HOLMES COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

Lights coming to Poplar Springs field

By CECILIA SPEARS

cspears@chipleypaper.com

BONIFAY — The Holmes County District School Board approved $74,000 for the lighting of Poplar Springs High School's ball field during the school board's Oct. 15 meeting.

"There will be five concrete light poles installed with half of the work being done by ourselves," Superintendent Eddie Dixon said. "They are the only athletic field left in Holmes County that doesn't have lights."

Board approved of K12 Florida Online Service Agreement and approved of Edgenuity Online Service Agreement with a vote of 4 to 1, with school board member Debbie Kolmetz voting "no."

"Our school board doesn't need to be involved in the Edgenuity online school when we already have K12 and Florida Virtural School in place that is doing a great job," Kolmetz said.

Kolmetz inquired about the online program and about the results.

"It's video courses taken by students kindergarten through 12th grade," Dixon said. "Some take it during school, some after school and some home-schoolers come and take courses. It's small now, but we're hoping it will grow in the future."

Kolmetz made a motion that audio recordings of the Holmes County District School Board meetings be made available to listen to online, which died because of lack of second.

Kolmetz also made a motion that the certification of recommended personnel be added to the list of recommended personnel before votes, which also died because of lack of second.

"I just want to know who we're voting for," Kolmetz said.

Teacher charged after paddling handicapped student

From Staff Reports

BONIFAY — Deputies arrested a Ponce de Leon teacher for paddling a 5-year-old handicapped student on Oct. 11, according to a news release from the Holmes County Sheriff's Office.

RYAN LEAVINS

Ryan Leavins, 39, of Ponce de Leon was charged with child abuse. Leavins was a teacher at Ponce de Leon Elementary School.

The investigation started on Sept. 4 when the sheriff's office received a report of an alleged child abuse at the Ponce de Leon Elementary School.

Police discovered that Leavins had paddled a 5-year-old handicapped student, resulting in bruising to the child's bottom.

Leavins admitted to spanking the child after the child became unruly in class, according to the release.

"The safety and security of our students is our highest priority," Superintendent Eddie Dixon said on Wednesday.

Resident shares history through Civil War-era cannonball

By CECILIA SPEARS
547-9414 | @WCN_HCT
cspears@chipleypaper.com

BONIFAY — Longtime Bonifay resident Ben Holland, who lived in the area of town known to older generations as Pepper Town, has been sharing his cannonball story with generations of local residents — as well as anyone who he can take a picture with.

"I've taken pictures with senators, singers and undertakers," Holland said. "That cannonball's been around."

Holland explained that he applied for and received a building permit for $38 in 1974 to start building his house, and while building the footer for the home, he came across the Civil War era cannonball.

"I took it straight to the Piggly Wiggly and had it weighed, which was weighed at exactly 12 pounds," he said. "We measured it at 13 and a half inches around."

Holland has a hobby of collecting photos, and finding of the cannonball tied in with his love of photography. So over the years, he has been taking pictures of the cannonball with various people at various places.

"I don't know how it got there, but I know where it's going, and it's going around," Holland said. "I've had pictures taken with beautiful women and senators. I even have a picture of Robert Sikes, who was a representative for Florida and Herbert Peel, the undertaker. It's going around, and I intend it to keep going around until its time for it to come home."

He said it was a proud piece of history from Pepper Town.

"This goes back to when the county seat was in Noma and the only post office was in Caryville," Holland said.

Remembering Otto Bylsma

By CECILIA SPEARS
547-9414 | @WCN_HCT
cspears@chipleypaper.com

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES-ADVERTISER

Otto Bylsma immigrated to the U.S. from Germany in 1951, settling in Lynn Haven where the family purchased a dairy farm.

BONIFAY — As Oct. 13 marked the 62nd anniversary of Elka Mosier's family's arrival in America, Mosier recalls that it was all on the broad shoulders of her father, Otto Bylsma, and the lengths he would go to make sure his family was healthy, happy and safe.

"He was always such a hard worker," Mosier said. "He worked all the time. I am proud of him, that he came all the way to the United States to provide for his family and to do so without government assistance."

On Oct. 13, 1951, the Bylsma family arrived in the United States by ship after a long and arduous journey from Germany.

"Father used to tell us about how when he was working as a butcher in Germany the Nazis would come and take his animals for their troops," Mosier said. "Sometimes the farmers would hide animals, and my father would butcher it, but it was always dangerous because if the Nazis found it, they would have my father killed."

Mosier recalled Germany during a time when they lost three homes because of bombings and going to bed unable to sleep because of hunger and fear.

It was because of their uncles, Frank and Albert Bylsma, that Mosier's family was able to come to America.

Frank and Albert Bylsma had immigrated into America in 1930 and sent money and vouchers of their care so that Mosier's family could follow.

"We lived in New Jersey for two years, and then we came to Lynn Haven, where my uncles were living at the time," Mosier said. "On May 1, 1953, my father bought the dairy farm here in Bonifay."

She said when they bought the farm, there were 16 cows, and it soon grew to where the children were milking 56 cows every morning before school.

"We had a good life," Mosier said. "We worked hard, but then again hard work never killed anyone. What I remember most was us singing as a family as we milked the cows every morning."

