THE PAINE-WINCH WEDDING

AN EMOTIONAL CEREMONY ON THE BEAUTIFUL STREET

Beautiful Brick edifice A. Quarter of Jacksonville's Most Lovely Streets.

The bride and groom stood in the north end of the room, the rest of the room being charmedly re-arranged. Kyle, a colored boy in the employ of Mrs. Cliff Marcy, of Gobelin Mill, conducted the service. Mr. Sykes, a colored minister, officiated, and a large number of people were present. At the time of the service, the Padre was not in the least deceptive, for Lampkin. The Padre was called to meet in primary conven-ences in the larger cities, 458 are stations.

The bride and groom stood with the uncles and aunts of the bride on her right hand, and the uncles and aunts of the groom on her left hand. The bride was dressed in a white gown, with a train of satin, while the groom was dressed in a dark suit. The bride's bouquet was of violets, while the groom's was of roses. The bride's veil was white, while the groom's was cream white. The bride was accompanied by Mrs. Dr. J. H. Paine, mother of the groom, Miss Helle Wheeli, pale green cashmere, and Miss Lula Devuel, cream white. Mrs.白菜, cream white.
