

(2) When a Bill is presented to the Governor for his assent, he shall, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any instructions addressed to him under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, declare that he assents or refuses his assent, thereto, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure.

(3) A law assented to by the Governor shall come into operation on the date on which such assent shall be given, unless it shall be enacted, either in such law or in some other enactment that it shall come into operation on some other date, in which case it shall come into operation on that date.

(4) A Bill reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure shall become a law so soon as Her Majesty has given Her assent thereto, through a Secretary of State, and such assent has been signified by proclamation. Every such law shall come into operation on the date of such proclamation, unless it shall be enacted either in such law or in some other enactment that it shall come into operation on some other date, in which case it shall come into operation on that date.

Reserved
Bills.

34. (1) Any law to which the Governor shall have given his assent may be disallowed by Her Majesty through a Secretary of State.

Disallowance of Ordinances.

(2) Whenever any law has been disallowed by Her Majesty, the Governor shall, as soon as practicable, cause notice of such disallowance to be published in the Gazette.

(3) Every law so disallowed shall cease to have effect from the date of the publication of such notice; and thereupon any enactment repealed or amended by, or in pursuance of, the law disallowed shall have effect as if such law had not been made, and, subject thereto, the provisions of subsection (4) of section 6 of the Interpretation of Laws Ordinance, 1898, shall apply to such disallowance as they apply to the repeal of an Ordinance.
