

other expenses incurred by him as the Governor may award.

(2) An open court shall be held in one or more places in each electoral district by and before the revising officer for the purpose of revising each preliminary list.

(3) The said court shall be held on such day as may be afixed by the revising officer being within four weeks after the publication of the list of claims and objections, and six days notice in the form set out as Form No. 5 in the Second Schedule of the holding of such court and of the place at which the same is to be held shall be published.

Form No. 5.

48. (1) Upon the production in court by the registering officer of an electoral district or polling division, as the case may be, of the list of claims and objections received by such registering officer the revising officer shall go through the same and shall insert in the preliminary list the name of every person who is proved to his satisfaction to be entitled to have his name inserted therein, rectify any mistake in such preliminary list of which he is satisfied, and strike out of the said list the name of every person who, upon the application of the objector, is proved to the satisfaction of the revising officer to be disentitled to have his name retained in the said list.

Procedure of court revising preliminary list.

(2) If the objector appears neither in person, nor by counsel, nor by some voter duly authorised by him in that behalf, the objection shall be overruled, and the name of the person objected to shall be retained in the preliminary list for that electoral district or polling district, as the case may be.

(3) A revising officer holding a court under this Ordinance shall have power to adjourn the same to such time and as often as may be necessary and shall have the same powers for the