

S H E A P S A L ET H E W I N D W A R D I S L A N D E R S H O P

Front Street

Philipsburg

Men's shirts.	f. 3.70
Ladies Blouses	f. 1.00
Ladies Shorts	f. 1.00
Ladies Hats	f. 1.00
Ladies Bath Suits	f. 9.25
Ladies Skirts	f. 3.00
Ladies Shoes	f. 5.55
Dress materials	f. 1.00 (per Yd.)
Girls Shorts	f. 1.00
Girls Blouses	f. 1.00
Ladies Dresses	f. 9.25

The Windward Islander Shop

open mornings only discuss with the Ministers of the European Common Market are; a water distillery plant for St. Maarten and the construction of new schools in the Windward Island. He plans to be back on Tuesday.

NETHERLANDS WINDWARD ISLANDS WELFARE ASSOCIATION (N.W.I.W.A.)

Pastoor Hendrik Str. 47
San Nicolas, Aruba, NA.
October 8, 1963

P R E S S R E L E A S E

The Netherlands Windward Islands Welfare Association was organized on June 4, 1944 and its statutes approved on February 23, 1945. During the association's almost twenty years of existence it has been led by some fifteen presidents. Mr. L.C. Bell a co-founder was its first president and Mr. J.W. Thompson is its present president.

In keeping with its aims and objective of creating the highest moral standing within its entire scope, advancing itself through Social, Cultural and Educational pursuits, the association will be sponsoring a "Windward Islanders Professional Graduates, Students and Parents Evening" on Sunday October 27, 1963 at 4:30 p.m. and a "Netherlands Windward Islands Historical Day" celebration on November 9 and 10, 1963, commemorating the 470 years anniversary of the discovery of the Netherlands Windward Islands.

The former function will be a panel type presentation, with speakers in the professional fields of: Engineering, Nursing, Social Work, Commercial Education, Physical Education and Journalism. The latter will feature, on Saturday November 9, 1963 starting at