

N: (laughter) Well, now, he says, I'm going to major in something and minor in music.
_____

P: (laughter) You've got a treasure trove right here in this....

C: I agree. _____ if you've got an instrument, you know...

P: Uh huh.

C: ...that's the best thing you can learn to do is play an instrument.

P: Uh huh.

When you're....

N: _____ and we got him, as I told you, we got him to play that banjo, he showed all the boys -- Phillip and Cary and Quinn and Kevin -- how to chord it you know.

P: Uh huh.

N: That's the onliest one. He just, he played, he went off in that bedroom and shut the door and when he come out he could play. (laughter)

P: I love instruments, too.

N: But he quit the banjo when he got the guitar, then he quit the banjo for the guitar. He plays a little bit every once in while, don't you?

C: _____

P: Yeah, you really do. Boy.

C: _____

P: Yeah.

R: Yeah, they was _____

P: Yeah, that's true.

R: One thing leads to another _____

N: Oh, well I went I ahead and got it recorded _____ I told him, he ought to his songs...

P: Uh huh.

N: ...is to get them copyrighted.

P: Uh huh. Are you writing songs? Really.

C: I, you know _____
