PRESIDENT BUCHMAN IN THE LION HEART.

The great Jubilee. The most wonderful jubilee ever held in the United States. The lionhearted President Buchman has opened the jubilee with a prayer and a song. The president has given the jubilee a grand opening, and the meeting has made an excellent start. The president has given the jubilee a grand opening, and the meeting has made an excellent start.

A little story about a dog.

One day a man came to see a friend of his who lived in a street of white houses, and there he saw a dog lying on the ground, with its eyes open and its ears cocked up.

"What is that dog doing?" asked the man.

"Oh," said the friend, "it is the president, and it is the dog of the Jubilee."
