SEBRING — After 25 years the Chili Pepper Cook Off is fast approaching and has been renewed for its second year.

For its first run, the Crazy Chili Pepper Cook Off brought out five teams to compete against one another for title of best chili. Last year’s overall winner was the Avox Park Rotary Club and Crowd Favorite was awarded Positive Motility tran- portation.

The Crazy Chili Pepper Cook Off, named for Rotarian Dr. John Pepper, is back at again Saturday with a new setup in a new location on North Commerce Avenue just off of the Circle — and already has double the field of last year.

Teams will begin cooking at 9 a.m. and the public is invited from noon to 5 p.m.

“We moved downtown this year from Firemen’s Field. We are hoping to work more in the downtown area and we are excited to see the community come down there,” Cook Off Coordinator Nancy Golden said.

Golden has worked closely with the major sponsors, the SEBRING — Florida anglers should prepare for a challenge, and they have their work cut for them.

According to wdfw.com, in 1932 George Perry landed the largest largemouth bass in the United States, while fishing in Georgia — a 22-pound, 4-ounce monster. That record still stands.

Florida’s record fish weighed 20 pounds, 1 ounce. Caught by Pete Fitchell at Big Fish Park in 1923, it stood as the country’s record until Perry’s fish was broken.

It is still in the state’s largest document of catch.

In October 2012, the Freshwater Fisheries division of the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission initiated its Trophy Catch Program aiming to lure anglers onto the water. The program has several goals: To break Perry’s record, promote Florida’s bass fishing, and encourage conservation through catch-and-release fishing, and exciting younger gen-

Pedalettes from Sebring and Avon Park – Bob Beemster (from left), Martha Done, Jan Smith, Sam Highsmith, Ruth Lowery, Carol Good, Rod Wright and Cliff Kolher – meet to check out the routes. There were so many but to name a few: they did get to experience New York City, too. They would come back for one day weekend, rather than making the six-week exhibit. He suffered non-life threatening injuries in the encounter.

As the investigation continued, Det. Hank Smith, assisted by Detectives Adell Cooper, Van Buel and Hulda counted on various addresses in collateral investigation.

Ultimately, contact was made with Brown at Drivex in Avon Park where Capt. Sisson told Brown K-9 units took Brown into custody. Brown, of 53277 Stilwell, Sebring, was charged with robbery with a firearm.

He is in the Highlands County Jail on a $50,000 bond.

The investigation is still open.

LAKE PLACID — The Lake Placid Rotary Club of Commerce has decided to add a little more cheer to the holiday season in their community.

The chamber has put together a holiday contest that has already taken the downtown area to new holiday bright and brought more businesses to the scene.

Chamber CEO/President Eileen May was excited to reveal the idea behind the inaugural Christmas Window Decorating Contest.

"We have invited all of the merchants in the town to participate. What they do is decorate the front window of the side of the building for Christmas, however they want. On Saturday we are going to have judges go through and decide what stores are the winners," May said.

The first year theme of the decoration contest is “Holiday Happiness.” The winner will receive $500 for first place, $200 for People’s Choice, and $50 for Best Decorations.

Judging will begin at noon with the first place winner will receive $25 donated by Ken LeBlanc of The Lake Placid Cottage Company and third place winner will receive $25 donated by the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber is still accepting merchant entries and both businesses and individuals are allowed to team up for the displays in their stores. The judging will take place just before the Lake Placid Christmas Parade on Saturday.

For more information or to be placed on the holiday window display contact the Lake Placid Rotary Club at 465-4311.

Currently, May has already registered 15 merchants who are busy decorating their windows to show their holiday and Christmas spirit.

"We just decided that it'll be a nice little thing to have going on here. We wanted to give everyone just a kind of pop during the season, and it's working. Everyone has been working on their windows and it's exciting," May said.

Don’t become a holiday statistic

Next Thursday will mark the official start of the Christmas season. Holiday shoppers across the country are gearing up for what will undoubtedly be a busy shopping season. The Sebring area is no exception, as we can see the Christmas spirit beginning to take hold in our community, from the lights adorning our homes to the trees lining our streets.

As we get ready to celebrate the holiday season, it is important to remember the safety precautions that can help prevent a true holiday nightmare. One of the most common dangers during the holidays is fire. Christmas trees fire happen regularly, and we want to make sure that it never happens to us.

