Child Birth and Naming

On the first day of the birth, the family will slaughter a sheep. This is called Hurraara. An additional sheep is slaughtered on the seventh day when the baby is named.

Nafiir (communal labor party)

The family having the communal labor force work on their field will often slaughter a goat to feed the participants. Fried meat as well as uncooked and cooked tripe are served. Sometimes mulaah sharmuut or tagaliya is provided with 9asiida. Tea and coffee are served as well.

Death

Usually no special food is provided during a funeral. 9asiida or kisra is served with a mulaah, and tea and coffee are provided.
