THE PUBLIC SCHOOL PLAN
Talkhouse 2nd Fld., New York.

Miss H. G. McLean, superintendent of public instruction of the state of New York, in a recent letter, speaks of the interest in the state school fund, expressing the opinion that the state is not doing enough to develop the resources of the public schools. He says that the state has a large school fund, but that it is not being used to the full extent of its possibilities. He suggests that more should be done to promote the interest in the state school fund.