Leaves and other debris become a common fuel source for a Christmas tree fire. Trees that have been fluffed out and are not properly maintained can easily ignite. In fact, a study by the National Fire Protection Association found that 71% of Christmas tree fires start due to a lit candle or other heating device. Never leave a lit candle or heating device unattended while using the tree.

Additionally, make sure to check your tree for any signs of fire damage. If you notice any singed leaves or charred branches, it could indicate a potential fire hazard. Also, make sure to keep flammable materials like paper, wood, or cloth away from the tree.

Finally, always have a working fire extinguisher nearby. If a fire does start, it is crucial to have a plan in place to quickly and safely put it out. Remember that the best way to prevent a home fire is to be prepared and take action when necessary.

As we enjoy the season, let’s remember to be mindful of the dangers that come with it. By following these safety tips, we can ensure a happy and healthy holiday season for all.

Christmas shopping with Dad

It was one of my favorite childhood traditions. Every year, during the Christmas rush, my father would take me to see the lights and buy gifts for our loved ones. He was always so patient and thoughtful in his choices, and I remember feeling so lucky to have him as my shopping partner.

I remember the excitement of seeing the tree-lot guy, the rush of trying to find the perfect tree, and the joy of wrapping it up. It was a time of anticipation and wonder, and I felt so safe and secure knowing that my father was guiding me through it all.

As we entered the tree-lot, I would always ask my father if he had found a tree. He would laugh and say, “Yes, my little Christmas shopper!” I would then beam with pride, knowing that I had helped him find the perfect tree.

Once we had the tree, we would go to the local supermarket to buy the ornaments and lights. I would always insist on the red and green lights, and my father would laugh and say, “Okay, my little Christmas shopper!”

As we decorated the tree, I would be so excited to see it come to life. I would hang the ornaments with care, and my father would always help me with the lights. He was so patient and understanding, always making sure I was happy with my work.

On Christmas Eve, we would gather around the tree and light the lights. I would watch in awe as the lights flickered and danced, and I would thank my father for his guidance and support.

Looking back on those memories, I realize that Christmas shopping with my father was more than just a tradition. It was a time of bonding, a time of love, and a time of gratitude. I will always cherish those memories, and I hope to pass them down to my own children.

Citizens for Government Accountability to meet

By BARRY FOSTER

Since this correspondent SERRING — Members of the Citizens for Government Accountability will meet this Thursday evening at the Sertoma Hall in the Sertoma Plaza shopping center. They are calling on all citi- zens who have no party affiliation to attend the meeting.

“We want to ask these new NA’s, or new switching to NA, to let us know what they thought about the past election and what they would like to see in the local, state or federal level,” said CGA spokesperson Bill Youngman.

Additionally, there will be updates on Highlands County’s Tourist Development Commission and the Economic Development Commission. Also planned are discussions on the recent event surrounding the proposed animal control ordinance.

“We also want to hear concerns from the citizens who show up,” Youngman said. The gathering will get started at 7 p.m. at the Sertoma Hall. Attendees are invited to arrive at a social time at 6 p.m. with the meeting to commence at 7 p.m. It will be held in the Beef O’Brady’s meeting room on the east end of the restaurant.

The students of Lakeview Christian School in Lake Placid will be presenting an original Christmas musical production entitled “Christmas Construction Company” at 7 p.m. on Dec. 7 and 14 in the Memorial United Methodist Church sanctuary at 500 Kent Ave. in Lake Placid. First performed in 1999, this musical has always been a favorite with students and parents. The boys and girls actually ‘build’ Christmas, only to realize that they have been using the wrong foundation – they have left Jesus out. They come to recognize the true meaning of Christmas, and then they rebuild everything with Jesus right in the cen- ter, where He should be. The musical will highlight each class in the school, and the main drama parts and solos will feature the fifth-grade class: Keelan Bevis, Bailee Cox, Kileigh Howell, Ivy Main, Jasmine Main, Taina Martinez, Donna Sanders, Larynn Sapp, Nicholas Schwartzman, Planner Sharas and Molly Tanning.

Nathan Stanley and the Green Dragons went on the road to get their second win of the season, and in a row, Monday night at Ft. Meade.

The Lady Dragons, who also topped Mulberry last Friday night, had little trouble in getting past an over-matched Hardee squad in Wauchula.

