THE OCALA BANNER.

THE NEWSPAPER.—WHAT IS IT BUT A MAP OF BEST LIFE: ITS FLUCTUATIONS AND VAGUE CONCERNS.—$1 AN YEAR.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The “Ocala Colony” at Saluda, North Carolina.

Dr. W. G. Sharp, a pioneer settler in this section, died about a month ago, after a long illness, and his death occasioned a great deal of regret and sympathy among his many friends.

Dr. W. G. Sharp was born in North Carolina, and came to Ocala in 1840. He was a man of great ability, and was one of the most prominent citizens of the city.

THE OCALA BANNER.

THE “Ocala Colony” at Saluda, North Carolina.

Dr. W. G. Sharp, a pioneer settler in this section, died about a month ago, after a long illness, and his death occasioned a great deal of regret and sympathy among his many friends.

Dr. W. G. Sharp was born in North Carolina, and came to Ocala in 1840. He was a man of great ability, and was one of the most prominent citizens of the city.

The “Ocala Colony” at Saluda, North Carolina.

Dr. W. G. Sharp, a pioneer settler in this section, died about a month ago, after a long illness, and his death occasioned a great deal of regret and sympathy among his many friends.

Dr. W. G. Sharp was born in North Carolina, and came to Ocala in 1840. He was a man of great ability, and was one of the most prominent citizens of the city.

The “Ocala Colony” at Saluda, North Carolina.

Dr. W. G. Sharp, a pioneer settler in this section, died about a month ago, after a long illness, and his death occasioned a great deal of regret and sympathy among his many friends.

Dr. W. G. Sharp was born in North Carolina, and came to Ocala in 1840. He was a man of great ability, and was one of the most prominent citizens of the city.