The dairy farm is now owned and operated by Mosier, who said it is only because of her father and the freedom found in America that she is able to have the life she says she holds so dear.

"In 1991, the 911 office came and requested that we submit a name for the road we lived on, and I was able to honor my father by naming it after him," she said. "It took signatures, but it was agreed on. And no one opposed, so the road was named after my father, who did all he could to make sure we had a better life for us, our children and our grandchildren in this beautiful and free country."

"I made the motion that all personnel recommendations on our agenda will show the person's qualifications, such as experience, degrees, and/or certifications, so that we as board members will know more about who we are voting for," Kolmetz said.

Chairman Rusty Williams commended Dixon on receiving his certification as superintendent of Holmes County Schools.

"We commend him on expanding his education, becoming certified and strengthening not only the board but the county as a whole," Williams said. "I'd also like to say I stopped by Ponce de Leon High School, and I must say that the students are very enthusiastic. Their new agricultural teacher is outstanding with a great passion for his field, and he's got his students excited about working hard with agriculture."

School board member Shirley Owens gave a quick thanks to those parents who are involved in their children's school activities and studies.

The board approved of Ponce de Leon High School's Future Business Leaders of America attending the FBLA State Fall Conference on Nov. 1-3 in Sarasota.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Holmes County District School Board is set for 9 a.m. on Nov. 5.

"It is unfortunate that the situation occurred; however, it is important to note that the district is following standard procedure and board policy throughout this investigative process."

In accordance with state law, the case was turned over to the Department of Children and Families as well as the Holmes County Sheriff's Office for investigation, Dixon said. On Oct. 11, Dixon was notified of the formal charges brought against the employee, according to the release from the superintendent's office. The school district is engaged with legal counsel throughout this ongoing investigation.

According to the sheriff's office, Leavins said he asked the child repeatedly to calm down, then showed him the paddle, then took the child out of the classroom on three different occasions and spanked him a total of five times on the buttocks.

Based on the severity of the bruising, Leavins was charged with child abuse, according to the release. Leavins turned himself into custody and was released on his own recognizance.

Leavins was placed on paid administrative leave, pending an investigation into the incident, but Leavins submitted his resignation to the school board on Oct. 11, according to a news release from the superintendent's office. Leavins' resignation was accepted by the Holmes County School Board on Oct. 15.

CANNONBALL from page A1

"In 1944, they ran a line through here, and that was the start of Pepper Town. I helped build the laundry mat, the old convenience store next to it and the Piggly Wiggly across the street, and I love where I live. It's my castle."

Another effort he's making is to clean up and restore Liberty Hill Cemetery.

"I've been toting around canisters for donations, and I've even got an account set up at the First Federal Bank here in town," he said. "All I need is a riding mower and some weed eaters, and I've got someone with heavy equipment to clear out the road real nice."

He said he's moved to work on the cemetery because his father, mother and brother are there, and he also has a plot there.

"I've lived past them, and I've often asked God why, and then I know that I love to see people smile and I love to make them laugh," Holland said. "I've found that using that cannonball was a way to bring people and places together. Life's too short to be an old stick in the mud."

Letter to the EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Mr. Seyler has made a mistake in his recent coverage of a public hearing I was involved in.

He stated I had gone before the Zoning and Planning Commission initially to seek zoning changes. He is incorrect and needs to correct this mistake.

My original contact with the Zoning and Planning Commission was to ask two questions about the sale of beverages that contained alcohol. The first question was if AmVets could move to a piece of property zoned commercial and continue to sell malted beverages and wine for consumption on the property. Second, could they open on Sunday and do the same. He only has to request the audio/video of the meeting to validate my above statements. I was not present to ask for a zonning change. I was merely seeking clarification on the ordinances on this matter and giving a report to AmVets Post #7 prior to even looking at a potential piece of property.

This is a major oversight in my opinion. AmVets has no bearing or involvement in my complaints against the treatment I received and the violation of my civil rights under the ADA laws of the United States. I discussed this in length the first time Mr. Seyler reported on this meeting with the zoning and planning commission. That has always been my issue and continues to be my issue. In has nothing to do with zoning and planning in the sense of how a property is authorized to be used. When I was mistreated, my county commissioners did nothing to rectify the problem. Further, he failed to state that Commissioner Bush authorized an investigation by Mr. David Corbin and Mr. Chris Hyatt and they reported to him, as the president of the commission, I, in fact, had been mistreated and my ADA rights had been violated. That has always been the complaint and the story that should be told. A citizen was denied their civil rights as protected by the 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitutionaly elected officials did nothing to rectify the problem and continued to deny and block a disabled citizen access to his government and would not accommodate his ADA requests. This continues to take place to this day even after documentation has been provided to both the County Vet Representative, Chris Hyatt, and the County Attorney, Jeff Goodman P.A. so my disabilities could verified.

There were many things discussed at the public hearing and if you and Mr. Seyler would like to meet with me personally, I would be happy to do that. At the least, I think Mr. Seyler should retract the incorrect information and clarify the correct information.

In closing and again, this is not the first time Mr. Seyler and I have disagreed on events he has covered. However, I will continue to support the news outlet in this Chipley and Washington County due to my belief that without the News, politicians would never be held accountable for anything. I do request that Mr. Seyler take just a little more time and a little further research or merely ask me when the information pertains to me a and my statements.

