

(b) in the case of two elected members, in a two-member constituency not having obtained the same number of votes, according to the number of votes obtained by each;

(c) in any other case according to the alphabetical order of their names.

Power to summon
public officer
to attend
meetings of Council.

9. (1) The Commissioner may summon to the Council any public officer, notwithstanding that such officer may not be a member of the Council, when in the opinion of the Commissioner the business before the Council renders the presence of such officer desirable.

(2) Any public officer so summoned shall be entitled to take part in the proceedings of the Council relating to the matter in respect of which he was summoned but shall not thereby become a member of the Council and shall not have the right to vote in the Council.

Qualifications
for elected
membership.

10. Subject to the provisions of section 11, any person who—

(a) is a British subject of the age of twenty-one years or upwards; and

(b) has resided in the Presidency for a period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of his nomination for election, or is domiciled in the Presidency and is resident therein at the date aforesaid, shall be qualified to be elected as an elected member of the Council, and no other person shall be qualified to be so elected, or, having been so elected, shall sit or vote in the Council.

Disqualifica-
tions for nominated
or elected
membership.

11. No person shall be qualified to be appointed as a nominated member or elected as an elected member of the Council who—

(a) is, by virtue of his own act, under any acknowledgement of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a foreign Power or State;