

III.

Louisa Moreton; or, Children, Obey your Parents in All Things.
 Second Thousand. Cloth, 3s. 6d.

Contents.

Chap. 1. Oakdale Parsonage.	Chap. 12. Early Rising and Novel-Reading.
" 2. Arrival of Frederick and Susan Unwin.	" 13. The Welcome News.
" 3. A Serious Alarm.	" 14. A Sunday at Oakdale.
" 4. Visit to Susan Gray.	" 15. The Odd-Looking Parcel.
" 5. A Walk to Springfield.	" 16. Honeysuckle Lane.
" 6. Charlie's Visit to Oakdale.	" 17. Sabbath Instruction.
" 7. A Party of Pleasure.	" 18. The Black Pony.
" 8. Visit to the Dornefords.	" 19. A Walk on the Sea Shore.
" 9. Character of Louisa Moreton.	" 20. Letter from Mary Ann Harvey.
" 10. The First Parting.
" 11. A Gay Party.

"Young Parents would do well to study it. On all such Mrs Drummond has conferred a boon, which we trust they will not be slow to appreciate."—Christian Times.

"A pleasing and instructive book, which we can safely recommend."—Scottish Guardian.

"It combines with the Lessons of religion the allurements of an attractive tale."—Edinburgh Advertiser.

Little Things. Third Thousand. 18mo, cloth, 9d.

"This little book is worth its weight in gold, and a great deal more. It teems with sound practical advice on those so-called 'Little Things' which form the reality and substance of human life. The elements of personal and domestic happiness are unfolded in this manual; and if its counsels were occasionally read and pondered, all would be useful, and all would be happy. We most earnestly wish it an extensive circulation."—British Mothers' Magazine.

The Botany of the Bible; Illustrative of the Power, Wisdom, and Goodness of God. In Two Parts. Cloth, 3s.

"This new book is full of interesting and profitable lessons drawn from the various plants and flowers mentioned in Scripture, and well suited for the purpose for which they have been arranged, namely, Bible Exercises for the week-day school."—Children's Free Church Record.

The Bible Hymn Book. For General Use, and for Sabbath Schools. By the Rev. HORATIUS BONAR. 32mo, bound, pp. 256, 1s.; cloth, gilt edges, 1s. 6d.

"These Hymns have been drawn together from a variety of sources, both ancient and modern, and no small pains have been taken to render the selection both choice and complete."—Preface.