrates the best of the American Spirit; it also represents a Blessing, that we ask God to help us as we fly, and to this date we have never had any type of in-flight problem."

Pilots For Christ International is a non-denominational, non-profit organization of pilots and aviation enthusiasts, "dedicated to the promotion of the Gospel through aviation and necessary ground transportation."

According to the history of Pilots for Christ at www.

pilotsforchrist.org, the Rev. William "Bill" Starrs of Parkesburg, Penn., was led to organize Pilots For Christ International.

"It is the very nature of pilots to be more than dedicated to their love of flying. Sometimes they have a tendency to let it dominate their lives. This frequently leads to the Lord taking a back seat, and this was happening to Reverend Starrs. Realizing this, Bill began praying that the Lord would show him the way to re-channel this love of flying to a greater love of God," according to the website.

Starrs decided to take the pilots' enthusiasm and use it in the Lord's work. Airplanes had been used in missionary work for some time, but usually as only a means to reach areas without adequate transportation systems or to enable missionaries to cover more territory. "He then mailed out 4,000 invitations to pilots in the state of Pennsylvania to join 'Pilots For Christ.' The results of this invitation were very disappointing. So he took out an ad in a flying publication with national circulation, continued to pray, and things began to happen. 'Pilots For Christ' was then born in January of 1985."

Kelley explained that the Alabama Chapter of PFC was founded more than 17 years ago by a group of mission minded pilots in Monroeville, Ala., who "wanted to use their love of flying to help transport patients who needed time critical transportation to far away hospitals."

"The remarkable part is, we really started 'On a Wing and a Prayer,' where the concept was to make a move on faith that if we did the mission flights, the money would come back in to help pay for the fuel in the planes," said Kelley. "The aircraft and pilot time are all donated, but we try to raise funds through our not for profit 501C3 charity status to pay for the fuel. Remarkably, those pilots pooled their own funds and just starting flying patients."

The majority of their flights are to MD Anderson Cancer Treatment Center in Houston, Texas, Kelley explained.

"We have also flown many children to St Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis, Tn," he said. "The Alabama Chapter is blessed to have larger planes with very experienced pilots who can make those longer trips when necessary. I have actually seen the sun come up over the everglades and transported a Catholic Priest home to Chicago after a stroke, and still made it back home to the Monroe County Airport before dark; what a Day!"

He also said they have a record of never being late on an arrival or departure in 17 years.

"Now that is a hard one for even the airlines to beat," said Kelley.

They are now in need of their own airplane.

"We are hoping that someone reading this article will be led to help make this happen," said Kelley. "Maybe a phone call, or offer up a prayer. We have the hanger, we have the pilots and experience, we just need a plane with PFC on the tail."

Be sure, your sin will find you out

Rev. James L. Snyder

I forgot to put gas in my car again this past week for the umpteenth time. The last time it happened, I promised myself it would never happen again, as long as I lived. So much for my promises.

I found myself stranded at the neighborhood grocery store. I meant to put gas in my car, honest I did. Somehow, it slipped my mind.

I do not mind things slipping my mind if they are not important, and if it does not involve the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage. Unfortunately for me, this did.

I don't mind lectures from my Beloved, if I could sometimes pick the topic.

Topics like religion and politics would be a nice change.

Her topic, which she never tires of, is my forgetfulness. At least I can't remember any other topic at the moment.

My car was definitely out of gas and I was going nowhere in it. My only recourse was to walk across the street to the store, and call my wife to come and bail me out of trouble.

Every husband knows how difficult this is because we have to do it so often. I went to the phone booth in the store and made "the call." Then I went and took a seat to wait for her arrival.

As I was waiting, I noticed an elderly gentleman come into the store. I call him a gentleman, but these days, who knows?

This man walked into the store as if he was concerned about being followed. Every few steps he threw a glance over his shoulder as if someone was stalking him.

Since I did not have anything to do for the next 20 minutes, I settled back to watch. When he got into the store, he cautiously walked around the store as if casing it.

So many stores are being robbed; I didn't know if this man was planning to pull off a heist. My interest piqued, which kept my mind off the trouble I was in with my wife when she arrived to pick me up.

When a person is in trouble, it is always a good thing to try to take one's mind off said trouble, and on someone who might be in more trouble than you are at the moment. At least, that's what I told myself at the time.

When a person is facing trouble, he will say anything to himself to calm those jagged nerves.

The man walked around the store several times, always glancing over his shoulder as if he expected something to happen.

As far as I could tell, he was an ordinary man with no special features. He walked with a slow shuffle, but that's to be expected when a man's body ages.

I saw him stand over against a corner for several minutes while he intently watched the front door. A little spooked by this time, I did not know if I should alert the manager or call the police.

I envisioned the headlines in the newspapers the next day: "Local pastor dies a hero's death in the crossfire." I sure would like to be a hero, but only in my own mind.

This hero business can be a little dangerous, so I was in a quandary.

In scanning the gentleman as best I could, I knew he could not have a large weapon on his person. The loose fitting shirt revealed no bomb strapped to his chest, which was a little comforting.

Then the gentleman began to move and I froze. My life flashed before me in an instant — which bored me almost to death. I never want to experience anything like that ever again.

My focus once again went to the gentleman in motion. What was he going to do? Gradually he eased up to the bakery department.

I almost stood, but at my height, I would be an easy target. It's hard for anyone to miss a barn door, especially one with a flashy smile.

I braced myself for what would happen next. Then it happened. The elderly gentleman, with one last glance over his shoulder, bought a chocolate éclair.

I was confused — relieved — but confused. What was all the secrecy about?

About this time, I saw him slither toward the bench where I was sitting. Without looking at me, the man sank into the corner as though hiding from someone.

