Some Words From Governor Conn.

Former Governor Bob Glenn of North Carolina, who is on the road for Franklin Roosevelt's re-election, and who is of the opinion that the South is a special election member of the United States, has already given his backing to Roosevelt. In the past few months, the South has done little to save the country. The South has been divided among the Southern Democrats and the Southern Republicans. The former party in the past few months has done little to save the country. The South has been divided among the Southern Democrats and the Southern Republicans. The former party in the past few months has done little to save the country.

Thorne-Smith, another partial supporter of Governor Glenn, says that the South has been divided among the Southern Democrats and the Southern Republicans. The former party in the past few months has done little to save the country. The South has been divided among the Southern Democrats and the Southern Republicans. The former party in the past few months has done little to save the country.

A HARD STRUGGLE

Many a Southern Citizen Fights for His Rights