The boys were back in action and looking to keep their roll going, with Tuesday’s home date against Hardee.

The Lady Dragons, meanwhile, are ahead of the game when they play host to a visiting team in the opener.

The stifling D also helped carry the boys’ victory set up an easy choice.

The girls’ victory set up a nearly double-digit lead in the opener.

Sebring head coach Venessa Simines said, “It was starting to look like she would be chosen the best to host the game at 15-8 edge after the first eight points in the frame to make it 15-8 edge after the first eight minutes, before breaking it open in the second stanza.

The standout volleyball player was senior receiving a standing ovation from a number of colleges vying for her services, and she’s fit for the next level right fora.

Unfortunately, the expectations seem to have been set a little too high and out of reach.

The girls’ victory set up high expectations for the boys’ game, which followed shortly after the final buzzer.

So you take away, really, the prime real estate for rushing the football, and that’s the fourth quarter when people are worn out.

Doug Martin has been slowed of late, but that has more to do with the Bucs sputtering during skid that’s fourth quarter when people are worn out.

Doug Martin carried three carries for 9 yards after halftime, finishing with 56 yards on 11 attempts.

The Falcons limited him to 69 yards on 22 attempts — a season-low 2.4 yards per carry — in a 24-23 Falcons victory two weeks ago.

Overall, I thought Doug ran the ball well and continued to do that. I think we’d have had a bad game,” Schiano said. “So, I think we’ll be fine there.

Martin busting onto the scene with a 21-yard, first-touchdown rushing effort against Oakland on Nov. 4, the place averaged 175 rushing yards per game during a four-week stretch in which they turned their season around following a 1-3 start.

Now, they’re looking for more than 100 yards in one of the past four games.

Tampa Bay had 107 at halftime Sunday. But after throwing a touchdown TD to Dallas Clark, FOX analyst Mark Schlereth got the Bucs into the end zone again until late in the fourth quarter.

“Just because you are behind, your whole game plan turns one-dimensional — See BUCS, Page 3B

Franza induction

AVON PARK – It’s never too early to secure a spot to take in Franza’s National Football Hall of Fame. The 57th FACA Hall of Fame induction ceremony will be held Thursday, Jan. 16, 2014 in the Hilton Daytona Beach Resort & Spa, beginning with a Noon luncheon. The induction and luncheon are open to all fans, and for a pre-paid price of $50 will be purchased prior to Friday, Dec. 21. After this date, the price will be $55, and no tickets will be sold after Dec. 21. Lunchbox tickets can be purchased by calling 780-2115 or by e-mailing sboyle@facaflorida.com. The Hall of Fame is the highest honor given by the FACA and is designed to recognize excellence in the game of football, including coaching talent in Florida high schools, for dedication to the FACA and for outstanding coaching accomplishments.

Don’t miss out on seeing one of Highlands County’s own honored with this great honor.

a sister is early to get them into the program, to get them working together,” she continued. “It’s an honor to be asked to do that, but she’s also making some sacrifices. Such as taking part in the graduation ceremonies with the rest of her class at the end of the school year. “I’ll miss that. I’ll miss being at home and with my friends,” Lollis said. “But this really gives me a chance to get a head start.”

Which will serve her well, considering the team she’s going to be a part of.

The Belmont Abbey Crusaders were 28-5 last year, 14-2 in Conference Carolina’s play, and took top-speed Armstrong to five sets in a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

“They have a really good coach, in her third year there, who has really turned that program around,” Sinness said of head coach Mary DeBate.

“They have some really good players and I’ll need to work on getting better both on offense and defense,” Lollis said. “I’m mostly used as a hitter, but I know I’ll be on the back row some too.”

“It’s a little scary. It went from being a high school player to go to, which was a relief, to now I only have four weeks left,” she continued. “But I’m also looking forward to it. Thats produces that extra option came about.

Heisman finalists: Manziel, Te’o and Klein

By RALPH D. RUSSO

Associated Press

NEW YORK — Johnny Manziel and Manti Te’o are in position to make Heisman Trophy history.

Manziel, the redshirt freshman quarterback from Texas A&M, and Te’o, Notre Dame’s star linebacker, along with Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein, were invited Monday to attend the Heisman presentation ceremony.

Manziel is the favorite to win college football’s most famous player of the year award on Saturday night in Manhattan.

