NEWS FROM SUBURBAN CITIES

WARRINGTON.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

LAKELAND.
Three instances have come to our notice, which would seem to indicate the necessity of a law requiring justices of the peace to obtain a bond before assuming the duties of their office.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.

JACKSONVILLE.
Friday night the police made a raid on the first barroom in this city, and it is a matter of congratulation to those who desire the public morals of the city to be preserved.

SACRAMENTO.
Mrs. V. J. Shipman, who was president of the Santa Clara Women's Club, has returned from the Piedmont Fair at El Paso, Texas, which she attended as a delegate from the state of California. She was very successful in her work at the fair, and is now on her way home.

ST. AUGUSTINE.
Mr. C. W. W. King, manager of the Warrington Drug Store, has been here on business. The store is a fine one and Mr. King is a popular and well liked citizen.