Respectfully,
Miles A. Anderson

Jeep Sullivan's Outdoor Adventures

HAPPY CORNER
Hazel Wells Tison

The Jeep came to us in WWII as an all-terrain general purpose vehicle used by the military.

It enabled commanding officers to circulate among their men.

It enabled combat soldiers to get closer to enemy lines and escape more quickly.

It enabled messages to get transported from one unit to another without interception. It was a unique vehicle that has come to be an invaluable part of not only the military, but the general public as well.

In June, 2004, First Baptist Church Bonifay acquired a Jeep.

When I told my son-in-law, Orrin Webb from Charlotte County that we had called Jeep somebody from the Arcadia, Punta Gorda, Ft. Myers area to be our minister to senior adults and men, he replied, "not Jeep Sullivan!"

Indeed, that Jeep is the one we called.

Our Jeep is as unique as the vehicle whose name he bears.

He is first of all a God called individual committed to taking care of the needs of his church people.

But he is much more than that.

He has a great love for the outdoors, for hunting and fishing, and taking care of the environment.

Now he has embarked on an endeavor called Jeep Sullivan Outdoor Adventures, Inc., a non-profit venture, which will enable him to share his love of the outdoors with others.

This venture is primarily a ministry of getting handicapped, and especially wounded military, out on the waterways and woodlands of the country, though he is also committed to enabling people of all ages to enjoy the great outdoors with the use of the 16 foot airboat which he has especially outfitted for the purpose.

In his early years his love for hunting in the remote areas of southwest Florida brought him into conflict with the authorities as he was not always on the side of the law.

A serious accident during one such escapade threatened his life and kept him hospitalized for almost a year, where a doctor at Shands Hospital in Gainesville, took a chance and successfully saved his leg, that is another story.

The faith of a dying man showed Jeep his need for that kind of faith and he sought God after his hospital release. Later, surrendering to the gospel ministry he came to northwest Florida to attend what was then BBI and met his life mate, Meg Mitchell.

Now, Jeep uses his unique personality and outdoor interests to reach people, especially men, in unorthodox ways. He was invited to share some of his ministry ideas at the Florida Baptist Convention. Some of the activities he described he had initiated at Bonifay First Baptist are fishing excursions in and out of state, archery tournaments, turkey/skeet shoots, hunter safety instruction, hog, turkey, antelope and deer hunting out west with a senior adult man and a wheel-chair bound man.

Jeep's friendship with "Wounded Warrior" Carter Hess, veteran of the Afghanistan war, and also with AF Pilot Craig Dye, has resulted in officials at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington D.C. taking notice of the value of getting combat wounded military personnel out to participating in hunting, fishing, and boating the waterways and woodlands.

Jeep and his wife Meg have long held licenses to hunt and capture alligators. He has now purchased the air boat which he will use in his after-hours business.

Last week, the first pair of wounded warriors and their liaison flew into Marianna Airport and enjoyed 3 days of hog hunting on Hard Labor Creek Plantation and Shooting Sports and in the Sand Hills Lakes of Washington County, gator hunting and bow fishing in Bay County, and hog hunting in northwest Holmes County.

Instead of vegetating in an army hospital playing video games or cards or staring at the four walls, the Army will continue to fly selected injured combat troops to TriCounty Airport in Holmes County.

Whether they have lost an arm or a leg as State Attorney Glen Hess' son, or some other injury, getting back to participating in "normal" activities is invaluable in their healing and rehabilitation Jeep Sullivan is committed to being a part of speeding that process using his own deep-seated interest and love for the outdoors and the environment and his commitment to God.

His new venture has been featured in Real Florida Magazine published by Paul Goulding Agency.

The non-profit venture is sponsored by Chipley Gun and Pawn, and other unnamed individuals.

The scope of this venture is limitless as people discover the beauty of the unspoiled northwest Florida rivers, lakes, and forests. Tours are not limited to amputees and paraplegics, but families are also encouraged to experience the wonders of nature so that they may develop more appreciation for the natural world and be better stewards of what God has provided for us.

Dollar General brings back memories of previous residents

PERRY'S PRATTLE
Perry Wells

Last week's prattle mentioned the multitudes of families that failed to submit family stories, or histories, for the "Heritage of Washington County" book released in late June of 2006.

It has been more than seven years since the first printing of publication, with a fourth printing of 200 additional books arriving on Aug. 13, 2012.

This last printing is approaching an unbelievable sell-out with calls coming almost every week asking for the book.

With the completion, and the grand opening of the attractive new Dollar General store on East Highway 90 held on Oct. 12, the writer's mind went to three families who either lived or operated a business on the very property where this beautiful store is now situated.

News releases early in the planning and permitting stage of allowing this new building at this particular location listed Perry and Hester Wells as owners of five of the building lots included in the proposed purchase. Jay Patel and wife, Daksa, owned the remaining lots under consideration for the mammoth project.

The three lots fronting U. S. 90 East, owned by the Welles since 1988, seems to be the exact location of the store and its huge parking lot. That parcel was purchased from the estate of Cora Lee Kent, a widow, who died two years earlier. Her heirs, residing in California had contacted local attorney, Wayne Braxton, to proceed with Probating the Estate.