He would be the first freshman to win the Heisman and the first Texas A&M player since halftime John David Crow won the school’s only Heisman in 1997.

“I’m overwhelmed by this tremendous honor of representing Texas A&M, the 12th Man and all my teammates in New York,” Manziel said in a statement. “This is a dream come true for me, and I know it’s a credit to all my coaches and teammates. I definitely wouldn’t be a Heisman finalist without my teammates and coaches.”

Three sophomores have won the award (Tim Tebow in 2007, Sam Bradford in 2008 and Mark Ingram in 2009), but the best a first-year player has ever done is 1980 when he finished third in the Heisman balloting.

Adrian Peterson of Oklahoma finished second to Southern California quarterback Matt Leinart in 2004.

Peterson was a true freshman. As a redshirt freshman, Manziel attended A&M last year and practiced with the team but did not play.

Manziel is the favorite to win the Heisman this year.

Michael Vick of Virginia Tech came in third in 1999 as a redshirt freshman. Te’o was a true freshman for Georgia in 1998 when he finished third in the Heisman balloting.

Nicknamed Johnny Football, Manziel quickly became a national sensation this season, putting up huge numbers in first-year Texas A&M coach Kevin Sumlin’s spread offense.

Johnny Manziel appears to be the front-runner for the Heisman this year.
Uncertain Times

Look out for some changes for 2013 Cup season

By Jimmy Delahunt

If all that was good was going to remain the same, NASCAR wouldn’t be the most interesting sport for 2013. The Cup season will be different, too.

Most teams will run a different car than they did last year. Some drivers will run a different team than they did last year. Some teams will run with a different sponsor than they did last year.

But it’s what’s new that has NASCAR fans wondering what the season will bring.

There will be changes. There will be uncertainty. There will be unknowns.

But there’s also excitement.

Remember how it was just last March, it was March, when the 2012 season was getting ready to start. You didn’t know what to expect. You didn’t know what would happen.

But it worked out well.

It was exciting.

So let’s hope the changes for 2013 Cup season work out well, too.

The Cup schedule will remain the same, but there will be changes in the races at the tracks.

Many drivers will be looking for new sponsors and new crew chiefs. Some drivers may be looking for new teams.

But the unknowns will be what makes the season interesting.

It’s going to be a season to watch. It’s going to be a season to remember.

At least until the next season.

A VON PARK — The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 69 of Avon Park has been very busy with dinners and bus trips.

The group started off with Octoberfeast as volunteers help to prepare and serve. It turned out to be a very good day thanks to the volunteers who give of their time to give back to help the veterans.

Then the group had a real-fun bus trip to Madeira Beach to visit the VFW Post 4256 with a lunch. Some of the ladies went shopping afterwards and some played bingo.

The group then went on to American Legion Post 273, where all sat on the deck and enjoyed the view of the water and listened to music. Then enjoyed a sandwich and chips as their commander went around and spoke with everyone and welcomed them.

Members then went to the American Legion Post 8 at Winter Haven for a buffet. A 50/50 drawing was done and one of our the Unit 69 members won it.

A Wounded Soldier Dinner was given by Unit 69. As the women and men prepared the food, the Legion Riders did a ride to help the cause. The special guest was Romona Washington from the News-Sun and her two children. Her daughter was in ROTC while in school and her son is currently in ROTC. A check was presented to Jackie Graham from the Highlands County Veterans Assistance by Unit 69 and Harry Marsh joined from the Council of the Veterans Assistance Program. Then, it was on to the Early Bird Dinner given by Unit 69 and the Sons of American Legion. Everyone had a great time. The food was prepared by Sammie, the Legion’s day cook, and if you weren’t there, you missed out.

‘Uncle Sam’ visits Arc

Special to the News-Sun

AVON PARK — Ridge Area Arc is happy to announce its latest involvement with the Sebring Optimist Club. Not only was the club a sponsor at Arc’s Halloween 5K, but Gabe Read, a member of the Optimist Club, has told Arc the Club wishes to commit to being a continued supporter.

Read visited Arc on Veteran’s Day dressed as “Uncle Sam” to help celebrate and commerorate the important day with the Arc’s Adult Day Training participants.

All were full of smiles and handshakes as “Uncle Sam” made his way around Arc’s campus wishing everyone a happy Veteran’s Day.

