The Judge agreed with the Acting Attorney and about 2:45 a.m. condemned Mr. Johnson to have the roadblock removed with the condition that should Mr. Johnson refuse to remove the roadblock then this could be done with the assistance of the Police. Police assistance was not necessary, because Mr. Johnson said that he would comply with the demand of the Judge.

It was not until 3:30 a.m. that Judge Mr. J.V.M. van Koot, Prosecutor Mr. F.C. Flick and Court Recorder M.A. de Lannoy were able to go to bed.

The Courthall at The Botton was crowded. This was the first time in the history of the Netherlands Antilles that a Court Session had started at midnight.
