51. If you stay in the village during the dry season, do you sell wood or charcoal? ____________________________
If so, where do you get your wood supply? ____________________________
How many sacks of charcoal or stacks of wood can you produce a day? ____________________________
Where do you sell your wood or charcoal? ____________________________
What price do you receive? (by sack or stack) ____________________________
How do you transport it? ____________________________
How often? ____________________________
Month start selling ____________________________
52. Do you sell millet or sorghum stalks? (Explain)

53. If you do not migrate during the dry season, what activities are you involved in which generate income?

54. When do you clear or prepare your land for planting? ____________________________

Do you ever hire labor out or hire labor for land preparation? ____________________________