LOCAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELI

NEW YORK, N.Y., Oct. 1.--A large number of the new fall styles of goods have been received at Gold's Bros., 8-10 West 37th St., and are ready for inspection. Mr. E. C. O. Yancey, of the firm, says they are among the best lots ever imported. The latest styles of men's suits, the handsomest and most fashionable, and a large stock of ladies' dresses, are among the specialties. The store is open daily from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., and at any time by special appointment.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE SEASON

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the famed New York School of Medicine, has written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing his views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. He recommends the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advises careful attention to diet and exercise.

AUTHORITIES ON THE SUBJECT

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the New York School of Medicine, and Dr. James R. Moore, of the New York College of Physicians, have written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing their views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. They recommend the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advise careful attention to diet and exercise.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE SEASON

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the famed New York School of Medicine, has written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing his views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. He recommends the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advises careful attention to diet and exercise.

AUTHORITIES ON THE SUBJECT

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the New York School of Medicine, and Dr. James R. Moore, of the New York College of Physicians, have written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing their views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. They recommend the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advise careful attention to diet and exercise.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE SEASON

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the famed New York School of Medicine, has written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing his views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. He recommends the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advises careful attention to diet and exercise.

AUTHORITIES ON THE SUBJECT

Dr. H. J. Haverland, of the New York School of Medicine, and Dr. James R. Moore, of the New York College of Physicians, have written a letter to the editor of the New York Times expressing their views on the subject of health and hygiene during the fall season. They recommend the use of the latest scientific methods of prevention and treatment, and advise careful attention to diet and exercise.