BULLETN
TEMPLE ISRAEL
107 N. E. 19th Street
Office Phone 2-7745
RABBI JACOB H. KAPLAN, Ph.D.
5954 Alhambra Drive • 5-6468
MIAMI

Either or both of the Rabbis will be in the Temple every morning.
Consultations concerning the Jewish community of the area and advice, and needed, to answer, each matter will be held in confidence.
FRIDAY NIGHT • MAKE NO ENGAGEMENTS • PAY NO VISITES
ON THE TEMPLE

CONGRESSIONAL SEDER

Because of the many requests that came from our members and friends who had attended last year's Seder, we are going to comply with the wishes of three friends by giving a Congre tional Seder at our Temple un-

Friday, April 15th, services at 6:00 p.m.

TED TEMPLE ISRAEL MUSICAL

Professor Leo Portnoff of the Mu sical Department of the Uni versity of Miami, will present a program of modern and classical music of the concert to be held on Sunday evening, April 10th, at 9:00 o'clock at the Temple.

The concert, under the auspices of Prof. Portnoff, is being given for the benefit of the Piano Fund of Temple Israel. The public is invited. Tickets may be obtained from the Temple office, or at the door at the concert. Ticket price $2.50 per person.

TEMPLE ISRAEL SISTHROODER ELECK

Following a luncheon given by the Sisthrooders, the annual elec tion of officers of the Temple Sisterhood took place at the meeting on Monday afternoon, April 4th. The slate of officers presented by the nominations committee and accepted by the membership included:

Mrs. M. T. Travas, president; Mrs. Leo Cohen, recording secretary; Mrs. Louis Buchmun, treasurer; Mrs. May Willian, auditor. A vote of appreciation and thanks was expressed to the retiring president, Mrs. Jacob H. Kaplan, who had served the Sisterhood as its presiding officer for the past two years.

Mrs. M. T. Travas accepted the leadership of the organization in the hands of the Sisterhood in the person of Mrs. H. Kaplan, who had served the Sisterhood as its presiding officer for the past two years.

ROKACH KOSHER
FRUIT PRESERVES
FRUIT KOSHER
FRUIT KOSHER
FRUIT KOSHER
FRUIT KOSHER

To make sure it's REALLY GOOD
AUGUST BROS.
DELICIOUS PRODUCTS

A complete line of Almond and Cocoa Nut Macarons, Nut Cake, Sponge Cake Holiday Delicacies, all reasonably priced. At all leading Delicatessens and Grocery Stores, or on your Bakery

AUGUST BROS.,
361 B. W. Eighth Street.
Phone 3-2972

To bring enjoyment to your Passover table, prepare your foods with

ROKACH PURE and KOSHER FOOD PRODUCTS

THE BELVEDERE HOTEL
845 EUGLID AVENUE
MIAMI BEACH

Founded by the Late Mrs. Ida Fishkind, (First to Bring a Kosher Hotel to Miami)

Will Be Open for the Traditional Seder
Friday, April 15—Saturday, April 16 and the ENTIRE PASSOVER WEEK
REASONABLE RATES

THE JEWISH FLORIDIAN
PAGE SEVEN

Tampa Notes

The Tampa Section, Junior Haion

of Miami, held a regular meeting Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Sylvia Haimovitz.

The following officers were elected as fol

1st Vice-President, Miss Ruby Fis

Asst. Secretary, Miss Ethel Ne

Secretary, Miss Sylvia Haimovitz.

The Junior Dinner Dance will be held

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Falter to general chair

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lepoah returned women and dates as an informal dance and party at Villa Del Rio Monday night. Favor given to the ladies present. The com

[Continued from Page Eight]