- Floods are the nation's most common and costly natural disasters and the City of Boca Raton is taking acting to help reduce flood insurance rates for property owners. The City has enrolled in the National Flood Insurance Program's (NFIP) Community Rating System (CRS), a voluntary incentive program that recognizes and encourages community floodplain management activities to reduce the impact of flooding on private and public structures by providing affordable insurance.

- We at the Boca Raton Tribune are thrilled to announce that Jon Carter will start writing a weekly column for the online edition of our paper titled "Carter Talks" where the FAU student will write about anything and everything. If you have any ideas on what he should talk about, reach out to him or email us at news@bocaratontribune.com, welcome Jon!

- The competition is already heating up for "what's cooking" at the fourth annual Cheribundi Tart Cherry Boca Raton Bowl Great Chefs Tailgate Showcase & College Football Spirit Night set for Wednesday, November 14 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Renaissance Boca Raton Hotel, 2000 N.W. 19th St., Boca Raton, FL. That is when the area's top restaurant, country club, hotel, cooking school and celebrity chefs and mixologists will once again 'bring on' their culinary and cocktail A-game to rally Bowl fans and raise funds to support Spirit of Giving's annual year-end holiday gift drive.

- Just in time for Halloween, Florida Atlantic University's John D. MacArthur Campus Library is featuring 89 spooky Zombie films. Since 1932, zombies also known as the "walking dead," have terrified movie-goers. The collection, which features an array of classics from "Night of the Living Dead" to "Zombieland," is available for free to the public with a valid SEFLIN One Library Card. The films are available at 5353 Parkside Dr., John D. MacArthur Campus in Jupiter.

- The Boca Raton Public Library is pleased to announce a new photo exhibit by Veronique Viardin called "Pride & Honor: Native-American Indian Portraits" at the Downtown Library. Visitors will enjoy a spirited collection of black-and-white portraits depicting modern-day faces of Native-American Indians. These stunning photographs were taken at a pow-wow ceremony where Native-American Indians united to celebrate their heritage with feasting, singing and dancing. "As I focused to capture the old and the newer generations dancing before me," notes Viardin, "I was deeply moved by their courageous spirits and sacred songs."

- Fright Night at the South Florida Fairgrounds returns this fall. The events will run from Oct. 11-13, Oct. 18-20 and Oct. 25-27. Midway hours are from 6 to 11 p.m. (midnight on Fridays and Saturdays).

- This Friday, Oct. 19, two leading organizations are teaming up to help students with autism. For children on the spectrum, technology is one field in which they can excel, yet many do not know or receive the training. But LexisNexis Risk Solutions, one of the leading tech employers in the area, wants to change that and is teaming up with Florida Atlantic University's iRISE2 Mentoring Program to host a learning camp for local students from SouthTech Academy who are on the spectrum.

- Even though Palm Beach County is known for its vast wealth, one in six residents do not know where their next meal will come from according to the Palm Beach County Food Bank. Since the majority of Palm Beach State College students are residents of the county, they too may be struggling to get enough to eat. To help ensure they have this basic need met, the College has relocated and expanded its food pantry, now called Panther's Pantry.

- Officials at Boca Raton Regional Hospital (BRRH) today announced the appointment of Dana Jacobs, MD; Izdean Mufleh, DO and Carlos Victorica, MD to the Hospital's BocaCare® Physician Network.

- Art enthusiasts can expect to be moved this fall by three exhibits that cover a range of topics including sexual assault and its effect on victims. The exhibits, which will be displays at The Art Gallery at Eissey Campus and The Gallery at Lake Worth Campus, showcase stories, ideas and perceptions through paintings, drawings, photography, graphic design and more. They are free and open to the public and feature artwork created by PBSC students and community artists.

FAU Tech Runway to Celebrate 2018 Maverick Reception

FAU Tech Runway will host its 2018 Maverick Reception on Thursday, Oct. 18 from 6 to 8:45 p.m. at its headquarters, 901 NW 35th St., Boca Raton. Tickets cost $125 per person and the proceeds directly benefit FAU Tech Runway's entrepreneurs and programs.

The reception will celebrate a year of success and innovation. FAU Tech Runway's mission of robust support to the University and region's entrepreneurial ecosystem fosters the growth of students, faculty and local innovators and provides them with the resources they need to thrive as entrepreneurs in one collaborative hub.

