MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Local and Personal

Mrs. A. D. Blackwell is back from visiting her mother in that city.

If you must go, see Ocala and then go to Blackville. Mrs. T. L. Hafee has returned home from Blackville, S. C., and has been for several weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. T. Hafee.

Capt. J. B. Watts of Kannapolis is growing gradually weaker and will die if we are not careful. He was very low yesterday.

Mr. L. H. Miller, the young man who was killed in the earthquake a few days ago, has been returned home, after spending the past seven or eight weeks in the hospital, for his health and recovery.

General Hitching is back from Washington, Ga., is in the city passing a visit to his friends and relatives. He will return to his home in a few days.

If you want a smooth road, go into Bloomsville's Club, where you will find the club running a first-class road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. and daughter, Miss Ellen, who have been guests of her parents for the past week, left last Friday for Gainesville. They are going the county.

Mrs. T. C. E. and daughter, Miss Ellen, who have been guests of her parents for the past week, left last Friday for Gainesville. They are going the county.

A fine meeting of the members of the Woman's Club was held in the Woman's Club rooms last Saturday evening. Mrs. H. S. Davis of this city was in attendance. Miss W. S. Jones and Miss L. H. Miller were present from Blackville, S. C., and Miss A. F. Jones from Madison County.

The Women's Club held their monthly business meeting in the Woman's Club rooms last Saturday evening. The attendance was not large but by no means small. The committee on the financial affairs of the club reported that all had been well cared for.

The various officers of the club—Mrs. C. W. H. Warmten, corresponding secretary; Miss E. A. L. Armstrong, treasurer; and Miss C. W. H. Warmten, secretary—were also in their places.

Mrs. J. R. Blackwell is back from her recent visit in Tampa, of which she speaks very highly. She reports that she was very well taken care of by the Woman's Club in Tampa, and also those members of the club who were also in their places.

The next business meeting of the club will be held in the Woman's Club rooms, and all members are requested to be present.

The money of the report of the financial committee was made by Mrs. C. W. H. Warmten, corresponding secretary. The money was deposited in the bank for the use of the club.

The card and reception committee occupied the entire front of the house. It also extended to the rear of the house, including the yard. The atmosphere was quite warm, and all the guests were made welcome.

The reception room and hall were filled with the most exquisite flowers. The cards and oranges were placed in various parts of the room.

The dinner room was painted in green and gold, and the decorations were done in green and gold.

The club room was filled with flowers and fruits. The members of the club were present in large numbers.

The entire house is lovely, and the decorations are very tasteful. It is a delight to see the entire family.

The house is situated in a lovely location, and is beautifully decorated.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolishly not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.

The Ocala Daily Star reporter attended the meeting of the Woman's Club last Saturday evening. He was very pleased with the proceedings.

The club has a large and active membership, and is doing fine work in the interest of womanhood.

Modern Colonial Residence

111 South Main Street

Built for E. B. Hix, Esq. Tyler and Marbury, Architects and Builders, St. Augustine.

The Woman's Club of St. Augustine, Fla., is this week enjoying the residence of Mr. E. B. Hix, Esq., the owner of the residence. The residence is one of the most beautiful in the city, and is situated on one of the most desirable streets.

Mrs. J. R. Blackwell and her daughter, Miss Ellen, were present from Blackville, S. C., and were cordially received by the members of the club.

The reception room and hall were filled with the most exquisite flowers. The cards and oranges were placed in various parts of the room.

The dinner room was painted in green and gold, and the decorations were done in green and gold.

The club room was filled with flowers and fruits. The members of the club were present in large numbers.

The entire house is lovely, and the decorations are very tasteful. It is a delight to see the entire family.

The house is situated in a lovely location, and is beautifully decorated.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolishly not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.