J: No, they were brothers.
D: Excuse me, yes, the brother of Henry Barry Lowry.
J: Yes.
D: Yes, Mr. Patrick is the brother of Henry Barry Lowry. There seems to be conflicts and opinions on what happened to Henry Barry Lowry. Would you tell me what you've heard over the years? What did Mr. Patrick say or anyone else? Will you just go ahead and talk a while and tell us about that?
J: Well, to tell you the truth, I don't know much about Henry Barry, only just what I've heard.
D: Yes, well, that's all we want you to tell is what you've heard, yes.
J: Yes, I didn't never see him.
D: What do you think, did you ever hear Mr. Patrick say what he thought happened to him or what was told to him?
J: No, I don't because I was so young when my daddy died, so I don't remember hearing him talk about him, just what Mama 'ld tell.
D: What would your mother tell? Did your mother, did your father die before your mother?
J: Yes, Mama had been alone for an awful long time.
D: That's right, so how old were you when Mr. Patrick died?
J: Seven years old.
D: Seven years old, I see. So he's a very fine looking gentlemen. That picture you have there in the bedroom, he seems to be a fine looking fellow. Well, perhaps then I should ask what did, what were some of