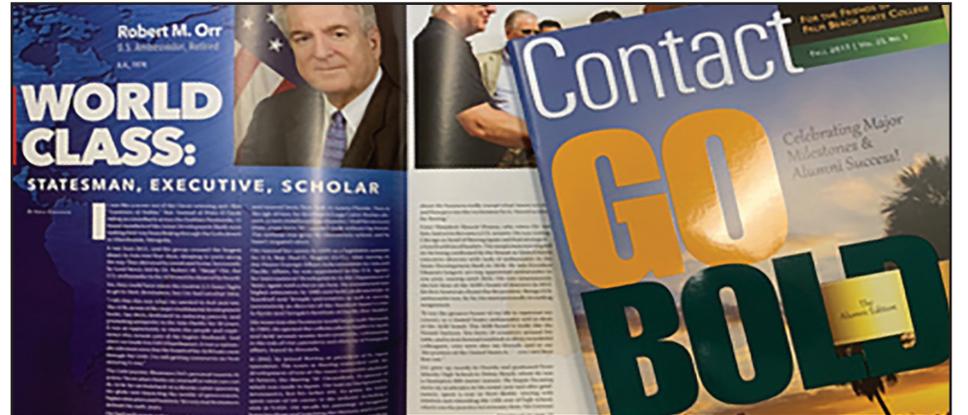

"FAU Tech Runway's annual Maverick Reception is an evening for us to highlight and celebrate the success of our program's amazing entrepreneurs. We also tip our hats to those incredible supporters who play a crucial role in assisting these entrepreneurs – the FAU Tech Runway mentors, advisory board members, our corporate partners, and the generous donors who enable our companies' successes," said Rhys. L. Williams, associate vice president for research and the managing director for FAU Tech Runway. "The event will feature cutting-edge technology displays, a lively networking space, and personal insights on entrepreneurship shared by two of the most successful entrepreneurs that Florida has ever produced."

The keynote speakers for the reception are Ron and Jon Antevy, founders and leaders of e-Builder, the pioneer in cloud-based construction management software. Since its start in 1995, e-Builder has enabled global companies, government agencies, healthcare and educational institutions to manage billions of dollars in capital projects more efficiently. Today, e-Builder customers manage more than $300 billion in active projects. The majority of e-Builder's 250 employees work out of the company's Plantation, Fla. headquarters.

PBSC Wins Six Regional NCMPR Awards for Communications

Palm Beach State College has won six Medallion Awards from the National Council for Marketing and Public Relations District II, including three first-place awards, for work produced by the College Relations and Marketing department.

The annual regional awards recognize outstanding achievement in communications at community and technical colleges in 11 Southeastern states, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands and the Bahamas. This year, there were more than 350 submissions in 38 categories.

The winning categories and pieces are:

Gold
Magazine for the fall 2017 edition of Contact. The magazine, distributed to 60,000 friends and alumni of the College, was designed by Kari McCormick, visual communications manager, and featured alumni profiles and stories written by CRM writers and photographed by CRM staff.

Excellence in Writing for a feature story titled "World Class: Statesman, Executive, Scholar." The story, highlighting the career of PBSC alumnus Robert M. "Skip" Orr, was written by Joyce Edelstein, CRM specialist.

College Promotional Brand Video for "Women of the Fire Academy" highlighting the historic summer graduating class that included six female firefighters, the largest number ever. It was produced by Idalia Centeno, multimedia specialist.

Silver
Promotional Brand Video for "Kenny's Story" featuring a graduate of PBSC's Welding Technology program, who, within one year of graduating, became a job foreman and site supervisor. It was produced by Karina Silva Santisteban, media technology coordinator.

Communications Success Story or Community Relations Campaign for the news release on PBSC graduate Alexis Vazquez that was written by Tabatha McDonald, news and media relations coordinator, and pitched to media outlets. As a result, Vazquez's story received widespread coverage. Stories appeared in the Palm Beach Post, Sun-Sentinel and Boca Raton Tribune and aired locally on WPTV News Channel 5 (NBC) and CBS12 News. The Channel 5 story also was picked up by the NBC network, running on affiliate stations in Seattle, Fort Myers, Knoxville, Orlando, Sioux City, Iowa and Charlottesville, Va.

Bronze
Excellence in Writing for a story about the Reef Hope Project led by Professor Jessica Miles, Ph.D. The story was written by Kristi Sorrow, CRM specialist.

The awards were presented during the District II Conference held in Atlanta Sept. 30-Oct. 2. They were judged by panels of industry professionals. NCMPR is an affiliate council of the American Association of Community Colleges.

Educate Tomorrow at FAU Holds Inaugural Celebration Event

On Saturday, October 13th, 2018, the Kathryn Krickstein Pressel MammoVan is coming to the Boca Raton Airport.

Presented by the Boca Raton Regional Hospital and hosted by the Boca Raton Airport Authority (BRAA), the MammoVan will be performing mammograms from 8:00AM to 2:00PM at the Customs and Border Protection Facility, which is located at 3694 Airport Road, Boca Raton, FL.

The MammoVan utilizes the most state-of-the-art mammography unit on the market - the Senographe Pristina 3D Mammography System. The 3D Pristina provides exceptional imaging quality while creating the most comfortable mammography experience possible.

