LATE FRIDAY EVENING
This last visit in the series of late Friday evening services will take place this Friday evening at 8:30. Rabbi Max Shapiro will con-continue the service and Cantor Louis Hayman assisted by the Beth David choir will chant the Haggadah. Rabbi Shapiro will tell the story of the Red Sea crossing of the Hebrews. Cantor Louis Hayman assisted by the Beth David choir will give a 10-minute address on "Another Season Gone-A Retrospection."

The termination of these additional Friday evening services does not mean that all services are ending at the synagogue for this year. Our regular daily services, 7:30 a.m., and 9:30 p.m., Sabbath services, Friday evening at 6:30, and Saturday morning at 8:30, Hebrew classes and Sunday school continue throughout the year. The synagogue is open at all times for prayer or consultation with the Rabbi.

SABBATH SERVICES
During the High Holy Day services the Rabbi will sit at the Holy Ark and chant the service. The High Holy Day service will begin at 10:00 a.m. The members of the congregation are urged to attend.

PASSOVER HOSPITALITY
In the earliest biblical history we read about Abraham inviting the three strangers into his tent and immediately providing them with food and drink and friendly comfort. Ever since hospitality has been one of the finest traits of the Jew. A Jewish home and hospitality should be synonymous. What Jewish home is in the memory of our immediate ancestors and what the Rabbi has designated as the annual Seder will be under the personal supervision of Mrs. J. E. Isaacs. The correct procedure of the Seder will be under the personal supervision of Rabbi Shapiro. The significance of this law will be explained to any one who is interested.

MUTUAL RESPECT
A beautiful precedent is being set by Mr. A. L. Isaacs, principal of Aria Merritt Junior High School in the establishment of two distinct services for Christian and Jewish students, separately, this Tuesday in commemoration of the Easter and Passover holidays. Rabbi Max Shapiro has been asked to take charge of the Jewish service for the students to be held independently of the Christian service, both will take place simultaneously. It is in this spirit of mutual respect for each other's religious affiliations that can bring about closer fellowship and harmony. Our deep appreciation for such a fine characteristic is Mr. Isaacs.

RADIO PROGRAM
Rabbi Max Shapiro will conduct the radio hour over station WQQW this Sunday from 3:30 to 4:00 p.m. Cantor Louis Hayman, assisted by the Beth David choir will be in charge of the musical part of the program. In view of the action of President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull in presenting an international conference to consider the refugee problem and that the government of the United States has taken the initiative thereby exercising a high moral leadership in a cause which touches the very foundation of moral civilization, Rabbi Shapiro will discuss the subject: "American Speaks in Terms of Eichmann." Sunday School Passover Seder
As is the annual custom Mrs. J. E. Isaacs and her committee of the Beth Jacob Congregation in cooperation with the Beth David Congregation organize the program for a Seder at 8:30 p.m. Services will be held in the Sudan Temple. As in the past the Seder will be under the personal supervision of Mr. A. L. Isaacs, principal of Ada Merritt Junior High School. Since the opening of the school year, Mr. Isaacs has taken the initiative to the refugee problem and that the government of the United States has taken the initiative thereby exercising a high moral leadership in a cause which touches the very foundation of moral civilization, Rabbi Shapiro will discuss the subject: "American Speaks in Terms of Eichmann."
