

2. The voters will go into one of the compartments and, with the pencil provided in the compartment, place a cross on the right hand side, opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes, thus X.

For example:— Supposing JOHN JONES and GEORGE SMITH are the candidates for election and the voter wishes to vote for JONES, he must place a cross opposite JONES' name as follows:—

Jones, John Shopkeeper, Tortola.	X
Smith, George Carpenter, Virgin Gorda.

In the Second Electoral District the voter will place a cross opposite the name of each of the two candidates for whom he votes.

3. The voter shall then fold his ballot paper so that the initials of the presiding officer and the numbers on the counterfoil can be seen and the counterfoil detached without opening the ballot paper; he shall then return the ballot paper so folded to the presiding officer who shall in full view of those present including the voter remove the counterfoil and place the ballot paper in the ballot box. The voter shall then forthwith quit the polling station.

4. If the voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he can return it to the presiding officer who will, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper.

5. If the voter places any mark on the paper by which he may afterwards be identified or if—

- (i) at a general election in the Second Electoral District he votes for more than two candidates; or
- (ii) in any other electoral district he votes for more than one candidate; or
- (iii) at a by-election he votes for more than the number of candidates to be elected.

then his ballot paper will be void and will not be counted.

6. If the voter takes a ballot paper out of the polling station or deposits in the ballot box any other paper than the one given him by the presiding officer, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for three months or to a fine of two hundred and forty dollars.