By combining a curved, warmer, more comfortable detector with easy to reach armrests and a faster, quieter scanning process, users no longer have to deal with the discomforts often associated with mammograms. This is the only mobile 3D Pristina system in Florida, providing a special opportunity for those who schedule an appointment during the MammoVan's visit to the Boca Raton Airport.

"There's a significantly improved survival rate if breast cancer is discovered early," said BRAA Executive Director

Clara Bennett. "It's critical for every appropriate age woman to get a mammogram. With the convenience of the MammoVan and the comfort of the newest technology, there's less and less excuses not to get checked out."

Mammograms are 100% covered by insurance. There is also financial assistance available for those in need. Individuals who have had a mammogram elsewhere in the past are will need to bring their previous images (CD) with reports to their appointment.

"October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month," said Bennett. "There's no better time to make an appointment to get screened."

Schedule a mammogram today by calling 561-955-4700 or by visiting BRRH.com/Mammovan. To apply for financial assistance, contact Troy Bingham at 561-955-4294.

Now in its 70th year of service to the Boca Raton community, the Boca Raton Airport is continuing its efforts to improve the health and well-being of everyone who calls this beautiful city home. The Airport is proud to partner with the Kathryn Krickstein Pressel MammoVan and the Boca Raton Regional Hospital and looks forward to giving continued support to better the community and empower its residents.

Random Thoughts

Just few weeks ago, I encouraged you to support the West Boca High School Chorus' effort to raise $8,000 for their music program. You responded and within hours of my appeal, they exceed their target by more than $1,000. Thank you. That's the Boca Raton spirit. We can always rely on you to support our youth, especially in times of need.

A Star Among us

Speaking of supporting our youth, kudos to Jamael Stewart, a former Omni Middle and Olympic Heights High graduate who was recently at Bethune Cookman University's homecoming honored as a rising star under 40. Stewart, who grew up in the public housing complex in Delray Beach, used a football scholarship as his ticket to then Bethune-Cookman College. And ever since he graduated in 2005, he has been making waves whether in Miami-Dade County, the Bahamas or in Delray Beach.

Shortly after he returned home, Stewart teamed up with his cousin, T.J. Jackson, and founded the nonprofit Prep & Sports Inc., which invests in young athletes through academic support, skill-building and mentoring. Jackson, who also played football, is head football coach at Atlantic High School.

Prep & Sports Inc. uses trained teachers to help students prepare for the SAT, and assist with reading, and honing math skills, while former and current NFL players practice alongside them on the field. After nine years of working for Breakthrough Miami, a nonprofit that prepares middle school students for college, Stewart returned to his roots in 2016 and has been changing lives for the better since. As assistant community improvement director for the city, he has literally been doing that – improving his community.

He has used his story to inspire countless young people.

I am proud and pleased to share that both Stewart and Jackson are alums of KOP Mentoring Network.

New Boss in Charge

Welcome to longtime health care executive Maggie Gill, who recently was named chief executive officer at Delray Medical Center.

Gill comes from Novant Health UVA Health System, which runs three hospitals in Virginia. She was named CEO in July 2017. Before that, she was president and CEO of Memorial Health in Savannah, Georgia, where she served as president and CEO since 2011. She initially joined Memorial in 2004 as vice president of finance and managed care and became the hospital's chief operating officer in 2005.

Gill will also be CEO of Tenet's Palm Beach Group, consisting of five hospitals including Good Samaritan Medical Center, West Boca Medical Center, St. Mary's Medical Center and Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center.

She replaced Mark Bryan, who had been CEO of Delray Medical Center for about eight years.

Eric Evans, Tenet Healthcare's president of hospital operations, said it best that Gill is well positioned to help the hospital continue to grow and build the wide-range of lifesaving, award-winning programs they offer including comprehensive stroke care.

POSITIVE LIVING

By Dr. Synesio Lyra, Jr.

Connecting With Other People

There are some people we meet who, after several encounters, we still feel we don't know them, or at least we don't know them significantly or sufficiently to trust them completely! Is this their fault or ours? It can be of either one, or it can be from neither. Some people never show themselves adequately to others, while we ourselves can, sometimes, be slow in our own grasp of what they've revealed about themselves to us. Words and gestures can be very deceiving, even when these have never intended so to be! There are others, however, that honestly portray their true selves from the very first moment they ever meet somebody new. They offer a key to their heart from the outset, apart from any potential romantic interest. Moreover, they don't leave any doubt about the genuine sincerity of their words, deeds, and intents. Their positive posture is fully genuine! Most often, the problem is more in the reluctance of someone in fearlessly accepting the other, taking that person at his/her word, more easily acknowledging the sincerity of the other, and not reading in the gestures and comments of the other what was not communicated at all. Unquestionably, some persons "advertise" themselves in such way that others can rather easily dismiss any desire of developing a long-term, friendly relationship. There's something real that, in spite of cordiality, won't succeed beyond that initial "hello." And there is nothing wrong with that! Friendships that are developed, and really go somewhere desirable, take time, as human experience confirms in these and other related experiences. Varied settings for encounters can be planned, and time can be given for each person to observe the other in several human situations. Without intruding, significant questions may be legitimately asked one another, so as to establish a mental profile of each other and cautiously proceed until a true friendship can be established or only an occasional face-to-face encounter is desirable. Each individual needs to allow his/her temperament, and other unique traits, to confirm their sense of confidence and satisfaction, as an attempt to relate with confidence can indeed happen. And when such is the case, how wonderful it can be for, as social creatures fashioned by a divine creator, people need people, and those who recognize that, and strive to achieve this goal, are indeed "the luckiest people in the world!"

