I do not know how soon this history will be known. It is probable that it may be published in a few years. The first edition, however, is in the hands of a printer, and the work will be ready in a few weeks. It is now the property of Mr. W. H. Gannett, and will be sold by him at a moderate price. The work will be published in the present year, and will be sold by Mr. Gannett for the sum of a hundred dollars. The book is written in a style which will not be found in a single volume of any other.