

(A11): In the wreck he was found

Lying there on the ground

And they asked him to raise his weary head

And his breast slowly _____

As the spaces she _____

Too _____ know that she'd be there

There's a little white home

That _____

And I knew he'd be happy by and by

So I'll leave him to you

For I for I know you'll be true

Good night _____ goodbye

N: Oh, _____ That is a, I like that song.

P: That's a nice song, though.

C: The reason _____

As the train sped along

And bright lights were shining in his face

He uttered a prayer

As he threw on the air

For he knew it would be his dying race

In the wreck he was found

Lying there on the ground

And he asked them to raise his weary head

In the trestle he went

And this message he sent

To a maiden who thought that he'd be there

There's a little white home

That _____

And I knew he'd be happy by and by

So I leave it to you

For I know you'll be true/Till we meet at that golden gate, goodbye,