Dr. Synesio Lyra, Jr. is a Florida resident who, for many years, was a professor at the post-graduate level. He is a writer, a sought-after conference speaker, a man who lived in five continents of the world, having received his education in four of them. When he resided in southern California, he wrote a weekly column for the daily "Anaheim Bulletin," which was carried for about six years, until he moved to south Florida.

Great Gatsby Birthday Fundraiser at Boca Resto

I celebrated my birthday with over 30 friends and my darling Daughter, Melanie and son in law, Michael who flew down from New York to join me for this special birthday fundraiser to support Lynn Cancer Institute, in memory of my husband, Bob Beasley. Friends came from as far as Pittsburgh and Boone, No. Carolina to help me celebrate my special day. We raised over $7500 for Lynn Cancer and still have many silent auction items that did not sell to try to sell at another event. A big thank you to all that helped me put this fabulous event together and to Arnie Steinbeg, Jackie Nicholson, Carol Porter, Melanie, and Michael Conley and Avner Eli and all my fabulous Boca friends for helping to make the evening so special.

FAITH

By Robert J. Tamasy

The Virtue of Exceeding Expectations

Often people in business deal with a temptation to do the bare minimum, to satisfy the requirements but not go the “extra mile” in serving the customer, the supplier, or even the employee. Such thinking, however, can be very short-sighted. Not to mention self-centered, rather than others-centered.

Contrary to this type of approach to business, I have been delighted to work with a number of companies whose expressed desire and goal is to “exceed expectations.” They want to be certain to do more than they had contracted to do. They want each customer’s experience to be so memorable that they will be eager to do business with them again. Not only that, but to provide services in such a manner that “satisfied customer” recommendations and referrals would be virtually guaranteed.

Recently my wife and I took part in an 11-day group tour to many parts of Italy. It was truly one of those “exceeded our expectations” experiences. It wasn’t perfect; some of the hotels we stayed in were better than others. But our guide for the entire tour was exceptional; the motorcoach in which we rode was new and comfortable; the driver was first-class; and each of the stops on our tour had been carefully chosen to provide a broad cross-section of Italian life and culture. Especially for first-time visitors to Italy.

I do not know if the tour agency had this in mind, but a commitment to exceeding the expectations of whomever we happen to be serving – customer, supplier or employee – is reflective of Jesus’ admonition that we should, “in everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you”(Matthew 7:12).

Not long ago several friends were talking about their differing experiences at local restaurants. For one, when the meal order was clearly inaccurate, the worker simply responded, “Well, I don’t know what you expect me to do about that.” Wow! Would that motivate you to return to that restaurant?

Another friend had a very different experience, however. He and his wife had eaten at another restaurant several times, enough for a particular server to recognize them and remember their dining preferences. This type of service, which definitely exceeded their expectations, has made them loyal and frequent customers – ones that reward their good service with generous tips.

In doing business with others, it is easy to become memorable: memorably good, or memorably bad. If we want to develop lasting relationships, “memorably good” is always the better option, don’t you think? Several places in the Scriptures, including Romans 13:8, Galatians 5:14 and James 2:8, we see the admonition that we are to “love your neighbor as yourself.” It is doubtful that we could conceive of a greater core value than that.

Making a profit is important. As is staying in business and growing the business. Mastering our craft is essential. But if we are loving our “neighbor” as ourselves – our customers, suppliers, and those who work for us or with us – profits and growth are almost certain to follow.

If my wife and I ever decide to take tour another country, you can bet we will be quick to consider the company that unpretentiously succeeded in exceeding our expectations. And keeping our recent trip in mind is a good reminder for me to strive to exceed the expectations of others.

OFF TO MARKET - 22nd Year for the BOCA RATON GREENMARKET

It's time once again to grab your shopping bags and head on over to the Boca Raton GreenMarket held every Saturday, 8am to 1pm, beginning October 27 through May 11, 2019. Now in its 22nd year of operation, the Market takes place at the south end of Royal Palm Place in the Monument Piazza parking area located at the intersection of S Federal Highway and SE Mizner Blvd. Plenty of parking is available adjacent to the GreenMarket vendor site.

