

had to open its doors to guests before it has been fully completed - "El Pirate" Hotel is a two story building, with 12 modern and up-to-date rooms (all rooms are equipped with private baths).

There are quite a number of tourists on the island at present and we have at one time or the other come into contact with most of them. We are pleased to note that up to press time all with whom we have come into contact have impressed us as being genuinely nice people - In other words human beings.

WANTED

Young energetic male with MULO Certificate. Should be proficient in English and Dutch languages and able to type.
Ability to drive desirable.
Main occupation will be Insurance work but other clerical office duties required.

Apply in writing to:

Chester Wathey
P.O. Box 18
Philipsburg
St. Maarten, N.A.

-The other day we met Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones who are old visitors to the island. They have been visiting the island for the past five years and according to their own words "love it very much" -

Mr. Jones is a construction engineer and hails from Princeton, New Jersey, his wife is a professor at Princeton University - They are fine people to talk to and are staying at the Pasangrahan.

-A Dutch and French speaking American couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lewenstein from Ohio are at present vacationing here - Mr. Lewenstein grows tobacco and he and his gracious wife have visited this island several times and enjoyed all of their visits. They are a most delightful couple and are staying at Capt. Hodge's Guesthouse. According to them, they are having a wonderful time.

-Miss Ann Tuncan of Long Island, New York, is enjoying her first real vacation here - Miss Tuncan visited the island for one day last year while making a cruise aboard the Meteor, she was much impressed with the island and decided that one day was not enough - So, here she is to spend a two-weeks vacation.

Miss Tuncan in the short time that we have known her impressed us as a real nice person and we hope that she will continue to enjoy her stay. She is a guest at Capt. Hodge's Guesthouse and plans to leave the island on Friday next.

-Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Neuss of New York, after spending an enjoyable time at the Sea-View Hotel left on Thursday last by Caribair.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Bogounoff and their little son Benjamin are having a fine time at Capt. Hodge's Guesthouse. They leave on Monday next for their home in McLean, Virginia.

*****

C O N G R A T U L A T I O N S

On Thursday Febr. 27, the charming Miss Rosemary, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Hodge of Philipsburg was married in the United States of America to Mr. Georges Ganzales, a native of Peru.

The memorable occasion was marked by a gals party given by the parents of the bride at their guesthouse (Capt. Hodge's Guesthouse) in Philipsburg.

At about 8:30 p.m. the first of the guests started arriving and at 9 p.m. Capt. Hodge welcomed his many guests - Lt. Governor J.J. Beaujon, then in well chosen words congratulated the proud parents and proposed a toast to the health and happiness of the young couple - Mr. "Bill" Burcher an attorney at law from Westhampton Beach, Long Island, and a longtime friend of the Hodge family, also

ST. MAARTEN TRADING COMPANY

Mainstreet - Philipsburg

-General merchandise-

Groceries - Household articles - Bicycles - hardware

Cosmetics - Suitcases -

Ladies, Gents & Children

wear.

COLD STORAGE AND FRESH VEGETABLES

Prop. J.P. CONNER