

Cap. 61.

keeping of order in his court as are given to a Magistrate under the Magistrate's Code of Procedure Act.

(4) The revising officer shall in open court determine all claims or objections, and shall write his initials against any name struck out of the preliminary list or inserted therein and against any mistake or omission corrected, and shall sign his name to every page of each preliminary list when the same is finally settled.

(5) If the revising officer is of the opinion that the claim or objection of any person is without foundation or is frivolous, he may order such person to pay the actual costs of the inquiry including the costs of witnesses, and such costs shall be recoverable by an action before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Cap. 61.

(6) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the revising officer may appeal to a Judge in accordance with the provisions of the Magistrate's Code of Procedure Act.

Revised preliminary lists to be certified and deemed Register of Voters.

49. (1) On completion of the revision of the preliminary list of each electoral district or polling division, as the case may be, the revising officer shall after signing such lists cause them to be printed and bound separately in respect of each electoral district.

(2) The revising officer shall certify such bound lists and shall thereupon transmit one copy thereof to the returning officer for the electoral district to which it relates and one copy to the Supervisor of Elections.

(3) The copy of the lists transmitted to the Supervisor of Elections shall be deemed to be the Register of Voters for that electoral district and shall come into force on such date as the Commissioner may by proclamation appoint and shall remain in force until the next Register of Voters is compiled and comes into force in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.
