

them that his last wish was, that each should give him a promise, every day to pray one little prayer of some words. It was, "Lord, change my heart!" I will make that my prayer. I will pray it over and over again, till God hears it. Lord God, hear it now. Oh! Lord God, change my heart. Lord God, come quickly, and change my heart. Oh! Christ Jesus, change the heart of thy little child.

FOURTH DAY.

I have got the most delightful, the most extraordinary adventure to write in my Journal. I never thought any thing so delightful
