

(3) (a) For the purposes of this Ordinance, but subject to the provisions of this section, a person appointed under the provisions of this section to fill a vacancy in the number of persons sitting in the Council as official members shall, while his appointment subsists be deemed to be an official member of the Council and, subject as aforesaid, the provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect accordingly.

(b) Every such person shall hold his appointment during Her Majesty's pleasure.

(c) The provisions of section 14 shall apply in relation to any such person as they apply in relation to a nominated member of the Council.

(4) For the purposes of this Ordinance, but subject to the provisions of this section, a person appointed under this section to fill a vacancy in the number of persons sitting in the Council as nominated members shall, while his appointment subsists, be deemed to be a nominated member of the Council and, subject as aforesaid, the provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect accordingly.

(5) The Governor shall forthwith report every appointment made under this section to Her Majesty through a Secretary of State, and such appointment may (without prejudice to anything done by virtue thereof) be revoked by the Governor by Instrument under the Public Seal of the Presidency.

(6) An appointment made under this section shall cease to have effect on notification by the Commissioner to the person appointed of its revocation by the Governor, or on supersession of the appointment by the definitive appointment of a person to fill the vacancy, or when the vacancy shall otherwise cease to exist.

Suspension etc
of nominated
members.

17. (1) The Governor may, by Instrument under the Public Seal of the Presidency, suspend any official or nominated member from the exercise of his functions as a member of the Council.