All legalities had been completed and an appraisal as to the price of the three lots was set by the court before we even knew the property was for sale. We became the owner of the three lots, which included a three bedroom frame home complete with an attached garage where this lady kept her trusted 1959 Chevrolet Sedan. Our son, Emory, and family occupied the home. Our first grand daughter, Courtney Elyse Wells, was born while they lived there.

After they purchased their own home, we sold the house and garage, to be moved, to a couple named Potter, natives of the Red Head community. He had just retired from a job in Panama City and placed his purchase on property he had owned in his home area for a number of years.

Two lots on the northwest corner of the parcel came to us from my brother, Max and wife, Joyce, who acquired the property from Hubert Prescott, who bought, processed and sold many different animal hides from local resident for many years. While operating the FRM Feed and Seed Store in Chipley, Max added lime and fertilizer spreading service to the business.

The storage bins for this product was built on the former Prescott property. The portion of the property held by the Patels came to them from the Wilburn and Erma Lee Gainey Family, along with their son, Harold Gainey. It is the Prattler's intention to pay tribute to those early owners in future columns.

The owner of that piece of ground, Cora Lee Kent, probably lived there after the death of her husband, Luther Kent, who died Sept. 13, 1935. His date of birth was May 21, 1901. His parents' names are not known. Marriage Records in Washington County show this couple was married on Sept. 21, 1919. He is buried at Rock Hill Methodist Church Cemetery in Washington County.

Upon Cora Lee's death on Oct. 12, 1986, she, too, was interred at Rock Hill on Oct. 14. She was born on Oct. 2, 1902. The limited information contained in the funeral files of Blackburn Funeral Home, who conducted the funeral service, lists her father as Charles Hicks and the mother as Julia Atwell Hicks. She died in the National Health Care Center in Panama City, where her physician was Dr. Ernest Hasham.

Her four sisters are listed as Annie Curlee, Pensacola, Francis Coussin, Haines City, Lucille Locke, Orange Hill and Odell Morris, Chipley.

The Rev. James W. Morris conducted the funeral service in the chapel of Blackburn Funeral Home. The recorded music used in the funeral tribute were "Precious Memories" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Pallbearers named were Charles Morris, Butch Locke, Carl Burgess, Greg Brannon and Leonard Hutchins.

Cora Kent and Luther Kent only had one son, according to the scant records. His name was Luther Earl (Bill) Kent, who reportedly entered the U. S. Navy in 1941. He was a Chief Petty Officer when he was accidentally killed in Hawaii, at age 34, when he fell from a scaffold.

From the funeral files, we learn that the body was flown from Hawaii to San Diego where funeral services and burial were held with full Military Honors. The mother, Cora Kent, is reported to have attended the service in California.

A newspaper obituary listed his survivors as wife, Jeannette C. Kent. The two granddaughters are Barbara Kline and Judith Moore. The two great-grandsons are Michael Moore and Steven Moore. Three great-granddaughters are Karen Kirkum, Tammy Kline and Linda Corrillo. Two great-great-grandchildren are Lisa Maria Kirkum and Robert Kirkum. The deceased's grandmother is given as Mrs. Julia Hicks of Route One Chipley.

The writer knew Mrs. Cora Lee Kent as a customer in the Sears Roebuck and Company Catalog Store, the business which brought the Wells Family to Chipley in early 1970. It has been stated that her home was original a log house and was remodeled, leaving the log portion intact. Someone along the way had provided pecan and fig trees as well as flowers and shrubs to adorn the yard.

After the property was vacant, Hester, moved a beautiful, old time rose bush, which produced an abundance of red roses and was set inside an old automobile tire. This treasured rose bush is filled with beautiful red roses, thanks to our neighbors, Glenda Scott and niece, Kristen, who gives it much nutrients and water.

See you all next week.

NFCH to offer stroke victim care with telemedicine

By RANDAL SEYLER

rseyler@chipleypaper.com

CHIPLEY — Northwest Florida Community Hospital is teaming up with Gulf Coast Medical Center to offer area stroke victims a faster treatment option through the use of telemedicine and robots.

Andy Long, director of neuroscience and telehealth services with Gulf Coast Medical Center in Panama City, and Daniel Dunlap, hospital outreach director with Hospital Corporation of America in Tallahassee, met with the NFCH Board of Directors on Oct. 15 to explain the program, which will allow neurologists in Panama City to interact with and treat stroke victims brought to the Chipley hospital.

"There isn't anywhere in the stretch along Interstate 10 from Tallahassee to Pensacola that offers stroke care, which means stroke victims from Jackson, Holmes or Washington counties have to be taken to Panama City, a 50-minute trip," Dunlap told the board,

The treatment of strokes is very time-sensitive, with brain function lost by the minute during the attack. The sooner a patient can get seen by a neurologist and prescribed the clot-busting drugs called thrombolytics needed to treat strokes, the better the patient outcome will be, Dunlap said.

Despite the effectiveness of the thrombolytics, many patients are not treated because of late arrival at the emergency room, a delay in assessment or administration of the drug, Long said. According to a 2012 article, 41.7 percent of stroke patients had brain imaging within 25 minutes of their arrival for treatment.

