opinions about every aspect of life, including the use of alcohol, are important and worthy of consideration. This will, at least, reduce both the internal ambivalence and the external conflict and bring us closer together in a community of faith meant to provide a channel for God’s love and redemption.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