Boca's GreenMarket has continually been dedicated to local food production and consumption...produce that travels from farm direct or bakery oven to the dining table and through the process supporting the Florida agricultural industry and the economy of our south Florida area. Each Saturday, fresh locally-grown fruits and vegetables as they become available in their individual growing seasons - along with fresh herbs, soaps & lotions, juices, potted orchids, ocean shells, fresh cut flowers, assorted variety of plants, fresh baked goods, prepared foods, oils & vinegars, gourmet foods, hydroponic and organic foods, fresh fish and seafood, fresh pasta, doggie treats are available for purchase. Several of the vendors have participated since the Market began in 1996, with a few new vendors joining each year. Community service organizations participate from time to time to share information or to promote a special project.

The market has blossomed into a Saturday morning community meeting place to have a fresh cup of coffee, a bite to eat, listen to some music, pick up some local produce, plants, grab a gift for someone or restock handmade soaps or candles. It's just a 'fun' place to be on Saturday morning in a relaxed setting, a place for the entire family, including the family pup, to enjoy a few hours in the out-of-doors.

Several special activities, promotions and customer giveaways are planned at various times throughout the Market season. Live music takes place on the Piazza Stage on select market days featuring local musicians. Free recycled shopping bags are available while supplies last.

The Boca Raton GreenMarket is supported by The Boca Raton Tribune, Florida Health & Chiropractic Medicine, Aurora Nurses Home Health Care, Inc., Investments Limited, Inc., Palm Beach County, Happy Day Creations, Premier Productions LLC, LivingFLA.com, and "FRESH from FLORIDA," a promotional campaign of Florida's Department of Agriculture and Consumer Affairs. For additional information, please call the Market office at (561) 299-8684 or email at elilly707@aol.com.

He is loved and remembered as a husband, father, grandfather ("Papa"), brother, uncle, teacher, and friend.

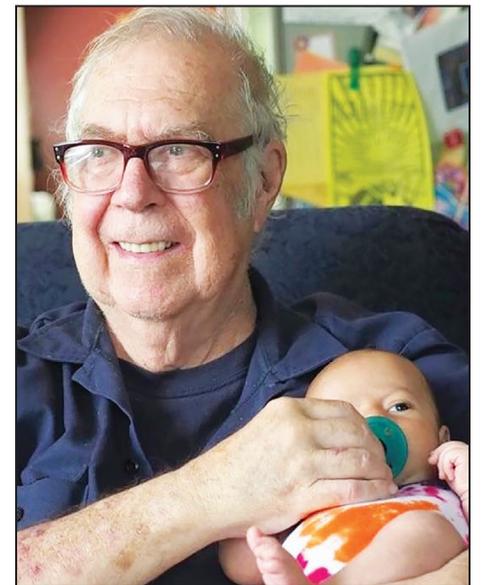

Craig led an extraordinary life. As a boy, he showed remarkable talent as a trumpet player, performing professionally with Jazz legends including Marcus Belgrave and Dizzy Gillespie. He retained a life-long love of musical exploration and improvisation, often explaining, "There's only one time signature, One over One."

At the age of twenty he served as a soldier in Vietnam.

Craig went to Michigan State University on the GI Bill. There he met and fell in love with Diane Levine. They married after only knowing each other a few months and stayed together for nearly 48 years. They shared the deepest love and partnership, and their children and grandchildren were Craig's pride and joy.

Craig earned a Master's Degree in Music Composition. He left an impressive catalog of original music, from full classical symphonies to small chamber and solo pieces to avant-garde Jazz creations, which he called "Meditative Etudes".

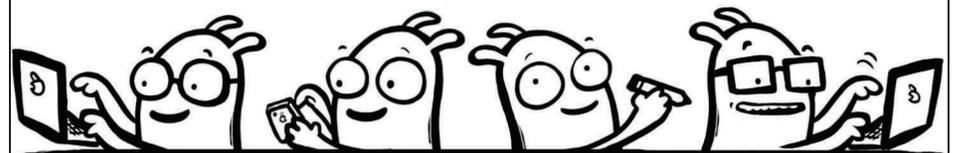

Craig was deeply spiritual and religious in his own unique fashion. He attended seminary and became an ordained Rabbi, returning to the Army as a chaplain, and later serving as a civilian Rabbi to various congregations. He studied the Torah nearly every day of his adult life, and took great joy in the art and discipline of Hebrew calligraphy.

Craig loved to laugh and joke, and could find connection with everyone he met. His example taught others about showing respect and dignity to all. He is profoundly missed, and his memory is cherished.

