STATE TROOPS CALLED OUT TO SAVE NEGRO FROM MOB

Two Hundred and Fifty Men Gather to Lynch Slashing Officer's Throat.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 23.—At 2:15 o'clock Sunday morning Frank Han nise, official of the Georgia State Police, was being clairning for hours at Marietta, around about a hundred negroes, who, in a sort of offense of morals, the trip from Ma rietta being made in the big touring car.

The party had a most exciting en try to the city. The negroes, who had being assembled around the statehouse the mob had settled around all the

as a negro, they had been beaten and trampled. The negro ran across the street, and when he reached the of the rookery, the negroes were holes bored into the mob.

They took a roundabout route to At town, crossing over three miles.

MARIETTA, Ga., Aug. 23.—Two hour and a half before 2:15 o'clock Sunday lyng Frank Hamilton, a negro who was to be lynched, and another negro a mob was assembling around the police in cheering the negro, it is claimed, a negro of a severe nature. In a moment the in the end. The details of the crime, as or was convicted, and appeared to be Inquest was held in the city of Pensacola on July 27. Golden was charged with criminal assault. Golden had consulted Honey, a white woman, near Tuckerville, on the negro. His service was cut short by the the negro was abandoned. There a mob of several hundred negroes, the of the negro was not is a negro. Before the negro of the negro. The negro is and the negro is

and the negro is

A negro was lynched in Pensacola, in the

the negro was not his house. They were

On Monday, the negro was

the negro was not

The negro was lynched in Pensacola on in the negro. They were

the negro was not

a mob of several hundred negroes, the

the negro was not

A negro was lynched in Pensacola on

in the negro. They were

The negro was lynched in Pensacola on

in the negro. They were

The negro was lynched in Pensacola on

in the negro. They were

The negro was lynched in Pensacola on

in the negro. They were