"Stroke is the leading cause of disability in adults, and every four minutes, someone dies of a stroke," Long said. "Strokes can and do occur at any age, and nearly one quarter of strokes occur in patients under the age of 65."

Currently, Gulf Coast Medical Center is the nearest facility with Joint Commission Disease-Specific Certification in primary stroke care. Through the Hospital Corporation of America Telemedicine Initiative, which will allow the neurology staff of GCMC to treat patients in Chipley using Cloud-based Internet technology, patients from the tri-county area can be brought to the ER at Northwest Florida Community Hospital and begin receiving their treatment much sooner.

Hospital Corporation of America is the country's largest non-governmental health care system with 162 hospitals and 113 ambulatory surgery centers. HCA is also the parent company of Gulf Coast Medical Center.

HCA facilities are responsible for 4 to 5 percent of all inpatient care delivered in the U.S. today and has operations in 20 states and England with about 199,000 employees, Long said.

The North Florida Division of HCA has 16 hospitals in north Florida and south Georgia, five ambulatory surgery centers, seven urgent care locations, two freestanding emergency departments, five radiology oncology centers, four diagnostic imaging centers, more than 50 physician practice locations and 19,000 employees.

The HCA Telemedicine Initiative will allow 24/7 access to neurology and neurosurgery coverage and will increase the volume of care delivered locally, Long said.

The telemedicine network is also being offered to NFCH at no charge, Long said. "The purpose of the program is to not only save money for the hospitals participating, but to ultimately lower the cost of health care.

"The goal of the HCA Telemedicine Initiative is to develop a regional network that increases the ability of specialized physicians to consult, triage and diagnosis critically ill neurological patients in underserved areas by leveraging the technology of telemedicine to keep patients close to home when possible," Long said.

The telemedicine network is administered by InTouch Health, Long said.

InTouch Health offers the industry's only complete end-to-end products and service solution specifically designed to facilitate improvements in patient care and increase hospital revenue in acute care settings, according to the company website, www.intouchhealth.com.

Long said InTouch Health's experience provides the insight required to overcome the technical, program and implementation challenges faced when creating a telemedicine program, and the company has a track record in creating sustainable programs for customers.

The robots use feature screens on which the patient sees the consulting doctor and the doctor sees the patient at their end of the computer. The robots come in different formats, and they are able to access data directly from the patient, even being able to "listen" to a stethoscope, Long said.

The model of robot NFCH might receive is called RP-Lite. The robot "provides a convenient, cost-effective moveable platform for delivering state-of-the-art remote presence capabilities across a broad array of locations supported by InTouch Health's comprehensive connective services and support," according to the InTouch website.

Features of the RP-Lite include a Pan-Tilt-Zoom camera system that optimizes viewing of patients and others; immersive, directional audio modes improve clarity in hospital settings; dual-purpose workstation can be used for data entry while physicians are logged on; and accessories include a stethoscope kit, privacy headset and composite video port.

The RP-Lite looks like a flat screen TV attached to a portable X-ray machine stand. The RP-VITA robot, however, another of the InTouch telemedicine robots, looks like something from Star Wars and has autodrive capabilities that allow it to safely navigate and travel to selected destinations without requiring user guidance.

The telemedicine network is Cloud-based and runs on a fiberoptic networks, Long said. According to the InTouch website, The SureCONNECT program maintains reliable connections and is secure. The program has FDA clearance and meets HIPAA compliance requirements.

"The system also pings your robot every two minutes to make sure it is functioning," Long said. "There is no use in having this technology if the batteries go dead or it isn't working when you need it."

Dunlap said it will take about 60 days to get the telemedicine system online and get the training completed for the NFCH staff.

"We should be up and running by the end of the year," Dunlap said.

One of the most important aspects of the program is to educate the public and the area Emergency Medical Services about the stroke telemedicine program so they know to bring patients to NFCH for treatment.

The acronym FAST is used in educating the public on the symptoms of a stroke. FAST stands for Facial drooping, Arm weakness, Slurred speech and Time — time to call 911.

"Educating the public is a key factor," Long said. "Too often, people will just go lay down, thinking they are going to feel better, but then it is too late."

South Walton holds back Holmes County in shootout

By TINA HARBUCK
Halifax Media Group

BONIFAY — The South Walton Seahawks offense scored and scored often to spoil the Holmes County Blue Devils Homecoming with a 55-40 District 3-1A victory on Friday night.

"The difference was the offense," said South Walton Coach Phil Tisa. "We just continued to score."

South Walton junior quarterback Johnathon Ortner put up some stellar numbers completing 21 of 39 passes for 405 yards and four touchdowns.

Junior Alex Smith was on the receiving end of two of those TD tosses, the first a 61-yard strike in the first half and a 67-yarder in the second half.

Vinnie Ciurleo had a 25-yard touchdown catch and Zach Lance had the other TD, a 23-yarder in the fourth quarter.

Not only did the Seahawks get the job done through the air, but also on the ground rolling up 236 yards.

Senior running back Zach Reese was the workhorse with 141 yards in 19 carries, including a 44 yard touchdown run.

