Mary and her daughter, Miss Edna Storer, are having a pleasant afternoon at Winter Garden. There are seven of them.

Jennie L. White lives to the Daytonia Beach, where her family is at rest and recuperating for a while. She is a good housekeeper and expects to be back there in two months.

Mr. Tom Stook, a prominent citizen, went to the county to visit his daughter.

Mr. W. J. Jackson, a former owner of the Starke and Lake County, is visiting in Ocala town. He is accompanied by his daughter.

Prof. Walter J. Jackson is on a visit to the great cotton exchange at New Orleans, and Mr. S. A. Storer, a veteran of the civil war, is accompanying them.

Mr. Charles Williams is on a visit to the city of Chicago, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. John E. McVicker is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. John E. McVicker is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. James W. Jackson is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. John E. McVicker is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. James W. Jackson is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. John E. McVicker is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. James W. Jackson is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.

Mr. John E. McVicker is on a visit to the city of New York, where he is expected to make a fortune.