He sat there for a few minutes and then he opened his bag with the éclair. Just as he took his first bite, someone recognized him, came up and said, "Henry, is that a chocolate éclair you're eating?"

He glanced at me and gave me one of those sick smiles that every husband recognizes. No matter how hard you try to keep something (like éclairs) from your wife, it is impossible.

There is a spiritual lesson here. No matter how hard you try to hide your sin, somewhere, somehow, when you least expect it, someone will see you.

An Old Testament scripture lays down an important principle in this regard. "But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord: and be sure your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23 KJV.)

David, the Psalmist, knew this and wrote, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." (Psalm 139:23-24 KJV.)

Live your life as though someone was watching you, because, Someone is watching you.

On Growing UP

What does it mean to "grow up" and become an adult? This is certainly not an easy question to answer, although we usually know it when adulthood is lacking and someone is acting childish. There is a lot of growing up required of us nowadays and thus adulthood is being delayed by an extended period of adolescence. This leaves us with lots of twenty- and thirty-year-old individuals who are living at home and taking on very few if any of the responsibilities of adults. To act as an adult first and foremost means to be responsible for one's actions and one's life and to stop expecting other people to take care of you. It also entails taking responsibility for where one is in life and refusing to blame our parents, teachers, or others for our lack of success.

"When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me." 1 Corinthians 13: 11

At some point, we all have to grow up and realize that our life is OURS and no one else's, and however much others may have contributed to it, only we can shape our own lives. Whether this is always true is debatable; parents and teachers do have an impact on children and the adults they will become. But, it is best for each of us to take responsibility for our own lives and start acting and believing as if we are the masters of our own fates. Perhaps that is what it really means to be grown up: to strive to mold and fashion our own lives and to live by our own standards and ideals. And, to do it with the faith of one who takes complete responsibility for every aspect of his or her existence.

What do companies like Southwest Airlines, Ritz-Carlton, and Zappos have in common? They hire for attitude and train for skill.

It's a simple mantra, but one that has a profound effect on how to successfully recruit and select new employees.

Prioritizing soft skills

During their hiring process, these companies weigh "attitudinal" characteristics very heavily.

These are personal attributes that it's difficult to train employees on — such as being a people-person, having an upbeat personality, or possessing a keen ability to learn new things.

While these firms won't ignore technical skills (Southwest doesn't put unqualified pilots in the cockpit, no matter how bright and cheery they are) they nonetheless look very carefully at these soft skills.

These companies gain a lot from this hiring strategy. By focusing on attitudinal characteristics that align with their company brand, these companies reinforce their company culture with each hire.

And because they're hiring people whose values align with that culture, the end result is a workforce that's happier, more engaged and less likely to turn over.

But the benefits of this hiring process don't stop there. When a workforce embodies the company brand (think how Southwest employees exude "fun"), it differentiates the customer experience where it counts most — in consumers' one-on-one interactions with your staff.

Steps to hiring for attitude

So how should you go about hiring for attitude, seeding your workforce with true brand ambassadors? You could run your applicants through personality tests and behavioral assessments — but that can be pricey, time-consuming, and onerous for the candidates.

Fortunately, there are other approaches you can employ to put this strategy in practice. Here are five ways to hire for attitude:

1. Be clear about expectations.

Take advantage of candidate self-selection by clearly broadcasting what qualities you look for when hiring staff.

For example, if you tell the world that you're in the market for extroverts — fewer introverts will apply (and that's a good outcome for you and them).

By defining what personal qualities you're searching for up-front, you make it more likely that candidates with those attributes will throw their hats into the ring.

2. Be proactive.

Don't just wait for people with the right attitude to apply for a job — spot them in the marketplace and make your pitch!

When you see someone who clearly embodies the qualities you want on your team, give them your card and invite them to apply for employment.

3. Focus on the person behind the paper.

Gauging attitude from a resume requires insight and vision. Consider how the personal qualities you seek would manifest themselves in a candidate's resume and background.

For example, individuals who are adept at overcoming adversity might have demonstrated that spirit in how they responded to a layoff. People-oriented extroverts might belong to a variety of business associations and community groups. Skilled communicators likely will design and organize their resume content in exceptional ways.

In addition, your interview questions also can reveal attitudinal characteristics. Looking for someone with customer service in their DNA? Ask about the most over-the-top service they ever delivered (the best service people never forget such stories).

Looking for someone with a sense of humor? Ask them about the time they laughed the hardest.

Whatever attitude you seek to hire, the key is to look beyond the words on the resume and search for more subtle clues about a candidate's character.

4. Observe applicants when they think no one is watching.

Want to see a candidate's true colors? Then see how they behave when they think no one is watching.

How did the applicant treat your receptionist? Did he strike up conversation with other applicants in the waiting room? Did he eat alone in the cafeteria or introduce himself to a table of strangers?

What the candidate says and does outside of the hiring manager's view can give you a glimpse into their true personality. Use these clues to help judge if the applicant will be a good fit for your company.

5. Enlist today's stars to spot tomorrow's standouts.

Toward the end of the hiring process, see if it's possible to have your job finalists spend some time shadowing existing employees.

This serves two objectives. First, candidates get an unfiltered look at the job they would be performing, so there's less chance of unpleasant surprises and post-hire buyers' remorse.

Second, by pairing these finalists with the best employees (the ones who embody the desired attitude), your staff can help identify those applicants who have the right stuff.

Hiring for attitude is about building a distinctive workplace culture and company brand that, unlike skill sets, can't be easily copied in the market. It's what gives Southwest Airlines, Ritz-Carlton and Zappos their unique character — and competitive advantage.

Follow the lead of these legendary firms as you look to recruit great candidates.
