Dear Farris:

Your address to the Southern Governors' Conference was certainly properly billed as the "Keynote Address". It was exactly that and was the high-point of the entire Conference.

I hope that you and others in the Administration will have many opportunities to bring that message to all parts of the country and to all of our cities.

As you know, I liked particularly, out of an address which was excellent from beginning to end, the phrase, "The worst way to seek justice...is to substitute the immoral law of force for the moral force of law".

With sincere appreciation for your meaningful message and warmest regards, I am

Sincerely,