YMCA of South Palm Beach County Launches Fast-Track Giving Campaign To Raise $561,000 for the "561" Community

To support thousands of "561" residents of all ages and backgrounds struggling to reach their full potential, the YMCA of South Palm Beach County has kicked off its year-end fast-track "Change a Life" Giving Campaign to fund financial assistance scholarships. With YMCA-SPBC Board Member Beth Johnston at the helm serving as the 2018 Giving Campaign Chair, a motivated crew of donors, volunteers, employees, members and corporate and philanthropic partners are committed to surpassing the "561" campaign goal of $561,000 in just 56 days.

Recognized as a positive force and an impactful "community hub" for 46 years, the 501(c)(3) nonprofit social services organization drives financial aid funding in countdown to the holiday season to ensure that no family or individual in need of services and programs is turned away. Continually taking on the challenges that shape the community's future, the Y, through its Giving Campaign, provides those with financial hardship the same opportunity as all Y members to be healthy and thrive, connect with others and contribute to a better community.

"From tackling the achievement gap to teaching healthy habits for a lifetime and giving people the chance to strengthen their community through volunteering, everything the Y does is in service of 'building a better us,'" shared 2018 Campaign Chair Johnston who reports that one in four YMCA-SPBC members receive some type of financial assistance that crosses all ages, race, ethnicity, social-economic and language barriers. "Since we believe everyone has the power to make their lives and community better, the Y opens its doors to all- no matter who they are, where they come from or their ability to pay."

Because 100 percent of dollars contributed to the YMCA's Giving Campaign is restricted solely for scholarships, not funding administration or operations budgets, donors will be making an immediate and lasting impact on their neighbors, colleagues, employees. According to Johnston, the energized campaign drivers are teaming up to host fundraising events and launch phone brigades, while individually inviting friends, family and colleagues to experiential IMPACT Day tours and sharing the Y story with their employers.

"Every day, our community faces new challenges that create a greater need for the work we do," noted Jason Hagensick, president and CEO of the YMCA-SPBC that is comprised of: the Peter Blum Family YMCA of Boca Raton, the Devos-Blum Family YMCA of Boynton Beach, the Schmidt Family YMCA Preschool at the Volen Center and the YMCA@901 NCCI. "More and more children face seemingly insurmountable learning gaps and families find it difficult to spend quality time together. People are not connected to their neighbors and face-time happens through a phone. And instead of seeing the income gap shrink, it seems all we do is watch it grow."

Funds raised through campaign efforts will enable the Y to provide increased access to successful programs that reach more people who need them, with a focus on the most vulnerable communities. These include helping children and teens develop self-confidence, character, values and leadership skills through innovative and nurturing youth programs and creating communities that support healthy living. This involves addressing childhood obesity and chronic disease from children to seniors and supporting their physical, intellectual and spiritual strength.

Scholarships to the Y's transformational programs include Water Safety and Drowning Prevention programs, Chase's Place for special needs individuals, Teen Leadership Programs, Youth Sports and Programs (Pre-K, Elementary, Middle and High School), Y Bikes, summer camps including specialty camps such as the STEAM Caridad summer camp. Other life-changing Y offerings include its newly launched LiveSTRONG, a 12-week exercise program to help cancer survivors regain their strength after cancer treatment, its diabetes six-week self-management course and the collaboration it has with the National Parkinson's Foundation of South Palm Beach County to offer Surf & Turf, a program focused on delaying the onset of symptoms of the disease.

As 2018 comes to a close, Johnston reports that the "Y's dedicated campaigners are reaching out to everyone they know asking for the Y's Giving Campaign to be included on their personal and corporate holiday lists. Even a small amount can go a long way for a family or individual."

Last year, the South Palm Beach County's Y Giving Campaign raised $542,586, which enabled the social services nonprofit to provide programs such as sports, after-school and preschool to those in need. Through this year's campaign, the Y hopes to impact the lives of even more children, adults and seniors through membership and programs.

To learn more about how you can support the Y and its 2018 Giving Campaign, please contact Kimberley Trombly-Burmeister at ktburmeister@ymcaspb.org or visit www.ymcaspb.org/give for more information.

Give your money a raise

Make your money work harder by earning higher interest rates.

Talk to a banker for more details. Offer expires November 16, 2018.

WELLS

Platinum Savings Account

1.70% Annual Percentage Yield for 12 months¹

Enjoy a special interest rate for 12 months with new money deposits of at least $25,000 and a minimum daily account balance of $25,000 or more.

Fixed Rate CD

2.30% Annual Percentage Yield for 11 months²

Guaranteed fixed rate with new money deposits of at least $25,000 for an 11-month term.

