

(d) exercise the utmost care in preparing the preliminary list for the electoral district or polling division for which he has been appointed. He shall take all necessary precautions to ensure that the list when completed contains the name, address and occupation of every qualified voter in the said electoral district or polling division, and that it does not contain the name of any person who is not so qualified.

(4) Any registering officer who wilfully and without reasonable excuse— Penalty.

(a) refuses to prepare the preliminary list as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section; or

(b) omits from the preliminary list the name of any person entitled to have his name entered thereon; or

(c) enters on the preliminary list the name of any person who is not entitled to have his name entered thereon, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty of two hundred and forty dollars, and in addition to forfeiture of the right to payment of his services as a registering officer.

45. (1) A registering officer shall within the space of twenty-one days from the appointed days write down in alphabetical order of their surnames on the preliminary list in the form set out as Form No. 2 in the Second Schedule, the names of all persons residing in the electoral district or polling division, as the case may be, for which he is appointed who are entitled to be registered as voters, and shall cause a copy of such list dated and signed by him to be published.

Preliminary
list.

Form No. 2.

(2) Every preliminary list shall during the hours of business in each day for a period of ten days after the publication thereof be open to inspection of the public free of charge at such