Ortner rushed 14 times for 66 yards, and the first TD of the game on a 29-yard scamper right up the middle.

The Blue Devils had their best output of the season in scoring 40 points, all of its touchdowns by junior tailback Chad Leavins. Leavins rushed 28 times for 349 yards and five rushing touchdowns.

He also had a 54-yard TD reception.

South Walton scored on its first two possessions with Ortner scoring on a 29-yard run and then hitting Ciurleo for the second TD and a 14-0 lead.

Holmes County answered with Leavins' first touchdown. Midway through the second quarter, South Walton put together a 13-play drive with Chandler Parrett scoring on a 2-yard run.

Parrett scored again on a 3-yard run late in the game.

The Seahawks scored again on a 61-yard strike from Ortner to Smith to take a 28-7 lead with less than 3 minutes to go in the first half.

Holmes opened the second half with a 14-yard scoring run by Leavins.

South Walton fumbled the ball on its first possession and the Blue Devils scored two plays later on a 41-yard run by Leavins to make it 28-20.

The Seahawks came right back with an eight-play scoring drive, but Holmes County struck again on a 54-yard pass from Cole Marell to Leavins.

In less than a minute, the Seahawks answered with a 44-yard TD run from Reese.

Both teams would score two more times each, with South Walton taking a 15-point lead and running out the clock.

Vernon downs Graceville in district play Silas wins game with 89-yard punt return

By RANDAL SEYLER

rseyler@chipleypaper.com

VERNON — The Vernon Yellow Jackets pulled out a conference win in the last minute Friday night when senior Julian Silas returned a put 89-yards to break a 7-7 tie with 59 seconds left to play against district rival Graceville Tigers.

The Yellow Jackets (4-3) remained undefeated 2-0 in conference play in their last home game of the season.

With the loss, Graceville falls to 4-4, 1-2 in district play.

The Tigers took the lead early in the first quarter when Jared Padgett scrambled 45 yards to score, capping a 72-yard, 4-play drive.

Bryce Jowers' kick was good for the extra point and Graceville had a 7-0 lead, which they held until the third quarter.

Vernon sophomore quarterback Tristan Porter called his own number and ran 56 yards to score on a sweep with 6:10 left in the third.

Senior Aaron Bowers' kick was good and the score was tied 7-7.

As the final minutes of the fourth quarter waned, it looked like overtime was a sure thing, then a short-lived Graceville possession that netted only two yards on four plays ended with a punt and just over a minute left to play.

Silas had dropped back for the punt return and it fell right in his lap at the Vernon 11-yard line.

Silas began running and dodging, nearly being forced out of bounds near the Graceville 45 before he slipped a pair of Tiger defenders and cut back toward the south edge of the field, where he was able to outrun another handful of Tigers on his way to his 89-yard return.

Graceville fielded the kickoff at their own 35, and were able to milk four tries out of the remaining time, thanks to four incomplete passes, but were not able to get past the line of scrimmage.

The Yellow Jackets took back over on downs at the Tigers' 35-yard line with 38 seconds left.

Porter took a knee and that was the end.

Vernon travels to Wewahitchka for conference play next Friday.

Blountstown rallies past Chipley

Tigers' rival clinches District 3-1A title

By BRAD MILNER

bmilner@pcnh.com

CHIPLEY — Blountstown's biggest challenge in weeks couldn't keep the Tigers from securing a district championship Friday.

Chipley didn't make it easy, however.

Blountstown rallied with two fourth-quarter touchdowns to edge homestanding Chipley 14-13. Blountstown locked up the District 3-1A championship with the win, coupled with a South Walton victory over Holmes County also Friday. Chipley has a chore to advance to the postseason after falling to 0-2 in the district with two games to play against Bozeman and Holmes County.

"We talked about holding our destiny in our own hands," Blountstown coach Greg Jordan said. "Our kids kept fighting and they have a good football team. This was a battle."

It took a 69-yard passing score from Hunter Jordan to Corin Peterson midway through the fourth quarter to provide Blountstown's first lead of the game. Andrew Bennett's extra point capped the scoring.

Jordan cut the deficit to 13-7 with a 1-yard plunge to cap an 80-yard drive two minutes earlier. Blountstown had 232 yards of offense in the second half after being held to 72 in the opening 24 minutes. Blountstown's championship-caliber defense did the rest.

Chipley had only 3 yards on four drives in the second half. Chipley running back Kobe McCrary was limited to 35 yards on 13 carries.

"They were getting their hands on up front and we couldn't get into a rhythm," Chipley coach Chip Harris said. "We missed some opportunities in the first half but our kids played with every ounce of energy they had left."

Top-ranked Blountstown overcame three turnovers, including two inside the 10-yard line, in remaining unbeaten at 8-0 overall and 3-0 in the district. The third turnover, returned 95 yards for a touchdown by Adrian Sims, seemed like a backbreaker with 2:09 to play in the third. However, Blountstown quelled the momentum by stopping a direct-snapped 2-point conversion run to keep the deficit at 13-0.

Harris said he felt the play was at a good time with Blountstown on its heels. He also said Sims was tired after the jaunt with the freshman also kicking extra points.

"We ran that play a gazillion times and it worked," he said. "If I had it to do over again I would."

