A BUSINESS PROPOSITION

With our next issue we close the second year of the existence of THE TRIBUNE, and the issue following we begin our third year, which promises to be the most successful of the three.

During the short life of THE TRIBUNE we believe we have given the people of St. Lucie county its best weekly newspaper; one for which no apologies have to be offered, for within the confines of the State of Florida there are none that can claim superiority and few that are its equals.

Most weekly newspaper readers do not consider what a large part of the income of a paper the small subscription comprises, and as the amount is so small they neglect to remit and thus deprive the publisher of his dues.

THE Mulberry Times in an editorial on "Blind Tigers" says that, "being in the center of the tiger territory, we feel that we know a thing or two about the issue."

That is the point exactly. Nothing could be more absurd and illogical than to denounce a law because of the inefficiency of its enforcement.

UNCLE SAM began the enforcement of a number of new laws on July 1st. Hereafter, 10 cents worth of ordinary stamps, with the required letter postage and the words "Special Delivery" across the envelope will be an acceptable substitute for the regular special delivery stamp.

sation to railroads for carrying the mails will be reduced. The Department of Commerce and Labor will begin an investigation into woman and child labor.

Notice to People of Fort Pierce.

Owing to the unsanitary condition of our town the Town Council deem it necessary to engage a sanitarian, who will, under the direction of the health officer, make a general clean-up.

The marshal will notify every owner of yards and alleys, and he is also instructed to see that it is done at once.

Now let us all pitch in with things up right and knock out the cross-sticks of typhoid fever germs.

Respectfully yours, R. W. HORTON, Chairman of Town Council, Fort Pierce, Fla., July 3, 1907.

Notice to the Public.

Having been appointed marshal of the town of Fort Pierce it is my duty and firm intention to fully enforce all the ordinances now on the books of the town, and to this end I ask the cooperation of all the people.

I would especially call the attention of the people to the sanitary and cattle ordinances, which, beginning Monday morning, will be strictly enforced.

Having accepted this office on the promise of the council and mayor to render their co-operation, I trust that the citizens generally will render every assistance, that the appearance of the town may be benefited.

Yours very truly, E. G. GUSTAFSEN, Marshal.

Episcopal Church Services.

Services in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church next Sunday at 11 a.m. Theme for sermon, "Every Heart Knows its own Bitterness."

Card of Thanks

To all the friends whose sympathies and services were so kindly rendered in our time of bereavement, we desire to extend our sincere thanks.

Mrs. N. PLATT, Mrs. M. P. PLATT, Mrs. F. R. HORTON.

County Treasurer's Statement

Monthly statement of John H. Wynn, Treasurer of St. Lucie county, for the month ending June 30, 1907.

Table with columns for fund names (General Revenue, Building, Special School, Fine and Forfeiture, Fish and Game Warden, Special Road) and amounts for balance on hand, warrants paid, and receipts during month.

EDEN.

Miss Margaret Webb and Miss Maud Miller went up on the train Monday to be present at a party for little Margaret Campbell.

Some of our growers are nearly through shipping while others will not finish in two weeks. The season is long drawn out.

We have had the finest melons from Will Leonard's patch. He certainly knows how to grow them and how to pick them to have them just right.

Miss Jessie Miller arrived safely at Gainesville and is now hard at work with her studies, and will no doubt reach the height of her ambition at present, a state certificate.

Miss Reba LeTourneau was a guest at a very charming dance at the Walton club house last Saturday. As the dance was not very well advertised there was not as large an attendance as could have been desired in order to make it a financial success, but the young people had a good time.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Robinson's on Monday afternoon. They have very pretty light work for the hot weather, making centerpieces, dollies, laundry bags, etc.

The death of Dr. Platts came as a great shock to his friends here. He had a number of patients here who were all very proud of him, and all the school children loved him, since they have known him as superintendent of public instruction.

The Fourth of July was observed in various ways by our good people, some going to the yacht club, others to Fort Pierce, and others stayed quietly at home and shot off their fire-crackers, ate big dinners, water melons, cantaloupes, ice cream, and next day one felt just as bad as another and all as if they had too much Fourth of July, as usual.

The killing of Tarver, the old colored preacher, last Saturday in the negro settlement, was an outrage, and we hope the fiend who perpetrated it will receive the full benefit of the law.

JENSEN.

N. G. Read and family have gone to Denver to spend a month.

Harvey Fairbanks has returned from his vacation trip East and is assisting Postmaster Whitney.

Clifford Garrison is assisting Mr. Tompkins at the Bank during the rush of the harvest season.

It is reported that Mr. W. G. Gilmore suffered a fracture of his leg during a game of tennis recently, but reliable particulars are lacking at the time of writing.

G. E. Coon is taking treatment at the hospital for general debility, occasioned by overwork and exposure during the busy pineapple season.

G. W. Baker has returned from St. Augustine much improved in health. A week or ten days longer stay there would have valued to him, but he felt anxious to be helping at home.

A deplorable occurrence took place among the colored people near here a few days ago by which M. L. Tarver lost his life. He was one of the best known and respected of the colored residents, and will be missed among them.