Both accounts are FDIC-insured up to the maximum allowable limit. Platinum Savings offer available in CT, FL and NY. Fixed Rate CD offer available in CT, FL, NY and WA. Portfolio by Wells Fargo® customers are eligible to receive an additional interest rate bonus on these accounts.³

1. To qualify for this offer, you must have a new or existing Platinum Savings account and enroll the account in this offer between 10/15/2018 and 11/16/2018. This offer is subject to change at any time, without notice. This offer is available only to Platinum Savings customers in the following states: CT, FL and NY. In order to earn the Special Interest Rate of 1.69% (Special Rate), you must deposit $25,000 in new money (from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., or its affiliates) to the enrolled savings account and maintain a minimum daily account balance of $25,000 throughout the term of this offer. The corresponding Annual Percentage Yield (APY) for this offer is 1.70%. The Special Rate will be applied to the enrolled savings account for a period of 12 months, starting on the date the account is enrolled in the offer. However, for any day during that 12-month period that the daily account balance is less than the $25,000 minimum, the Special Rate will not apply and the interest rate will revert to the standard interest rate applicable to your Platinum Savings account. As of 09/18/2018, the standard interest rate and APY for a Platinum Savings account in CT, FL and NY with an account balance of $0.01 to $99,999.99 is 0.03% (0.03% APY) and with an account balance of $100,000 and above is 0.05% (0.05% APY). Each tier shown reflects the current minimum daily collected balance required to obtain the applicable APY. Interest is compounded daily and paid monthly. The amount of interest earned is based on the daily collected balances in the account. Upon the expiration of the 12-month promotional period, standard interest rates apply. Minimum to open a Platinum Savings account is $25. A monthly service fee of $12 applies in any month the account falls below a $3,500 minimum daily balance. Fees may reduce earnings. Interest rates are variable and subject to change without notice. Wells Fargo may limit the amount you deposit to a Platinum Savings account to an aggregate of $1 million. Offer not available to Private Banking, Business Banking, Wholesale or Wealth customers. 2. Annual Percentage Yield (APY) is effective for accounts opened between 10/15/2018 to 11/16/2018. The 11-month New Dollar CD special requires a minimum of $25,000 brought to Wells Fargo from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank N.A., or its affiliates to earn the advertised APY. Public Funds and Wholesale accounts are not eligible for this offer. APY assumes interest remains on deposit until maturity. Interest is compounded daily. Payment of interest on CDs is based on term: For terms less than 12 months (365 days), interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or at maturity (the end of the term). For terms of 12 months or more, interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually. A fee for early withdrawal will be imposed and could reduce earnings on this account. Special Rates are applicable to the initial term of the CD only. At maturity, the special rate CD will automatically renew for a term of 6 months, at the interest rate and APY in effect for CDs on renewal date not subject to a Special Rate, unless the Bank has notified you otherwise. APY shown offered at Wells Fargo Bank locations in CT, FL, NY and WA. Due to the new money requirement, accounts may only be opened at your local branch. Wells Fargo reserves the right to modify or discontinue the offer at any time without notice. Offer cannot be: Combined with any other consumer deposit offer, or reproduced, purchased, sold, transferred or traded. Minimum new money deposit requirement of at least $25,000 is for this offer only and cannot be transferred to another account to qualify for any other consumer deposit offer. If you wish to take advantage of another consumer deposit offer requiring a minimum new money deposit, you will be required to do so with another new money deposit as stated in the offer requirements and qualifications. 3. The Portfolio by Wells Fargo program has a $30 monthly service fee, which can be avoided when you have one of the following qualifying balances: $25,000 or more in qualifying linked bank deposit accounts (checking, savings, CDs, FDIC-insured IRAs) or $50,000 or more in any combination of qualifying linked banking, brokerage (available through Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC) and credit balances (including 10% of mortgage balances, certain mortgages not eligible). If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the bonus interest rate on all eligible savings accounts, and discounts or fee waivers on other products and services, will discontinue and revert to the Bank's then-current applicable rate or fee. For bonus interest rates on time accounts, this change will occur upon renewal. If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the remaining unlinked Wells Fargo Portfolio Checking or Wells Fargo Prime Checking account will be converted to another checking product or closed.

Palm Beach Atlantic's Rivadeneira Named SSC Player of the Week

Palm Beach Atlantic (PBA) men's soccer's Claudio Rivadeneira was named the Sunshine State Conference Offensive Player of the Week on Monday. The junior forward scored twice, including the game-winning goal against Eckerd on Saturday.

The Sailfish sit atop the SSC standings with 21 points and a 7-1 record in league play with two matches remaining. PBA is 13-1 overall.

Rivadeneira helped lead the Sailfish back from a 2-0 deficit against the Tritons on Saturday. Eckerd scored for the second time just a few moments into the second half. In the 64th minute Rivadeneira received a long diagonal pass up the left side of the field. He danced in back and forth, between defenders before unloading a shot that beat the Eckerd keeper.

After Jack Burrows tied the match at 2-2, Rivadeneira struck again in the 76th minute. Rafael Souza played a ball to the middle of the field outside the 18 that Rivadeneira struck on the first touch to lift the 'Fish to the victory on the road.