Chipley (4-3, 0-2) had the first half's best drive late in the second quarter. A 14-yard hook-and-ladder and a 17-yard connection between Jordan Finch and Zack Campbell set Chipley at the 11. McCrary ran the rest with two broken tackles for the only score in the first half.

Blountstown answered with a long kickoff return and five plays to advance to Chipley's 14 with 20 seconds to play in the half. Dylan Lee's pass was intercepted by Carlon Smith in the end zone for Blountstown's second turnover.

Blountstown was held to 72 total yards, including 30 on the ground, in the first half. Jordan had one completion and an interception on six attempts. He finished with 98 yards and two interceptions on four completions.

Chipley didn't churn the field either with 102 total yards, 71 of those coming on the scoring drive. Finch and Darren Stewart combined to go 3 of 9 for 24 yards in the first half. Finch finished 3 of 14.

Javakiel Brigham grinded out a team-high 53 yards rushing for Blountstown, which controlled the clock and the game in the second half.

"We know we'll win championships with defense," coach Jordan said. "This was big because if they had won I'm sure we would have been in a three-way tiebreaker after Week 11."

Instead, Blountstown has a chance to finish the district slate unbeaten with a game at Holmes County next week. Chipley is at Bozeman with each clinging to slim playoff hopes.

Blountstown's Javakiel Brigham led the Tigers with 53 rushing yards.

Right, Chipley's Kobe McCrary was limited to 35 yards on 13 carries.

Upon returning from their honeymoon, they discover that Austria has been invaded by the Nazis, who demand the captain's immediate service in their navy. # Seniors visit Branson, other Signature facilities

Special to Extra

SPECIAL TO EXTRA

Nell Atkinson and Ezell Johnson enjoyed a visit to Branson, Mo., recently, as part of a group visit by elders from Washington Rehabilitation and Nursing Center, who visited other Signature facilities in four states. The group included Ezell Johnson, Kim Potthoff, Nell Atkinson and Lisa Hood.

Elders from Washington Rehabilitation and Nursing Center recently vacationed in Branson, Mo., and visited 37 other Signature buildings from four states.

More than 71 elders and 90 stakeholders attended. Elders from Chipley saw six other Florida Signature buildings at Signature Heath Care of North Florida, Graceville, on Sept. 29. They traveled to Big Cedar Resort in Branson, where a welcoming committee waited with a special present for each elder. This four-day vacation has become an annual event that is sponsored by Signature Healthcare Corporation.

Washington Rehab and Nursing Centers elders Nell Atkinson and Ezell Johnson, along with staff members Kim Potthoff and Lisa Hood, enjoyed an open-air tram tour of Dogwood Canyon Nature Park and rode the Branson Scenic Railway.

"This sure is different from the short little train rides from Chipley to Bonifay I took as a child," Atkinson said.

The group also enjoyed a Chuckwagon Cookout. Transportation was provided by pontoon boat to the Chuckwagon campsite. Neither elder had ever seen the mountains, and they even commented that they never thought they would get to go there.

The last evening of the trip was spent consuming a barbecue dinner while professional dancers taught several country and western line dances and the Texas two-step. When asked about their most memorable moments, Johnson replied, "I think for me it was seeing so many different things I didn't expect to see." Atkinson replied, "It was having my favorite song, 'King of the Road,' dedicated and sang to me by the entertainer at the Buzzard Bar!"

Who would have thought that coming to the nursing home would guarantee so many opportunities to develop new friendships, see new sites and visit places they might not have had the opportunity to enjoy in the past?

Bonifay Book Club discusses 'American Ghost'

Special to Extra

BONIFAY — The Bonifay Book Club met at Los Rancheros on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 8.

Hostess for the meeting was Medea Callahan. Present at the meeting were Brenda Alford, Joyce Brannon, Cynthia Brooks, Medea Callahan, Barbara Howell, June Jones, Edna McDonald, Terri McCormick, Nancy Riley and DiAnn Shores. The minutes were approved as read by Secretary Alford.

Medea Callahan reviewed Janis Owens' book "American Ghost," published in 2012. Owens was raised in Marianna and Ocala. Owens' novel is based on the lynching of a black man that took place on the courthouse lawn in Marianna in 1934 — a lynching members of Owens' family actually witnessed. In Owens' novel, she changes the names of communities, people and other details as she weaves her story.

The lynching resonated for generations and seemingly haunted and cursed the town and its residents. The main character of the story is Jolie Hoyt, the daughter of a Pentecostal preacher living in small-town Florida. Disregarding her family's closet full of secrets and distrust of outsiders, she throws caution to the wind when she falls in love with Sam Lense, a Jewish anthropology student from Miami in town to study the Indian population. But their affair ends abruptly when Sam is discovered to have pried too deeply into the town's dark racial past, becoming the latest victim of violence.

Fried ice cream was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

What's in a name, anyway?

DR. JAMES L. SNYDER
Out to Pastor

I cannot express how ecstatic I was when someone gave me a coupon for a free donut. Normally, I am not overly excited about "free."

All I had to do was fill out a little survey online, and they would send me a code that would guarantee me a free donut. In my "daily diet diary," I have a whole section devoted to the subject that when a forbidden food is free it cancels out all calories.