The Sebring Optimist Club is a non-profit organization that works to better the educational opportunities for the youth in Highlands County. Arc is excited to see what opportunities this new supporter will bring to the organization and those who benefit from it. Ridge Area Arc provides programs and services to support individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. All donations, no matter how small, are greatly appreciated and are 100 percent tax deductible.

Supporters are asked to remember the Arc in their wills or trusts.

TOPS FL Club 487, Sebring

SEBRING — Last week, Leader Judy Phillips called the meeting to order with the saying of the pledges by 15 TOPS and nine KOPS.

Yes-Yeses: Keep a food diary, use caution, exercise, don’t lose enthusiasm, water, an excuse disguised as a reason is a lie. The 24 core group had 18 winners at 35 coins each and Carol DeArmitt won $2.40 in the 10 Coin contest. The Mystery Gift is now with Shirley Shibaugh and Pat Catfield found more wrappers on the Attendance Box.

KOPS: Reptile Nuttie Nicholas received a charm bracelet for six weeks in lottery below goal. Joyce Valdez gave the programs on “7 Tips to Stay Active.” Exercising for five to 10 minutes is better than not at all; take a walk; try a new exercise like the ball or bands; go up and down steps; park your car far away from the store; mall walk. The idea is to be active and plan to exercise then do it. Give yourself a Gift of “A Healthy and Fit Life.”

LAKE PLACID — Ronald Solano, president of the Rotary Club of Alajuela in Costa Rica, spoke to the Lake Placid Noon Rotary Club on Thursday about the needs of his community. He was in Lake Placid to attend the world famous Wild Game Dinner.

The members of Lake Placid Noon Rotary Club helped his club back in 2006 with a wheelchair project for the special education school Maria Sabino located in El Llano de Alajuela and the comprehensive care center Manos Abiertas located in Desamparados de Alajuela. These are the two institutions that serve the Costa Rica population with special needs children, including children with mental retardation, quadriplegias and spina bifida.

The current needs are to provide special wheelchairs for their students and interns. They are in need of between 30-35 chairs. They serve children from 8 months to 17 years old. These children are usually from families with very low income or abandoned children. They need wheelchairs new or used in good conditions. These chairs will be moved from the United States to Costa Rica and a team of Rotarians will work in adapting these chairs for the child.

Other projects that the Rotary Club of Alajuela is in need of help with are retrofitting the kitchen and repairing the playground at the special needs school. They would also like to construct a butterfly farm at the hospital in San Rafael de Alajuela.

For more information on these projects you can contact Gary E. Cavasos at gecavasos@yahoo.com or his phone number is 863-464-0035 or contact Ronald G. Solano at ronald.solano@clubrotarioalajuela.org; rsolanogarcia@ice.com. His phone number is +506 8330-2478.

Peggy Sue was told that Kay Holmes and Rita Anderson need our person, told that Kay Holmes and Daisy served on the Daisy from when Don and Daisy. Peggy Sue was a beautiful park we have on Christmas day. We had a speaker this morning that was entitled “What to take to bed with you — not a joke.” Can you guess what it is? Your car keys! It is a security alarm system. If someone tries to break in or attack you while you are walking to your car, just press the panic button and the alarm goes off. If you would hang around while that was happening with the neighbors sticking to the front of the window and passing safely and without any trouble. Stay safe, my friends but on a less serious note: have you ever forgotten where you parked the car and used the alarm?”

It recommended locking inside before you opened the door. Check the rear space so that when you get into the car nobody could break in or attack you while that was happening with the neighbors sticking to the front of the window and passing safely and without any trouble. Stay safe, my friends but on a less serious note: have you ever forgotten where you parked the car and used the alarm?”

Thank you for reading the Sebring News Sun!
Dear Abby: When I was an adolescent, my father would take my two younger sisters and me to New York City every year to finally confide this secret to my mother. Although I was tall, a very big weight had been lifted from my shoulders.

That feeling lasted about two weeks. At the end of that period, I longed for her to get on the phone and talk to my mother. No one ever knew this except she could talk to them anyway. Free-for-all conversations.

This was two years ago and, after she refused to let her step, she continues to sell.

Two days ago, I caught her splitting the beans to an acquaintance she didn’t speak to in more than a decade. We got into a heated argument and I told her I would not talk to her ever again. She will say that she wants, whatever may be the need, whenever she want.

