

TO MY DEAR LITTLE GIRLS

ALICE MARGARET, AND MARY SETON OGILVY.

---

YOUR much loved Mother wrote this little Book, in the hope that, however feeble the attempt, it might be a means, under God, of making you, as she said, true Christians.

She died, alas! two days after you, my poor Mary, saw the light, and before she could dedicate it, as she intended, to you both. I now do so, with the earnest prayers and best blessing of your most affectionate Father,

THOMAS OGILVY.

EDINBURGH,

April, 1851.