Grand jury indicts Flowers in Patricia Knight's death

A second man has been arrested and charged with first-degree murder in the death of Patricia "Niece" Knight, who disappeared in January 2006.

Jeffery Flowers, 66, was arrested Wednesday morning, Oct. 2, and is being held without bond at the Taylor County Jail. He has also charged with tampering with evidence.

Flowers' arrest came three months after Lloyd Phelps, 59, was convicted of stabbing Knight to death and dumping her body. Eyewitness testimony at the trial placed Flowers at the scene during the time of the attack—which under Florida law means he could be held just as liable in Phelps for Knight's death. Evidence in the case was presented to a grand jury Tuesday, which handed down the first-degree murder and tampering indictments later that same day.

"We attempted to arrest Mr. Flowers Tuesday, but couldn't find him. He was arrested Wednesday morning (without incident) and taken to jail," Perry Police Department Capt. Jamie Cruse said.

When questioned about the testimony that placed him at the scene of Knight's death, Flowers stated it was "all false…I don't where they got that." The investigation into Knight's 2006 disappearance was first handled as a missing persons case; it was upgraded to murder investigation in late 2010.

Cloud Lab flying ‘coast to coast’

The airship, described as the world’s largest, had a short stop-over at the airport Wednesday, Sept. 25, on its way to Gulf Shores, Ala., drawing several onlookers to the facility.

Owner James Van Der Pool, who took the opportunity to film the airship’s crew as they maneuvered it past above the ground, said the purpose of the mission was to explore the atmosphere and weather in a way not done before, calling the Blimp a “unique platform” capable of traveling through the air without disturbing it like a jet through the air without control, Van Der Pool said in the release.

“IT’s in every breath we take and makes Earth habitable. Yet, for all its centrality to the health of the planet there’s a lot we still don’t know about the atmosphere. For instance, at what altitude does life cease? What type of air is most likely to cause rain? With Cloud Lab we’re in a rare and exciting opportunity to address some of these questions head-on,” Van Der Pool said.

Skimming the ocean’s surface and drifting with the wind allows the team to explore the physics that control the creation and movement of clouds. Cloud Lab’s sophisticated technology also allows the team to examine a growing cloud’s interior anatomy. Through sampling different types of air, from sea and desert to city, while simultaneously measuring cloud cover, the team will attempt to understand what types of air produce the most clouds.

During the trip, the entomologist will use the airship as a sampling platform to produce a unique survey of the insect life that lies above the United States. Blue will also be filmed using a range of technology, revealing how they have learned to exploit these insect superhighways. Other experiments include researching the role of plants in maintaining the balance of the atmosphere through measuring the amount of oxygen produced by a forest. The team will also be looking into the causes of wildfires. "Flying across the entire North American continent by airship is ambitious in every conceivable way," said Cloud Lab executive producer Jonathan Renouf said.

"As far as we know, no one has done this for two decades. It’s incredibly exciting because we will get to explore the atmosphere in a way that’s never been done before, as well as seeing America from a unique vantage point."

Keaton Beach Fishing Report

TROUT being caught from 2 out to 7 feet

BY PAT McGRiff (correspondent REPORTer)
The trout are biting! All week it is October and trout don’t watch football!
Speckled trout are being caught from two feet of water on Topwater stickbaits all the way out to 5-7 feet of water for bouncing Gulp off the bottom.

Sand trout are also being taken on live shrimp and on jig and grub combos under Cajun Thunders and on jigs bouncing the bottom as well.
The water is trying to close up slowly on the outside edges in deeper depths.

Here are some reports from Keaton Beach Marina.

Over the last two months, Cary Stowe and family of Muscle Shoals, Ala., caught 15 trout to 22 inches, 27 trout and a BSB and one Spanish bouncing Gulp off the bottom in 5-7 feet of water.

Jerry and B.J. Smith with Hank and Michelle Smith all of Lakeland, Ga., had two trout total last weekend of 7 speckled trout and 39 sand trout bouncing white Gulp in 5-7 feet of water.

On Sunday, John Bennett of Columbus, Ga., with Willy Essell of Rochester, Ga., had 1 trout to 21 inches and 3 rods to 27 inches fishing with live shrimp under a flat from 3 feet of water.

Also on Sunday, Eric Slaughter and Joni Markey of Perry had live trout on topwater plugs less than 2 feet of water.

Kurt Vannen and Mike Biggs of Cassel, Ga., with Carter Whiddon of Tallahassee had a 24-inch Spanish and 15 trout to 21 inches Sunday on Gulp under a Cajun Thunder.

The Taylor County Middle School football team invaded Madison last week and came away with an 8-0 victory to end the Cowboys’ 16-game winning streak over the Bulldogs.

“This was a great team win,” TCMS Coach Tanner Jones said. “Our defense has not allowed a single point in our last three games.”

The undefeated Bulldogs, now 4-0 on the year, were led by quarterback Josh Mixon, who completed 5 of 9 passes for 83 yards and is a touchdown. Defensive Robinson (2 catches, 43 yards) caught the like touchdown pass. Mixon also rushed for 36 yards.

Chris Reeves had 11 carries for 123 yards against Anthony Washington carried the ball for 62 yards.

Running back Decorian Bellamy caught 2 passes for 25 yards. He also snagged the two-point conversion on a spectacular one-handed catch.

Top performances on defense included: Defensive Vener Conde - IV - 8 tackles, 3 solo and 2 assists; linebacker Jones - 4 tackles, 3 solo and 3 assists; linebacker Ezell of Rochelle, Ga., had 7 tackles, 2 solo and 2 assists; defensive end Edwards - 4 tackles, 2 solo and 2 assists.

Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra welcomes new director & season

Along with presenting Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra’s season also welcomes a new music director. Darko Burotto’s debut with the Bellefond Philharmonic in January 2011, Burotto was invited to both close the 2011 and open the 2012 concert season.

But music may not be the agenda when they realize that this could actually not be only the setup for “The Book of Revelations.” But that is exactly what a group of well-to-do actors begin to realize.

As I said before, the movie works because of the director’s willingness to put everything out there for a laugh, cheap or not. After seeing these “fictional” versions of the actors we’ve watched on the big screen, here’s a few things I learned about them.

James Franco, who plays the unassuming, too-sure-for-his-own-good hero, is actually a very sarcastic and witty actor. Jonah Hill, who often plays the boisterous comic relief, is actually someone who will say anything to “get people to like him...and he secretly hates unassuming, too-nice-for-his-own-good guy, Larry David, on “Curb Your Enthusiam,” Neubauer’s exceptional music director, Maestro David Danzmayr, currently serves as the principal conductor of the Charleston Symphony Orchestra and the Seattle Symphony, as well as the Charleston Symphony Orchestra and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra.
