

The Applicants claim that they have used the said Trade Mark in respect of the said goods for 12 years before the date of their said Application.

Any person may within three months from the date of the first appearance of this Advertisement in the Leeward Islands Gazette, give notice in duplicate at the Trade Marks Office, Antigua, of opposition to registration of the said Trade Mark.

J. D. B. RENWICK,
Acting Registrar of Trade Marks.

Applications are invited from qualified persons (men or women) for appointment as Administrative Assistants (Cadet) in the Administrative Service of the Government of Jamaica.

The post is non-pensionable and carries a salary of £500 a year. Successful candidates, provided they pass the prescribed medical examination, will be appointed on probation for a period of three years and if their service is satisfactory will be eligible for appointment to the pensionable post of Administrative Assistant (£620-25-770-920): promotion to the post of Administrative Assistant will normally take place at the end of the probationary period, but cadets showing Administrative ability may be considered for such promotion before the end of this period.

Cadets will normally be attached on appointment either to the Colonial Secretary's Office or to one of the Ministries, and will be liable to transfer between one Ministry and another in order to gain experience. Cadets may be required to take a course of training in the United Kingdom after serving for about a year; this training will usually take the form of the Overseas Training Course "A" at Oxford or Cambridge; free passages to and from the United Kingdom will be provided and subsistence allowance paid.

Candidates should possess a recognised University degree and should not be less than 21 years of age or older than 26 years of age at the date of application. Applications in writing should be forwarded to reach the Colonial Secretary's Office (Establishments Branch), Kingston, Jamaica, not later than the 30th of September, 1954.

J. W. H. O'REGAN,
Acting Colonial Secretary, Jamaica.

Vacant Post of Assistant Director of Land Settlement (Agricultural).

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates wishing to secure appointment to the vacant post of Assistant Director of Land Settlement (Agricultural), British Guiana.

2. The post carries a fixed pensionable salary of £1,100 ($5,280) per annum (scale A 12) plus a temporary cost-of-living allowance at the rate of £62. 10s. ($300) per annum, but the emoluments offered may be increased as a result of the general revision of salaries.

3. The Assistant Director of Land Settlement (Agricultural) will be required to assist the Director of the newly established Land Settlement Department in the implementation of, and in the management and supervision of the land settlement schemes in the Colony. The main initial duty of the Department would be to study and frame definite policies for adoption by the Government with respect of land settlement and tenure.

The officer will be required to undertake the general supervision of agricultural activities of settlers. He should possess a recognised qualification in Agriculture. Experience in peasant agriculture with special reference to land settlements would be an advantage.

4. The appointment would normally be pensionable, subject to the candidate's medical fitness and, where necessary, to satisfactory service during a probationary period of three years, but the candidate could, if he so preferred, be appointed on a three year contract which might be renewed for a further period or periods. Under present terms on the satisfactory completion of his contract service, he would be paid a gratuity calculated at the rate 22½% of basic salary for each completed period of three months' service, including approved leave.

5. The person selected for the appointment will be subject to the Colonial Regulations and to local General Orders and instructions in force for the time being in so far as they are applicable. An officer placed on the pensionable Establishment will be eligible for vacation leave at the rate of five days for each completed month of resident service up to a maximum of six months, subject to the completion of a minimum tour of service of two years. If married, a pension-able officer would also be eligible for the grant of assisted leave passages for himself and his wife when granted vacation leave, subject to the provision of funds annually by the Legislature and to the requirements of the Public Officers (Leave) Passages Regulations, 1952.

6. In the case of an officer selected from overseas, free passages to the Colony will be furnished for himself and his wife and children (if any) not exceeding five persons in all provided they either accompany him to British Guiana or proceed to join him within twelve months after the date of his departure for the Colony. If he is serving on contract, the officer and his family, up to a limit of five persons, will also be provided at the Colony's expense with passages back to the country from which he was recruited on the satisfactory conclusion of his contract. He will also earn vacation leave on the same basis as is laid down in paragraph 5 above for an officer on the Pensionable Establishment.

7. All applications must be addressed to the Chief Establishment Officer, Central Secretariat, British Guiana, and should reach him not later than the 15th of August, 1954. Copies and not originals of testimonials and certificates should be submitted.

8. It should be noted that the appointment of any person to this post is subject to the approval of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, who may decide to select some other candidate.

9. Applicants already in the employment of Government should submit their applications through the normal official channels.
