

(e) if he shall be sentenced by a court in any part of Her Majesty's dominions to death or imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term exceeding twelve months;

(f) (i) if, being a nominated member, he shall be appointed permanently to any public office; or

(ii) if, being an elected member, he shall be appointed to, or to act in, any public office;

(g) if he shall become subject to any of the disqualifications specified in paragraph (c), (f) or (g) of section 11;

(h) if he shall become a party to any contract with the Government of the Presidency or of the Colony for or on account of the public service or if any firm in which he is a partner, or any company of which he is a director or manager, shall become a party to any such contract, or if he shall become a partner in a firm, or a director or manager of a company, which is a party to any such contract:

Provided that, if in the circumstances it shall appear to him or them to be just so to do, the Commissioner may exempt any nominated member and the Council may exempt any elected member from vacating his seat under the provisions of this paragraph, if such member shall, before becoming a party to such contract as aforesaid, or before, or as soon as practicable after becoming otherwise interested in such contract (whether as partner in a firm or director or manager of a company) disclose to the Commissioner or to the Council, as the case may be, the nature of such contract and his interest or the interest of any such firm or company therein.

(4) A nominated member of the Council may by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor and an elected member of the Council may by writing under his hand addressed to the