When I first told the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage she looked at me rather strangely and said, "Who said that?"

I know we are both getting old, but we are not that old!

I got close to her, waved my hand so she could see me and said, "It's me. I just said it. Can you see me now?"

"That is not funny. You know exactly what I meant."

My grin drained from my face, and I said to her, "Well, I said it."

"Did," she said inquisitively, "anybody ever say that before you said it?"

My wife has many talents, skills and gifts. It would be difficult for me to say which is her best gift, but at the moment, her greatest skill is backing me into a corner. And in a corner I was thus backed.

I then had to explain to her, in detail, how this was an observation I worked through with much research. This is an original with me, and I am quite proud to be the author.

All she said was, "Huh, that is exactly what I thought."

I will go to my grave believing when a donut is free it means it is free of calories. Call it what you will, but free by any other name is still free in my personal dictionary.

Getting back to my free donut. I was anxious to get to the donut shop, cash in the coupon and enjoy a donut. I do not know when the best time to eat a donut is, so I just started at my convenience.

I got at the donut shop and walked in and the smell was overpowering. Nothing like the smell of donuts baking in the oven with a hint of coffee brewing in the background. I just stood there for a few seconds absorbing the luxury of this marvelous atmosphere. It is not often I can enjoy such luxuries, especially if my wife knows where I am.

When I became adjusted to the ambience, I walked up to the counter and presented my coupon for a free donut. It was at that moment I saw them.

I know I am not the most observant person at the circus. Many things get by me without noticing them. Sometimes I am just in deep thought and not aware of my surroundings. I can relate to Walter Mitty in many ways.

There they were, freshly baked apple fritters. I was stunned. It just never crossed my mind that a donut shop would have this kind of delicious tidbit. But there they were. Freshly baked and staring at me with alluring eyes of desire.

I do not know how much better a day can get than this. When I got up this morning, I did not realize this would be a wonderful day. There they were staring at me, and I staring back and immediately there was a connection.

Standing in lineb I could hardly wait for my turn to order. I presented my coupon for a free donut, and the young woman behind the counter said, "Which donut can I get for you, sir?"

I savored the moment, licked my drying lips and said, "I'll have an apple fritter." With that said, I sighed a deep sigh of true contentment.

"I'm sorry, sir," the young woman said.

"There is no need to be sorry, young lady," I said as cheerfully as I possibly could.

"No, sir, I'm sorry, but an apple fritter is not a donut."

I can take a joke as well as anybody else. In fact, I have put forth my share of jokes. However, an apple fritter is no joking matter.

"Excuse me," I said almost breathlessly.

"An apple fritter is not a donut, so what donut would you like me to get for you?"

The thought began unfolding in my mind at this point that she was not joking. She sincerely believed an apple fritter was not a donut. I know an apple fritter is among the Cadillac of donuts, but in my mind, it is still a donut.

I did not have much opportunity to set this young woman straight with one of the great fundamentals of life. I had to take one of her "free" donuts along with my coffee, go to a corner and think about these things. What good is "free" if it is not really what you want?

Sometimes people use the word "free" as a device to get you to a place where they can sell you something else.

The Bible is the only place I will accept a "free" offer. One particular verse sets this forth quite nicely. "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32 KJV)

This is often used out of context. The truth that makes us free indeed is none other than the truth about Jesus Christ. He is the only One capable of delivering something absolutely free.

As a child I remember watching the popular kids and wishing I could be like them. Now as an adult, I find myself looking at what others have to offer and wishing I could be like them. Because of this, I know I do not give all I can to the service of the Lord simply because I do not feel I have much to offer.

Then I met someone who taught me an important lesson. I saw him for the first time building new stairs at the church. He moved so fluidly I almost didn't notice his wheelchair. When I told him this, he laughed and said he didn't either.

The next few weeks I watched this man in awe as he built stairs, planted flowers and organized fund raisers for the youth group. I told my friend, "I wish I had all the talents you have." With a broad smile, he said, "I wish I could walk." Then he handed me a saw, and we built a new storage shed for the church. As a child I looked to others to find myself, now I know Christ has made me special and very necessary. They still use the shed today

Chipley JROTC holds rib sale

By S-5 C/2LT Justice Watford
Special to Extra

CHIPLEY — Chipley JROTC completed our 9th Annual BBQ Rib Sale. This year we doubled our sales goal on Oct. 11.

We owe this accomplishment to the hard work and dedication of our outstanding cadets and all who supported us. With help from our Parents, Mom and Dad Squad, and community we were able to exceed our goal selling BBQ plates and Rib Slabs.

Out of all of our cadets we recognized Stephen Kauffman our top seller, Ethan Edenfield who took second place, Brittney Sanders who took third place, Gabriel Beckworth who took fourth place and Chris Colvin that took fifth place. Congratulations to the top five cadets and all the other cadets who did their best.

C/ LTC Myiesha Boston our Battalion Commander said "all the cadets worked hard and we really appreciate the cadets who spent all day and night getting things prepared, without them it would have been impossible to accomplish." We would like to thank those who came out to cook, prepare, and deliver meals to make this fundraiser a success. But most of all — thank you, Chipley, for supporting us.
