

JENSEN.

The young peoples meeting which is held every Thursday night is growing in popularity.

Church services were held as usual in the Town Hall and All Saints church last Sunday.

Jensen enjoyed two shows within the last few days a minstrel show and a moving picture show, the latter was the best that has come to Jensen this season.

This community extends its most heart felt sympathy to the Edwards family of Fort Pierce, formerly of Jensen, and sincerely hope their storm of sorrow and affliction will soon pass over.

A meeting of the patrons of the Jensen school was to be held Wednesday to elect a supervisor for the school but nobody turned out. Nobody seems to want the honor.

Dr. Sneden's fast motor boat, the Lamb, was launched last Friday, the boat rides splendidly in the water and behaves well under power and turned out to be all that the doctor expected. He has not tried her out to any amount yet, but will this week and then will go to Palm Beach and take part in the coming races there. Dr. Sneden is very conservative about his boat, and does not expect to make 28 miles as was announced in the Tribune.

EDEN.

F. B. Richards and son, Harry, were at Stuart last Sunday.

John Miller spent Monday at Wabasso visiting Geo. Sears.

Bert Merwin is in Eden attending to the shipping of his tangerine crop.

Several people from Eden attended the minstrel show at Jensen last Friday.

Miss McCormick, Eden's postmistress attended P. P. Cobbs millinery display on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wright, who has been very ill is getting better again under Dr. McClintons treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Russell arrived in Eden last week and will make their home at Ruxton.

A jolly party of fifteen attended the G. B. Y. C., last Saturday and all enjoyed the outing very much.

Miss Una Miller, who has been teaching school at Fruitville, Fla., is expected home the last of this week.

The sincere sympathies of this community are extended to Mr. Edwards of Fort Pierce, in his family afflictions.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of New Jersey, arrived in Eden Monday. Mr. Thompson is a son of Mrs. John Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson, Mrs. and Miss Float and Mrs. Maud Richards helped C. A. Robinson celebrate his birthday on Wednesday.

At a business meeting held in the Congregational church last Monday, a call was extended to Rev. Breckenridge to act as pastor for this church for one year beginning April 1st 1908.

H. W. Lawlor of Ontario, Canada, after spending a week in this neighborhood, continued his journey north Sunday night intending to visit Palm Beach, Miami, Knights Key and Cuba. Mr. Lawlor expects to return to Eden next Sunday where he will visit a few days before returning north. He expressed himself delighted with the south.
