WHAT SHALL WE DO?

Editor Pensacola Journal

To the Editor: What are we doing with the present condition of the city? We are spending a great sum of money for improvements which are not at all appreciated by the people. We have lived under the same conditions for years and are not prepared to make any change.

JOURNAL FINDS ITSELF IN LIMBO

This is All True.

JOURNAL, Feb. 17.—Things are getting a little too serious, according to some of the publishers. The editor of the JOURNAL found himself in limbo last week and was forced to resign. The publisher, who has been in the business for many years, said that it was time for a change and that he was looking for someone new to take over.

NEWSPAPER FREEDOM IN TEXAS

A free press is a cornerstone of democracy. It allows for the freedom of speech and the ability to hold the government accountable. The people of Texas have long enjoyed this freedom, and it is to be hoped that it will continue for many years to come.