Rivadeneira leads PBA and is tied for sixth in the Sunshine State Conference in both goals (7) and points (19). He also had a two-goal game against Newberry and has three game-winners this season.

Burkhardt's Triple-Double Leads No. 18 Sailfish to 3-1 Win over Embry-Riddle

Palm Beach Atlantic volleyball got a triple-double from senior Molly Burkhardt on Saturday afternoon and won a wild four-set match against Embry-Riddle inside Rubin Arena. The Sailfish have won five consecutive matches and are now 19-3 overall and 11-3 in Sunshine State Conference play. The Eagles drop to 13-8 on the season and 7-7 in league play.

The Sailfish held a 17-15 lead in the opening set after back-to-back kills from freshman Amber Rowoldt. Embry-Riddle then went on a run and took advantage of a couple Sailfish miscues to take the opening set 25-23. The Sailfish were taken to five sets back in September by Embry-Riddle, and were trailing early in the second set on Saturday, down 7-4. PBA then went on a 10-1 run to open a commanding lead in the set. Senior Ally Rohn had three service aces in four points to help the 'Fish open up the 14-8 lead. The Sailfish had nine blocks in the second set, as Sophia Rasmussen had seven block assists and Sophie Hoekstra had six in the frame. The 'Fish kept up their good play late in the set to win 25-14.

The 'Fish opened up the third set with a 7-1 run, as four different PBA players picked up kills in the run. Burkhardt had back-to-back aces shortly after to open up an 11-3 lead for the Sailfish. The 'Fish continued their solid play and a Jennie Anderson kill closed out the set for the 'Fish 25-19.

The final set was close throughout, and PBA led 23-22 late in the set looking to put away the match and avoid going to five sets for a second time this season with ERAU. A Hoekstra kill and another Rohn service ace closed out the 3-1 win for the Sailfish.

Burkhardt had a monster match for the Sailfish, as the St. Augustine, Fla. native finished with 15 kills, 21 assists, 21 digs, and five blocks for her first triple-double of the season. Rohn and libero Lilly Turner both picked up double-doubles as Rohn finished with 19 assists and 16 digs while adding six service aces and Turner had 10 assists and 16 digs.

Raegan Grooms had another solid match in her senior season, as she finished with 12 kills and just one error while adding nine digs. Rasmussen, making her first start of the season, had six kills and 10 blocks. Hoekstra finished with eight kills and seven blocks on the afternoon.

The Sailfish will return to action next weekend in Orlando, Fla. as they will play three matches against Gulf South Conference opponents at the SSC/GSC Crossover Tournament.

Due to High Demand, Boca Raton FC Announces November Open Tryout

As a result of a very positive Open Tryout on September 22, Boca Raton Football Club is delighted to announce they have added an Open Tryout date in November. With the club continuing to build its team for the 2018 and 2019 season, Boca Raton FC will be looking for players age 18 and over to fill rosters for their APSL, and NPSL squad for the 2018 Fall Season, and the 2019 APSL, and NPSL season. The open tryouts will be held at Cypress Park (1301 Coral Springs Dr, Coral Springs, FL 33071) on November 3, check-in will be at 8:30 a.m.

Boca Raton FC's head coach, Jim Rooney, as well as his staff of coaches, will be on hand to look at each player and run the tryout.

"We had a fantastic turnout in our September Open Tryout, but unfortunately I'm sure we missed some players who may have been unable to attend," said Rooney. "We had a talented group last season but as we continue our preparations for the 2019 season, maybe there are players who slipped through the cracks that the club has not yet seen that could be useful in not only our APSL team but also our NPSL club."

The tryout date at Cypress Park (1301 Coral Springs Dr, Coral Springs, FL 33071), is November 3 at 9:00 am, with check-in at 8:30 a.m.

Players who try out for Boca Raton FC have the opportunity to play in four different leagues, play in high-caliber competitions, as well as friendlies such as the ones the club has played in the past versus the New York Cosmos, FC Shakhtar Donetsk, Jamaican National Team, and São Paulo. Players who play in the NPSL team will also have the opportunity to play in the NPSL Showcase in 2019 where hundreds of European and MLS scouts come out to see the best NPSL has to offer.

If selected as a member of Boca Raton FC, players will have photos, and videos of their games which will help boost their resume, as well as have access to FTX Performance, a Boca Raton FC partner.

Furthermore, Fall Season players are the first to be seen for our Summer 2019 season. During the summer season, Boca Raton FC gives 23 full scholarships to the best players, evaluated by the coaches. Male hopefuls, aged 18 and over, interested in attending the Open Tryout must pre-register and can do so by heading over to <http://bit.ly/2zZWj6S>.

The registration fee to participate in the tryout will be $100 per player and must be made online during the registration process. Spaces at the open tryouts will be limited and by pre-registration only.
