Amusements

At the Orpheum.
Notwithstanding the lemon season is now well under way, and so many of our patrons have retired from participation in worldly pleasure, this week's most excellent vaudeville bill is by no means less amusing than the "triumphs" of the season, and will by no means fail to please the taste of the "pursuit of Peter".

Cordelia is a favorite of the audience, and is worth seeing. The bill is as follows:

First Act: Miss Darsey and Mr. Miss Whelan.

Second Act: Miss S. E. Johnson, Miss M. S. Johnson, Miss
F. E. Johnson, and Mr. W. G. Johnson.

Third Act: Miss S. E. Johnson, Miss M. S. Johnson, Miss
F. E. Johnson, and Mr. W. G. Johnson.

Fourth Act: Miss S. E. Johnson, Miss M. S. Johnson, Miss
F. E. Johnson, and Mr. W. G. Johnson.

Recorders' Court

Yesterday morning

Nineteen cases were docketed in the recorders' court yesterday morning.

Reynolds Johnson presiding.

Fifteen defendants were found guilty,
who were discharged and two cases were continued. Sixteen assignments of error were accepted.

The cases were disposed of with speed and efficiency.

Pittsburgh, March 1.-No verdict has been returned to the jury in the grand jury case of Chauncey L. P. Harmon, who was indicted with conspiracy in connection with the administration of the city for the purpose of fixing the prices of rents.

The case went to the jury yesterday morning.

Always Tired

To Get Strength

When your nerves and physical systems are tired out-worn out-they need something more than rest.

They need medicines-consumed products of nature, that act as nature planned they should to, in helping along the functions of life, when ordinary methods fail.

When it's a woman-Cardui.

Cardui is not merely a medicine for women; it is a medicine for men as well. It is a medicine for anyone who needs a good medicine for tiredness, depression, or any disease of the kidneys or bladder.

We have what Cardui will do for tired, weak, sick, emaciated women.

Cardui is the medicine for tiredness.

We can give you a sample of this wonderful medicine at any time.