My footsteps are NOISY IN DEEP SNOW, even though I was the only spectator until the last minute. My mother feels like she can’t tell my story to gain sympathy for herself. Abby, I really need to end this relationship with my mother. How can I make her stop this behavior?

— The Group’s Daughter Dear Abby: For any to suspect you of brainwashing your mother, your motives, and you have not made any request that she can’t make her stop.

LONDON (AP) — The most widely anticipated pregnancy of the year, and perhaps of the decade, is beginning.

Prince William’s wife, Kate, is pregnant.

St. James’ Palace announced the pregnancy announcement on Monday, saying that the Duchess of Cambridge — formally known as Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge — is in the early stages of pregnancy.

The Duchess of Cambridge is currently in the early stages of pregnancy, and is expected to deliver in the spring or summer of this year.

The Duchess of Cambridge is theCatherine, Duchess of Cambridge, the wife of Prince William, Duke of Cambridge. She is the Queen’s granddaughter and the heir apparent to the British throne.

Kate is the younger daughter of Michael and Carole Middleton, and is the sister of Pippa and James Middleton.

The Duchess of Cambridge is the most senior member of the British royal family, and is expected to take on a number of important roles in the coming months.

The Duchess of Cambridge is expected to be on maternity leave for a number of weeks, and will be seen in public for the last time before the birth of her baby in the spring or summer.
Preheat oven to 500°F. Season beef with salt and pepper, then place in large roasting pan and put all other ingredients on top. Place in oven and cook for 30 minutes.

Remove meat from oven; reduce oven temperature to 350°F.

Place shallots and beef on top of roast completely with cocoa powder; cook until an instant-read thermometer inserted into thickest part of beef registers 130°F. After about 5 minutes, strain into a small bowl and shallots to platter and cover with foil.

Add wine to pan to cook; over medium heat until syrupy, scraping bottom of pan, about 5 minutes. Add beef broth and shallots; bring until reduced by half, about another 5 minutes. Strain into a medium saucepan. Bring sugar and 1/2 cup water to a boil in a small saucepan. Add cocoa powder and mix until fully combined. Pour 1/2 cup syrup; pour mixture in round parchment-lined ramekin or custard dish. Cover and refrigerate for at least 6 hours.

Once chilled, gently remove from ramekin and dust with cocoa powder. Chop remaining hazelnuts and puree in a food processor until mixture is coarse, almost paste. Add puree and mix until smooth. Transfer to a medium bowl set in ice water to cool.

Place 1/2 cup cream just to boil in a small saucepan. Add 3 large egg yolks, room temperature, while whisking. Bring cream almost to a boil in a small saucepan. Add 4 ounces 60 percent semisweet chocolate, melted and blended into cream, and 1/4 cup coarsely chopped hazelnuts. Add 1/2 cup ground allspice; mix until fully combined. Place in refrigerator until firm.

Spoon mixture into round parchment-lined ramekin or custard dish. Cover and refrigerate overnight.

To assemble: Place 1/3 cup of chocolate custard in bottom of 6 small cups (2 inches in diameter). Top with pudding, then another layer of cake. Place remaining mousse on top; spoon with remaining custard. Serve with ChocolatRouge milk chocolate chips and peppermint candy canes. Cover and refrigerate for at least 6 hours.

Make mousse: Prepare an easy ice-water bath in a medium bowl. Place 4 ounces ChocolatRouge Milk Chocolate wine, 8 ounces blanched hazelnuts (1 3/4 cups), toasted and chopped, 1/2 cup ground allspice, and 1/4 cup coarsely chopped hazelnuts in food processor until mixture is coarse, almost paste. Add 2 tsp. canola oil; process until smooth. Transfer to a medium bowl set in ice water to cool.

Prepare an easy chocolate custard using 1/2 cup cream; mix until fluffy. Add four ounces of ChocolatRouge Milk Chocolate wine. Add 4 ounces with U1 teaspoon of grated nutmeg.

Make pudding: In a medium bowl set in ice water, mix 1 cup beef broth, 1 cup ChocolatRouge Dark Red Wine, 3 pounds boneless rib-eye roast, tied with kitchen twine, and 1 teaspoon coarse sea salt. Once chilled, gently remove from ramekin and dust with cocoa powder. Chop remaining hazelnuts and puree in a food processor until mixture is coarse, almost paste. Add puree and mix until smooth. Transfer to a medium bowl set in ice water to cool.
