THE MARGO BANQUET

The banquet given at the Java Club on Monday night by the Women's Club of Ocala, Fla., was a very elegant affair in all respects.

In the afternoon a chapter of the Women's Club of Jacksonville visited the city with the object of studying the arrangements of that city's annual banquet. The reception committee of the Women's Club of Jacksonville, consisting of Mrs. J. B. Walker of the committee, was in charge of the reception committee of the Women's Club of Jacksonville, consisting of Mrs. J. B. Walker and other members of the committee.

In the evening the annual banquet was held at the Jacksonville Hotel, the place being decorated with many beautiful and costly flowers. The banquet was conducted by Mrs. J. B. Walker and other members of the reception committee.

The banquet was a very successful one and was attended by many prominent citizens of the city.

MRS. H. H. BARNETT.

The regular meeting of the Marriage Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Barnet, 1110 W. Main St., Ocala, Fla., on Saturday night, January 1st. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. H. H. Barnet, president, who made a short address on the topic "The Duties of a Mother." After a short business meeting, the program was carried on by the following speakers:

Miss Sarah E. Goodrich, on "The Duties of a Mother," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.

Rev. Dr. J. B. H. Barnet, on "The Duties of a Father," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.

Miss Sarah E. Goodrich, on "The Duties of a Mother," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.

Miss Sarah E. Goodrich, on "The Duties of a Mother," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.

Miss Sarah E. Goodrich, on "The Duties of a Mother," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.

Miss Sarah E. Goodrich, on "The Duties of a Mother," spoke for nearly an hour, giving many valuable suggestions on this subject.